THIEVES HUNT FOR GOLD IN OFFICES OF DENTISTS

Three Establishments Raided and Probably $500 Worth of Material Carried Off.

THE BURGLARIES WERE CLEVERLY MANAGED

A series of daring burglaries, resulting in a loss of about $500 to local dentists, was committed some time during Saturday night or before daylight Sunday morning. This is the second time within a year that dental offices here have been robbed of gold and valuable articles and it is apparent that the burglar is well versed in dentistry. It is the opinion of local dentists that the burglar at some time or other followed the profession. The establishments to suffer Saturday night were The Red Cross, Drs. C. J. Harrison and R. Calcott, located in the Thompson building, The Pittsburg Dental Parlors, Dr. J. M. Little, in the same building, and Dr. J. H. Sloan, in the Golding building.

At the Red Cross establishment an entrance to the rooms was effected by reaching the spring lock, a sharp instrument being inserted under the batten of the door. With but very little work, and without noise, the instrument was pressed against the bolt of the lock and the bolt was easily forced back. The simpleness and effectiveness of this plan brands the burglar as a genius in his line.

The burglar had a clear field after gaining the room and he proceeded to rummage through the cabinets and workshop. The roll top desk in the room was forced open and from it gold to the value of about $50 was taken. In the drawers of the cabinet were a number of gold teeth, crowns and bridge work, valued at $100, under process of construction for customers, all of which was stolen. To show how well the burglar understood the business of a dentist, several teeth, contained in the cabinet, were broken open to see whether they were filled with the precious metal. A drawer containing plaster of paris was explored to find work placed there to cool. The burglar also carried away porcelain crowns to the value of about $25 or $30. In the workshop the bur-

GOOD FEELING SHOWN AT COMMITTEE MEETING

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—The meeting of the Republican county central committee, held here Saturday afternoon, was given over to brief impromptu addresses by leaders from all parts of the county, after the business had been deferred. These addresses added much to the prevailing good feeling and the representatives from all parts of the county promised at least the usual majority for all the Republican ticket.

Officials of the county committee urged that township committeemen send in reports of their local organization, together with requests for meetings wherever they may be desired. Lithographs of Hanna and Herrick, 2,500 of each, will be here in a few days and a pro rata distribution of them made among the township committees.

GREAT SCHEME OF A HERMIT

A PENNSYLVANIA ODDITY

Encountered By Local Nimrods Who Were Hunting Near Greensburg. He Lives in the Woods But Knows the Game Laws Well.

George Parry and the party of hunters who left the city a week ago to enjoy an outing in the vicinity of Greensburg, Pa., have returned. He reports that he had one of the best trips of his life and that it would be impossible to enumerate the game that fell before his unerring aim.

Besides having a week of genuine sport, the party came in contact with a character, who once met, can never be forgotten. He is peculiar in many ways. The name of the man was not learned. He is a man of about 50 years and lives in the midst of a dense forest in a rudely constructed cabin. In general appearance he resembles the immortal Robinson Crusoe. It is said that this man has not been seen outside the forest in 20 years.

Like a hermit he confines himself to the woods and for a livelihood during the past few years since the game laws became effective in Pennsylvania he has resorted to a plan the like of which is unprecedented.

As is well known, a farm owner is empowered with the right to make an arrest of any violator of the game laws. This strange man owns the forest which surrounds him. It consists of about four acres of hickory trees. Such trees of course are sought by the squirrel family and when a bevy of them discovered this array of trees they decided to make it their permanent home. It was to them a veritable Eden. It is estimated that there are in the neighborhood of 400 squirrels harbored in this forest.

In Pennsylvania there is not a vicinity more hunted than the one in which this forest lies. There are hunters by the score traversing the district daily in quest of game and they usually find it. When they run into the secluded bunch of trees, the first thing they hear is the merry chirp of a squirrel and about a moment later no less than a score of the pretty animals come to view. Every one who knows the natural inclination of a hunter knows that the temptation is too great to resist—squirrel season or no squirrel season—to see one of them in plain view and let it go without a salute consisting of powder and ball. That is what every hunter does who happens along near this forest. Like a flash he raises his gun, takes quick aim and one of the innocent little animals keels over onto a limb and subsequently topples to the ground.

The hunter rushes to his dead game and just as he is picking it up the so-called hermit appears on the scene. He has been watching the maneuver from the very start and the hunter has done exactly what he wanted him to do and what he knew he would do if possessed of any sporting blood. "You know it is against the law to shoot these squirrels," says he. "Well, now I will put you under arrest and have you prosecuted to the full extent of the law if you do not make amends for killing my squirrel."

There is but one way out of it for the hunter. He must furnish $10 or put up his gun for security. The latter is generally done. It is said that the hermit is rapidly acquiring wealth and that he has his cabin half filled with guns, the result of his strange proceedings.

In Jail For Larceny.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special)—Howard Pickering, of East Liverpool, indicted for petit larceny, was brought to the county jail by Sheriff Leonard yesterday.

A LEAKY SCREEN CAUSES TROUBLE

Salineville, October 5.—(Special.)—The miners at the Slope mine here decided Saturday morning to quit work until the Ohio & Pennsylvania Coal company would fix the screen over which all the coal is dumped into cars. Over two weeks ago the company was notified that unless it readjusted the screen, the men would not work. The company paid no attention to the demand, and when the time had expired the men refused to work.

Al McGarry, of Cleveland, was down to meet with the committee Saturday and adjust the differences and he agreed to have the screen fixed the first of this week. The screen bars were so worn that a large amount of coal would pass into the slack chute, and the miners were losing from six to ten cents on each ton, it is said.

ANXIOUS TO KNOW ABOUT THE PRIZE

The Labor Day Contest For $25 Has Not Yet Been Decided.

THE CAUSE OF THE DELAY

Since the Labor day demonstration held in this city September 7, nearly a month ago, there are at least two union organizations who participated in the parade anxious to know what disposition has been made of the prize for the best turn out and display of their respective trade. A large number of union organizations competed for the prize, which was to be $25 in gold. The most formidable rivals in the contest were the teamsters and the local branch of the International Union of Steam Engineers.

Any one interested in the contest and who can remember that far back will recall that the steam engineers went to a great deal of trouble and expense in making a display. A traction engine had been arranged for, and with a very large percentage of its membership in line the union made an excellent showing. They were well uniformed and their display was something entirely out of the ordinary.

The teamsters' union, an association which had accomplished a great deal for its members within the past year, was also out for the prize, and owing to the method adopted in making the display the effort was both unique and attractive. The membership of this union is larger than that of the engineers, and for this reason the display attracted more attention. However, the latter organization had much the best of the argument in the matter of percentage in line, and believe there should have been little hesitation in making the award.

The officers of the central labor union who had charge of the demonstration, appointed a disinterested and secret committee, and to the present that committee has failed to make a report. It was suggested at one time that the two unions were so evenly matched that the committee was unable to determine which of the two had won, and that under the circumstances the money ought to be divided. The idea did not meet with favor at the hands of either organization, and so far as any of the interested ones are concerned there has been no decision.

Elza Vandyne, conceded to be one of the best clay miners in this vicinity, received terrible injuries Saturday afternoon at about 2 o'clock while at work in the mines of the Champion Fire Brick company, Wellsville. As a result the injured man lies at his home in Jethro Hollow, suffering indescribable pain, with the chances about even for his recovery.

Mr. Vandyne was standing between two heavily laden cars en route from far into the hill to the opening of the mine. The tram road over which the cars are hauled had become weakened and while the cars were passing over possibly the worst section of the road the upright posts gave way and before Mr. Vandyne had the opportunity to jump two of the cars went through to the bottom of the mine. He was standing on one of the cars that fell and when they bumped together he was pinioned between them. The weight against his body was great and the fall adding momentum to the load, his body at the hips was crushed practically to a pulp.

The shock was so great and the pain so intense that Mr. Vandyne screamed out in heart-rending tones for help. It was impossible for him to extricate himself, and before assistance arrived he had fallen over in a semi-conscious condition. Fellow workmen realized at once upon their arrival at his side that Vandyne was badly hurt and after getting him from between the heavy loads, carried him to the open air and then summoned the ambulance from central fire station. The wagon had been called to the East End and the best that Chief Morley could do was to send two men to the scene with a stretcher.

Upon the arrival of the officers Vandyne was carefully laid on the stretcher and taken to a street car upon which he was brought to his home. Dr. Norris was called and found the man to be in an exceedingly bad condition. The physician stated today that Vandyne would not necessarily die from the effects of the wounds, but that he would surely be laid up for months.

PROHIBITIONISTS WILL MEET TONIGHT

COUNTY AND SENATORIAL TICKET TO BE NAMED.

Party Leaders Announce That a Determined Fight Is to Be Waged.

The County Prohibition convention will be held in the G. A. R. hall this evening. Immediately following the convention senatorial candidates to represent the Twentieth-Twenty-Second district will be nominated.

Secretary C. F. Bough, of the county committee, stated this morning that the Prohibitionists of Columbiana county intend to make a hard fight at the coming election. Numerous plans have been laid by the organization and all will be completed at the convention tonight. An entire county ticket will be nominated. Representatives from all ports of the county have promised to be present and considerable more interest than has been noted in the past is expected.

Mr. Bough was unable to announce the names of any of the probable candidates. He would say only that they will comprise the best men in the city and county, and that the belief of the party is that the choice will poll large votes.

The only known candidate for senator is W. G. Todd, a prominent man of Belmont county. His home is at Flushing and he will be supported by every delegate of Belmont county, and it is thought he will receive the support of the entire convention. It will be remembered that Mr. Todd ran for representative on the Prohibition ticket a few years ago. In anticipation of his being received even more favorably than in his last race he will be nominated. Delegates from Bridgeport, Steubenville and other down-the-river towns will be in attendance at the meeting this evening.

Mayor Weaver announced this morning that the entire Prohibition party intends to be in the coming fight to a finish. "We are going to show the people a thing or two," said the chief executive. Other leaders of the party in the city are equally confident.

CLAIMS HER CHILD IS BEING DETAINED

Anxious Mother Says the Little One Is Near Death And She Cannot See It.

Mrs. Emma Farnsworth appeared at central station this afternoon and asked the mayor to assign an officer to accompany her to the home of George Tucker in California Hollow, where she claimed her child is being kept. She said it was at death's door and the Tucker family will not allow her to see it.

What might have been a most disastrous accident to both life and property occurred this morning at about 11:30 on the Horn switch, near the Dresden pottery, when freight train No. 7648 became uncontrollable and started on a terrific run down to the main line. That the catastrophe was averted was due solely to the train jumping the track before any great momentum had been gained.

The engine had been shifting some cars near the extremity of the switch and had started back toward the main track. As it is customary, when the train crews have nothing to hold them back, to go down the track with the speed of the wind, the engineer of this train had opened the throttle and the freight train was speeding at an awful rate. When a few yards east of the Dresden pottery the engineer was shocked upon finding that the brakes had become caught in some manner and that he could not work them. He tried with all his might to apply the air but it refused and just as the engineer and the remainder of the crew were preparing for the wildest run of their lives, the engine and three of the cars went jumping off the track. They stopped because of high ground in the pathway.

The crew was badly shaken up and the cars were broken up considerably. The wreck crew was summoned from Wellsville but at 3 o'clock had not appeared on the scene.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO SALEM BOY

Salem, October 5.—Earl Entriken, aged 18, a well known young man of this city, died Saturday morning as the result of injuries received shortly before 12 o'clock Friday night in a runaway on Broadway. The young man was unconscious when picked up and remained in that state until death came.

In the accident which caused the death of young Entriken, two members of the "Arizona" show troupe were also severely injured, and a fourth man, Carey Johnson, fortunately escaped injuries. The upsetting of a heavily laden trunk wagon caused the death and injuries.

Licensed to Marry.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—Chris Zimmerman and Mrs. Wilhelmina Voegtle, both of East Liverpool, have been licensed to marry.

A DEMURRER FILED IN THE WYMAN CASE

A special from Lisbon states that a demurrer was filed this afternoon by Attorneys Brookes & Thompson, of this city, and Billingsley, Clark & DeFord, of Lisbon, representing Mayor Weaver and the board of public safety, in the case of City Solicitor Davidson, which was instituted last week to prevent the appointment of John Wyman as chief of police.

The attorneys allege in the demurrer that Solicitor Davidson had no right to bring action and that he did not state the cause of action in his petition. The demurrer will be heard on Friday.

If it is sustained the case will not come up for a hearing before Judge Hole. If the demurrer is ignored the case will come up the first of next week.

STOCK EXCHANGE IS INDICTED

A Fight Will Be Put Up By F. A. Tremaine to Keep His Business Running.

Among the local people indicted by the grand jury last week was F. A. Tremaine, manager of the Penn Stock exchange, with headquarters in the Potters' National bank building. The indictment against Mr. Tremaine charges him with unlawfully operating a broker's shop. The papers to appear before common pleas court were served on Mr. Tremaine Saturday night by Sheriff Leonard.

Mr. Tremaine has decided to fight the case to the bitter end. He is confident that his business is not unlawful and is positive that such can be proven to the court. There seems to be some difference, indeed a great difference, between the kind of a shop run by Mr. Tremaine and the one that was in the city several years ago. The latter was a bucket shop where money was spent only on margins, and Mr. Tremaine, it is said, buys and sells actual stock. It is understood that his fight will be made from that stand point.

ANOTHER MEETING ON BOND QUESTION

Council Will Assemble Tonight to Take Up the Vexed Subject.

A special meeting of council will be held this evening to take up for another time the aggravating bond question. The call was issued late this afternoon and every member is expected to be present.

William McCullough, the man who got an option on the bonds last week, accompanied by Attorney W. F. Jones, of Wellsville, arrived in the city this morning and after a consultation with City Solicitor G. E. Davidson, concluded that the resolution passed by council ordering the sale of the bonds is illegal.

Mr. Cullough apprised the solicitor and also the auditor that he could not furnish a buyer unless the resolution is materially changed. As a result it was decided to hold a meeting tonight.

River Committee Meeting—A meeting will be held at the postoffice this evening from 7:30 to 8 of the delegates to the coming river convention at Evansville. Every delegate is urged to be present.

HANOVERTON HAS A GOOD-SIZED FIRE

S. A. Henderson's Undertaking Shop And Its Contents Totally Destroyed.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—A serious fire occurred in Hanoverton early Sunday morning. It resulted in the total destruction of S. A. Henderson's undertaking establishment, together with a stock of coffins and fixtures.

The fire was first seen about 4 o'clock and had already made such headway that the firemen had to be content with saving contiguous property. Among the destroyed property was Mr. Henderson's hearse, a two-horse wagon, a surrey, a spring wagon, all his harness, and 23 coffins. The coffins were worth at least $500. The total loss will reach $3,000; insurance, $2,000.

While the origin of the fire is a mys-tery, the general opinion is that it was the work of an incendiary, though there is said to be a possibility that it was due to the spontaneous combustion of embalming fluid. The firemen, with the Seeds fire engine purchased by the village a few years ago, did excellent work in saving adjoining property.

TELEGRAPH POLES NOT TO COME DOWN

Pittsburg, October 5.—Judge Joseph Buffington, in the United Sates circuit court, on Saturday decided one more case against the Western Union Telegraph company with reference to its lines on the Cleveland & Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania lines west. While granting the demurrer of the railroad Judge Buffington expressed the opinion that the telegraph company had a joint interest in the poles and wire. This will serve to complicate the case in the end.

The case just decided is entirely different from that on the Pennsylvania railroad. There will be no pole chopping, inasmuch as for some time a working agreement has been in effect between the two companies under which the railroad agrees to refrain from interfering with the property of the telegraph company until the case is finally disposed of. President A. J. Cassatt has also tired of his early frolic. Judge Buffington's opinion would prevent pole chopping if such a working arrangement were not in effect, and it will even raise the question of the right of the telegraph company to continue to hold its poles on the right of way if Judge Buffington's view is finally sustained.

On the Pennsylvania the question at issue was that of a lease which had expired. On the Pennsylvania lines west the telegraph company claimed joint ownership under an old agreement. The granting of the demurrer filed by the Pennsylvania company to the equity suit of the Western Union means that on the contention Judge Buffington believes that the Western Union has no case. He refuses to define the extent of the joint ownership of personalty and unless the question is defined in the United States court of appeals, to which it will be taken, a cross suit to determine the ownership of all the property will be tried.

Rev. A. W. Lytle to Quit the Pulpit on Account of Impaired Health.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—Rev. A. W. Lytle, who has been pastor of the Lisbon U. P. church for nine years, yesterday announced his retirement. He has been in failing health for a year or two, and the need of absolute rest is evident, as he is now apparently on the verge of nervous prostration.

His complete relinquishment of pastoral duties will become effective in one month. In case he is unable to preach during that time the pulpit will be supplied.

In Pennsylvania there is not a vicinity more hunted than the one in which this forest lies. There are hunters by the score traversing the district daily in quest of game and they usually find it. When they run into the secluded bunch of trees, the first thing they hear is the merry chirp of a squirrel and about a moment later no less than a score of the pretty animals come to view. Every one who knows the natural inclination of a hunter knows that the temptation is too great to resist—squirrel season or no squirrel season—to see one of them in plain view and let it go without a salute consisting of powder and ball. That is what every hunter does who happens along near this forest. Like a flash he raises his gun, takes quick aim and one of the innocent little animals keels over onto a limb and subsequently topples to the ground.

The hunter rushes to his dead game and just as he is picking it up the so-called hermit appears on the scene. He has been watching the maneuver from the very start and the hunter has done exactly what he wanted him to do and what he knew he would do if possessed of any sporting blood. "You know it is against the law to shoot these squirrels," says he. "Well, now I will put you under arrest and have you prosecuted to the full extent of the law if you do not make amends for killing my squirrel."

There is but one way out of it for the hunter. He must furnish $10 or put up his gun for security. The latter is generally done. It is said that the hermit is rapidly acquiring wealth and that he has his cabin half filled with guns, the result of his strange proceedings.

In Jail For Larceny.

A DEMURRER FILED IN THE WYMAN CASE

A special from Lisbon states that a demurrer was filed this afternoon by Attorneys Brookes & Thompson, of this city, and Billingsley, Clark & DeFord, of Lisbon, representing Mayor Weaver and the board of public safety, in the case of City Solicitor Davidson, which was instituted last week to prevent the appointment of John Wyman as chief of police.

The attorneys allege in the demurrer that Solicitor Davidson had no right to bring action and that he did not state the cause of action in his petition. The demurrer will be heard on Friday.

If it is sustained the case will not come up for a hearing before Judge Hole. If the demurrer is ignored the case will come up the first of next week.

A LEAKY SCREEN CAUSES TROUBLE

Salineville, October 5.—(Special.)—The miners at the Slope mine here decided Saturday morning to quit work until the Ohio & Pennsylvania Coal company would fix the screen over which all the coal is dumped into cars. Over two weeks ago the company was notified that unless it readjusted the screen, the men would not work. The company paid no attention to the demand, and when the time had expired the men refused to work.

Al McGarry, of Cleveland, was down to meet with the committee Saturday and adjust the differences and he agreed to have the screen fixed the first of this week. The screen bars were so worn that a large amount of coal would pass into the slack chute, and the miners were losing from six to ten cents on each ton, it is said.

ANXIOUS TO KNOW ABOUT THE PRIZE

The Labor Day Contest For $25 Has Not Yet Been Decided.

THE CAUSE OF THE DELAY

Since the Labor day demonstration held in this city September 7, nearly a month ago, there are at least two union organizations who participated in the parade anxious to know what disposition has been made of the prize for the best turn out and display of their respective trade. A large number of union organizations competed for the prize, which was to be $25 in gold. The most formidable rivals in the contest were the teamsters and the local branch of the International Union of Steam Engineers.

Any one interested in the contest and who can remember that far back will recall that the steam engineers went to a great deal of trouble and expense in making a display. A traction engine had been arranged for, and with a very large percentage of its membership in line the union made an excellent showing. They were well uniformed and their display was something entirely out of the ordinary.

The teamsters' union, an association which had accomplished a great deal for its members within the past year, was also out for the prize, and owing to the method adopted in making the display the effort was both unique and attractive. The membership of this union is larger than that of the engineers, and for this reason the display attracted more attention. However, the latter organization had much the best of the argument in the matter of percentage in line, and believe there should have been little hesitation in making the award.

The officers of the central labor union who had charge of the demonstration, appointed a disinterested and secret committee, and to the present that committee has failed to make a report. It was suggested at one time that the two unions were so evenly matched that the committee was unable to determine which of the two had won, and that under the circumstances the money ought to be divided. The idea did not meet with favor at the hands of either organization, and so far as any of the interested ones are concerned there has been no decision.

HANOVERTON HAS A GOOD-SIZED FIRE

S. A. Henderson's Undertaking Shop And Its Contents Totally Destroyed.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—A serious fire occurred in Hanoverton early Sunday morning. It resulted in the total destruction of S. A. Henderson's undertaking establishment, together with a stock of coffins and fixtures.

The fire was first seen about 4 o'clock and had already made such headway that the firemen had to be content with saving contiguous property. Among the destroyed property was Mr. Henderson's hearse, a two-horse wagon, a surrey, a spring wagon, all his harness, and 23 coffins. The coffins were worth at least $500. The total loss will reach $3,000; insurance, $2,000.

While the origin of the fire is a mystery, the general opinion is that it was the work of an incendiary, though there is said to be a possibility that it was due to the spontaneous combustion of embalming fluid. The firemen, with the Seeds fire engine purchased by the village a few years ago, did excellent work in saving adjoining property.

Elza Vandyne, conceded to be one of the best clay miners in this vicinity, received terrible injuries Saturday afternoon at about 2 o'clock while at work in the mines of the Champion Fire Brick company, Wellsville. As a result the injured man lies at his home in Jethro Hollow, suffering indescribable pain, with the chances about even for his recovery.

Mr. Vandyne was standing between two heavily laden cars en route from far into the hill to the opening of the mine. The tram road over which the cars are hauled had become weakened and while the cars were passing over possibly the worst section of the road the upright posts gave way and before Mr. Vandyne had the opportunity to jump two of the cars went through to the bottom of the mine. He was standing on one of the cars that fell and when they bumped together he was pinioned between them. The weight against his body was great and the fall adding momentum to the load, his body at the hips was crushed practically to a pulp.

The shock was so great and the pain so intense that Mr. Vandyne screamed out in heart-rending tones for help. It was impossible for him to extricate himself, and before assistance arrived he had fallen over in a semi-conscious condition. Fellow workmen realized at once upon their arrival at his side that Vandyne was badly hurt and after getting him from between the heavy loads, carried him to the open air and then summoned the ambulance from central fire station. The wagon had been called to the East End and the best that Chief Morley could do was to send two men to the scene with a stretcher.

Upon the arrival of the officers Vandyne was carefully laid on the stretcher and taken to a street car upon which he was brought to his home. Dr. Norris was called and found the man to be in an exceedingly bad condition. The physician stated today that Vandyne would not necessarily die from the effects of the wounds, but that he would surely be laid up for months.

STOCK EXCHANGE IS INDICTED

A Fight Will Be Put Up By F. A. Tremaine to Keep His Business Running.

Among the local people indicted by the grand jury last week was F. A. Tremaine, manager of the Penn Stock exchange, with headquarters in the Potters' National bank building. The indictment against Mr. Tremaine charges him with unlawfully operating a broker's shop. The papers to appear before common pleas court were served on Mr. Tremaine Saturday night by Sheriff Leonard.

Mr. Tremaine has decided to fight the case to the bitter end. He is confident that his business is not unlawful and is positive that such can be proven to the court. There seems to be some difference, indeed a great difference, between the kind of a shop run by Mr. Tremaine and the one that was in the city several years ago. The latter was a bucket shop where money was spent only on margins, and Mr. Tremaine, it is said, buys and sells actual stock. It is understood that his fight will be made from that stand point.

Council Will Assemble Tonight to Take Up the Vexed Subject.

A special meeting of council will be held this evening to take up for another time the aggravating bond question. The call was issued late this afternoon and every member is expected to be present.

William McCullough, the man who got an option on the bonds last week, accompanied by Attorney W. F. Lones, of Wellsville, arrived in the city this morning and after a consultation with City Solicitor G. E. Davidson, concluded that the resolution passed by council ordering the sale of the bonds is illegal.

Mr. Cullough apprised the solicitor and also the auditor that he could not furnish a buyer unless the resolution is materially changed. As a result it was decided to hold a meeting tonight.

River Committee Meeting—A meeting will be held at the postoffice this evening from 7:30 to 8 of the delegates to the coming river convention at Evansville. Every delegate is urged to be present.

TELEGRAPH POLES NOT TO COME DOWN

Pittsburg, October 5.—Judge Joseph Buffington, in the United Sates circuit court, on Saturday decided one more case against the Western Union Telegraph company with reference to its lines on the Cleveland & Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania lines west. While granting the demurrer of the railroad Judge Buffington expressed the opinion that the telegraph company had a joint interest in the poles and wire. This will serve to complicate the case in the end.

The case just decided is entirely different from that on the Pennsylvania railroad. There will be no pole chopping, inasmuch as for some time a working agreement has been in effect between the two companies under which the railroad agrees to refrain from interfering with the property of the telegraph company until the case is finally disposed of. President A. J. Cassatt has also tired of his early frolic. Judge Buffington's opinion would prevent pole chopping if such a working arrangement were not in effect, and it will even raise the question of the right of the telegraph company to continue to hold its poles on the right of way if Judge Buffington's view is finally sustained.

On the Pennsylvania the question at issue was that of a lease which had expired. On the Pennsylvania lines west the telegraph company claimed joint ownership under an old agreement. The granting of the demurrer filed by the Pennsylvania company to the equity suit of the Western Union means that on the contention Judge Buffington believes that the Western Union has no case. He refuses to define the extent of the joint ownership of personalty and unless the question is defined in the United States court of appeals, to which it will be taken, a cross suit to determine the ownership of all the property will be tried.

A LISBON PASTOR WILL RESIGN

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—Rev. A. W. Lytle, who has been pastor of the Lisbon U. P. church for nine years, yesterday announced his retirement. He has been in failing health for a year or two, and the need of absolute rest is evident, as he is now apparently on the verge of nervous prostration.

His complete relinquishment of pastoral duties will become effective in one month. In case he is unable to preach during that time the pulpit will be supplied.

PEACE AND UNITY IN THE CHURCH

WORDS OF DR. TAGGART

During his Sunday morning sermon on "Fraternal Unity Among Christians," Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart said:

"I know very well that I can live in Christian unity and brotherly love with my Episcopalian, my Methodist or my Baptist brother, far better, if he is content to live under his own ecclesiastical roof, holding his peculiar views and seeking to do the Lord's work in his special way, than if he would come into my denominational home and persist in forcing his peculiar doctrines and usuages upon me to the discord and confusion of my church life. I think if he is a true Christian gentlemen he will not attempt to do so, unless he believes my church life is so entirely wrong that it ought to be thoroughly destroyed. In that case he would not seek fellowship in it nor advise any one to remain in it.

"Here, in view of certain preaching in our midst in the past few weeks, I wish to say, kindly, and just as tenderly as I can, but with a strong conviction that faithfulness in seeking the peace and unity of our churches demands it, that any man, I care not what his talent or ability as a preacher may be, or what special revelations from on high he may claim to have received, who seeks to destroy the peace and harmony of churches, by forming associations of their members to propagate doctrines he knows are in direct conflict with those held by these churches, at the same time he advises them to remain in their churches for the advocacy of these special views acts a part, in my opinion, that is neither honest, honorable nor Christian. And those that accept such teaching and follow such advice do that which is in direct antagonism to the principles of true Christian unity.

"So far as any ridicule of the appearance and habits of the ministers of the city and accusations of their inefficiency and unfaithfulness is concerned they can afford to keep silence. But when it comes to advising a course of conduct calculated to stir up strife and contention in the church they must speak out, much as they may regret the necessity, against that which they believe to be in conflict with true Christian unity."

The remainder of the sermon dealt with the comprehensiveness, the beauty, the attractive power and the refreshing nature of this unity, and the blessedness which comes to those who live under its gracious influence, closing with an exhortation to exemplify this fraternal unity.

NO PERFECTION IN THIS LIFE

Rev. Edwin Weary preached from the text, "Grow in Grace." He spoke of the doctrine of sanctification, and read scriptural passages showing that it is not possible for man to attain perfection. He read from the writings of the apostles where it is proven that even they disdained a belief in their own sanctification. The Apostle Paul said, 'I count not myself to be perfect but continually reach out unto that which is perfect.' The other writers of the inspired word were more modest than some of the preachers of the present day of alleged advanced thought and they acknowledged their transgressions and their sins were ever before them.

In closing the rector said: "To be perfect we must be at peace with all mankind. We must be loving; we must be kind and compassionate to the frailties of others. We must not vaunt our righteousness or holiness before others of our brothers who may have fallen by the wayside, but we must fulfill the great law of God, 'Love your neighbor.' If we could look into the inner lives of some of those who boast of sanctification we might not find these attributes of true perfection and sanctification. We would possibly not find an expression of perfect love."

SHAPING CHARACTER

Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt at the First M. E. church last evening spoke of environment and heredity and their influence in shaping character. He said in part:

"The church has undertaken to change the environment of its own people and of all people. Thus it can accomplish much for humanity. By destroying the evil influences, by strengthening so far as possible the good influences, properly attributed to environments, the church renders an invaluable service not only to this generation, but to all coming generations. This is true because temperamental defects acquired from associations with others are apt to be passed down from father to son. Environment is the combined personality of the community. Wherefore it is impossible for one wholly to disassociate himself from its influences.

"Ofttimes it is noticed that man inherits a bent or propensity for theft or for drunkenness. Such a man merits sympathy perhaps, but his inherited weakness can not excuse his sinning. His will power should be overcome; he should resist the impulse to do a wrong. Men are measured by their deeds."

ON MISSIONS

Rev. J. G. Reinartz Delivers an Eloquent And Very Able Address.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz addressed a large congregation in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church last evening. His text was Matthew 28:19, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Go ge into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

The speaker delivered an eloquent and convincing discourse in favor of missions. Christian education and Christian missions, he claimed, are twin sisters. Where one is found the other stands by her side or will soon follow. Their Father is live and through its insntrumentality the gospel is being spread throughout the entire world.

Uncharitable Criticism.

Rev. J. W. Gorrell at the First Christian church last evening preached from the text, "Judge not that ye be not judged," dealing with uncharitable criticism as coming from the evil that is in men's hearts and which is devilish in its nature. Men have enough evil in their own lives to silence any censorous criticism of others' faults. A man's faults should never be held up to view unless the motive is a good one, to bring about reformation or to warn some one else.

News and Notes About The Potteries

AGAINST WHOLESALE PRICES.

There appears to be a general movement started by large crockery dealers throughout the east to prevent potteries from selling to the consumer at wholesale prices. They do not contend that very large quantities are disposed of in this way, but they do say that the practice has become so common that their own business interests are seriously curtailed.

S. E. Kaufman, of South Broad street, Trenton, in an interview, which appeared in the New York Crockery and Glass Journal a few days ago in reference to this channel of courtesy said:

"The Crockery and Glass Journal should, as the official organ of the trade, should exert its influence to destroy this unfair practice. When I first began to handle crockery and glassware it was possible only for the office force of a pottery to obtain a dinner or toilet set from their employer at the regular trade prices. Since then, however, the restrictions in this regard have been materially relaxed.

"Almost any employe nowadays seems to be capable of securing his crockery necessities in this way, and not long ago I discovered an instance wherein people who were not associated with the potteries in any capacity had no trouble in buying a jardinere, umbrella stand, dinner set, or something of that sort, simply because they were friendly with either the manufacturers or some of the employes. This isn't at all fair to us retailers. Every piece of ware disposed of in this manner deprives us of a sale, and I believe the manufacturers should protect us."

In commenting upon Mr. Kaufman's interview it says: "Mr. Kaufman's remarks deserve mental digestion. While it is scarcely likely that very much ware annually passes from manufacturer to consumer through this channel of courtesy, the fact remains that the practice exists. The manufacturer probably does not view the transaction from Mr. Kaufman's standpoint. He never disposes of the goods in a spirit of enterprise, but rather as a mark of appreciation and friendship.

"Retail dealers of our acquaintance have displayed the same liberality towards their clerical force, to whom they have sold merchandise at the bare cost price. Of course, no dealer subsequently suffers commercially by the magnanimity of the retail dealer, as in the case of the manufacturing potter. The practice has unquestionably expanded in recent years, however; and if its effect is so severely felt by the retailer as Mr. Kaufman declares the manufacturers should seek to remedy it in some manner."

NEW YORK NOTES.

While a modern dimunition in the demand for crockery was noted toward the close of last week, trade conditions have started out this week with some show of improvement, and confidence is generally expressed in the belief that there will be a good trade for the remainder of the year. Not only are the local warerooms quite busy, says the New York Commercial, but mail orders show a good volume of business and the traveling men all over the country are meeting with great success, especially in the west. At East Liverpool most of the potteries are working to their full capacity and some are now shipping their goods as fast as turned out. At Trenton everything is now running smoothly, a threatened strike among the kilnmen having been avoided, and both manufacturers and operatives are now in accord.

Domestic pottery is in good demand, hotel china being in especially good demand and much better than a year ago. As to foreign goods there appears to be a brisk demand for German specialties and in many lines the supplies are already exhausted. French goods are also active and many orders are said to have been placed already for spring delivery.

CAMERON NOTES.

George Quell, of Wheeling, who has charge of the decorating department, says he will soon have decorated ware on the market. Mr. Quell says he expects to employ most of his help from Cameron. Some experienced hands were engaged, but owing to the high prices charged for boarding ladies, the necessary help cannot be secured. The officials say that unless there is a cut in the price of board it will be impossible for them to get enough employes to do the work.

Miss Altman, of Wheeling, has charge of the bisque department.

Clarence Brooks, who was ill at his home in Peoria, Ill., has recovered and returned to his position.

Although there is a general decline in stocks at the present time, that of the Cameron Pottery company has been selling as high as 103.

TO BE DEBATED.

As announced elsewhere in this issue, a special meeting of local union No. 32 has been called for tonight, to take place at Brotherhood headquarters. Legislation has been enacted regulating certain matters with the printers and their crews and it seems to be up to the local to put them into effect. The proposition up for tonight's debate, a piece price for the rubbers and the abolishment of contracts, will prove of great interest to the trade. Neither of the questions are new ones to the local. There will no doubt be a large attendance at the meeting.

REPORTED BANKRUPTCY.

W. H. Rapoport, Hampton, Va., crockery dealer, is in involuntary bankruptcy.

POTTERY CONTRACT.

Charles G. Lacy, of Salem, has received the contract of constructing the brick work on the new pottery to be built at East Palestine, and will begin work at once. The pottery will be 150 feet long, 138 feet wide and part two stories in height.

POTTERY NOTES.

George Shaw, sticker-up at the Hall China company, has been quite ill for the past few days with neuralgia.

Slick Woolley, ewermaker at the Hall China company, has been laid up for the past few days on account of illness.

William Clark and family, of Lisbon, will move to Sebring. Mr. Clark has secured employment at the French China pottery.

John Roberts, manager of the decorating department at the Hall China company, who has been quite seriously ill for the past week or more, is beginning to improve nicely, much to the satisfaction of his many friends.

News and Notes About The Potteries

AGAINST WHOLESALE PRICES.

There appears to be a general movement started by large crockery dealers throughout the east to prevent potteries from selling to the consumer at wholesale prices. They do not contend that very large quantities are disposed of in this way, but they do say that the practice has become so common that their own business interests are seriously curtailed.

S. E. Kaufman, of South Broad street, Trenton, in an interview, which appeared in the New York Crockery and Glass Journal a few days ago in reference to this channel of courtesy said:

"The Crockery and Glass Journal should, as the official organ of the trade, should exert its influence to destroy this unfair practice. When I first began to handle crockery and glassware it was possible only for the office force of a pottery to obtain a dinner or toilet set from their employer at the regular trade prices. Since then, however, the restrictions in this regard have been materially relaxed.

"Almost any employe nowadays seems to be capable of securing his crockery necessities in this way, and not long ago I discovered an instance wherein people who were not associated with the potteries in any capacity had no trouble in buying a jardinere, umbrella stand, dinner set, or something of that sort, simply because they were friendly with either the manufacturers or some of the employes. This isn't at all fair to us retailers. Every piece of ware disposed of in this manner deprives us of a sale, and I believe the manufacturers should protect us."

In commenting upon Mr. Kaufman's interview it says: "Mr. Kaufman's remarks deserve mental digestion. While it is scarcely likely that very much ware annually passes from manufacturer to consumer through this channel of courtesy, the fact remains that the practice exists. The manufacturer probably does not view the transaction from Mr. Kaufman's standpoint. He never disposes of the goods in a spirit of enterprise, but rather as a mark of appreciation and friendship.

"Retail dealers of our acquaintance have displayed the same liberality towards their clerical force, to whom they have sold merchandise at the bare cost price. Of course, no dealer subsequently suffers commercially by the magnanimity of the retail dealer, as in the case of the manufacturing potter. The practice has unquestionably expanded in recent years, however; and if its effect is so severely felt by the retailer as Mr. Kaufman declares the manufacturers should seek to remedy it in some manner."

NEW YORK NOTES.

While a modern dimunition in the demand for crockery was noted toward the close of last week, trade conditions have started out this week with some show of improvement, and confidence is generally expressed in the belief that there will be a good trade for the remainder of the year. Not only are the local warerooms quite busy, says the New York Commercial, but mail orders show a good volume of business and the traveling men all over the country are meeting with great success, especially in the west. At East Liverpool most of the potteries are working to their full capacity and some are now shipping their goods as fast as turned out. At Trenton everything is now running smoothly, a threatened strike among the kilnmen having been avoided, and both manufacturers and operatives are now in accord.

Domestic pottery is in good demand, hotel china being in especially good demand and much better than a year ago. As to foreign goods there appears to be a brisk demand for German specialties and in many lines the supplies are already exhausted. French goods are also active and many orders are said to have been placed already for spring delivery.

CAMERON NOTES.

George Quell, of Wheeling, who has charge of the decorating department, says he will soon have decorated ware on the market. Mr. Quell says he expects to employ most of his help from Cameron. Some experienced hands were engaged, but owing to the high prices charged for boarding ladies, the necessary help cannot be secured. The officials say that unless there is a cut in the price of board it will be impossible for them to get enough employes to do the work.

Miss Altman, of Wheeling, has charge of the bisque department.

Clarence Brooks, who was ill at his home in Peoria, Ill., has recovered and returned to his position.

Mr. Ramsey, of East Liverpool, and Ed Galley, of Pittsburg, have arrived and accepted positions here.

Although there is a general decline in stocks at the present time, that of the Cameron Pottery company has been selling as high as 103.

TO BE DEBATED.

As announced elsewhere in this issue, a special meeting of local union No. 32 has been called for tonight, to take place at Brotherhood headquarters. Legislation has been enacted regulating certain matters with the printers and their crews and it seems to be up to the local to put them into effect. The proposition up for tonight's debate, a piece price for the rubbers and the abolishment of contracts, will prove of great interest to the trade. Neither of the questions are new ones to the local. There will no doubt be a large attendance at the meeting.

REPORTED BANKRUPTCY.

W. H. Rapeport, Hampton, Va., crockery dealer, is in involuntary bankruptcy.

THE PRECAUTIONS IN CONSUMPTION

Columbus, October 5.—(Special.)—Dr. C. O. Probst, secretary of the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, in his fourth article deals with "Measures to Be Taken By a Consumptive for the Protection of Others and Himself." He says:

We have seen that tuberculosis is always caused by a living organism. That in consumption, or pulmonary tuberculosis, this germ is found only in the sputum. Let this be promptly cared for and the consumptive may without danger mingle freely with his family and the public.

Consumption may exist for a time with but little cough and no expectoration. During this period no special precautions are needed. The danger begins when there is expectoration.

In the first place a consumptive should always sleep alone; and, if possible, have a room for himself. He should not kiss or be kissed by any person, especially on the lips. He should be clean shaven. A heavy beard makes it difficult to expectorate, and is sure to become soiled by sputum. He should have his own drinking vessel; and knives, forks, spoons, etc., used by him should be boiled thereafter.

He should never expectorate upon the floor in any house, office, workshop car or other public place. While it is much less dangerous to expectorate upon the street or sidewalk, this too is to be avoided.

In his home he may expectorate upon paper or bits of rags, provided these are at once burned.

He should never use a handkerchief for such purpose. This is a common and especially dangerous practice. The sputum dries and on unfolding the handkerchief numerous germs are set free. A cup with a handle may be used to spit into. Paper cups to go inside of an outer cup are very convenient. They may be procured at most drug stores. The paper cups should be burned and the out cup disinfected by placing it in boiling water at least once a day. In all cases care must be taken not to soil the fingers. If this happens the hands should be at once thoroughly cleansed with soap and water.

Where natural gas is used for heating purposes, as it largely is in this state, it may be very inconvenient to burn paper cups, rags, etc. In that case the sputum should be received in a vessel containing a solution of crude carbolic acid—an ounce and a half to a quart of water; or, lysol may be used—one-half ounce to a quart of water. This vessel may be emptied into the sewer, and it should be thoroughly cleansed each day.

The ordinary cuspidor with sloping sides is not suitable for the use of consumptives, as the sputum on the sides soon dries and may contaminate the air of the room. A vessel on the floor for sputum should be placed on a square of linoleum or something of like character, which should be thoroughly wiped with the disinfectant solution every day.

The greatest difficulty is to dispose of the sputum out of doors. There are several styles of pocket spit flasks that may be used. They admit of easy cleaning, and prevent any escape of the sputum in the pocket. Consumptives hesitate to use them as they call attention to their disease. They may be almost completely hidden in a handkerchief, and with a little practice one could use them without detection.

Squares of old linen, cloth or of Japanese paper, can be used to receive the sputa, and these may be placed in a stout paper bag and carried in the pocket. Bag and contents should be promptly burned. A newspaper can be folded and cut so as to have leaves like a small book. This can be slipped into a stout paper envelope and carried in the pocket. The leaves of this booklet, envelope and all to be burned daily.

Care should be taken to prevent sputum getting upon the clothing or bed covers. The outer cover of the bed, which is most likely to become contaminated, should be of linen or something which may be frequently washed and boiled.

The outer clothing a consumptive wears should be hung out of doors in the sun once or twice a week. This will disinfect it.

There is another precaution that should be taken by consumptives. It has been observed that a person in coughing expels myriads of minute particles of saliva. It has been demonstrated that a consumptive may expel many tubercle bacilli in this way. He should always, therefore, when coughing, place a handkerchief before his mouth and turn his head away from any person very near him.

The room occupied by a consumptive should not be carpeted. Bare floors oiled or painted, with rugs should be the rule. There should be no needless draperies. No broom nor dusting brush should be used in this room. Cleansing should be done with moist cloths, and the floor should be gone over frequently with a cloth wet with a disinfectant. For this purpose corrosive sublimate one drachm to the gallon of water is excellent, having no odor. It is a violent poison if taken internally, and must be handled with care.

Can any one with consumption be excused from carrying out these very simple precautions? Remember that the vast majority of cases of this disease are caused by the germs cast out in the sputum of some consumptive.

It is safe to say that if every person in Ohio with consumption were to strictly carry out these simple precautionary measures there would be a saving of at least 4,000 lives every year in this state alone.

The consumptive should also take heed of what was said in the last article about reinfection. If he is careless with his sputa he constantly endangers himself as well as others.

Ignorance is the thing to be combatted, and none of us should hesitate, for fear of giving offense, to tell a consumptive how he may protect himself, his family and his friends.

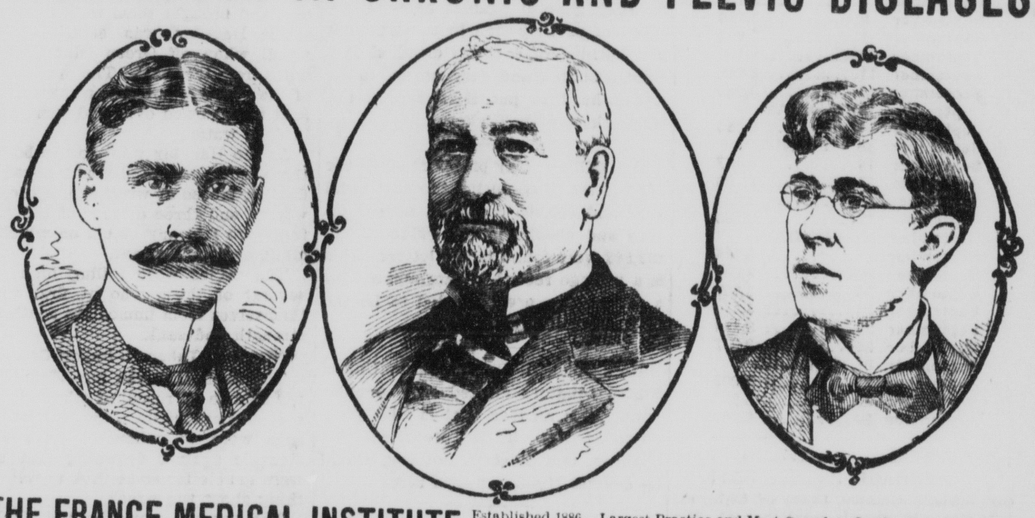

Society must aid if we are to be successful in the prevention of tuberculosis, and in the next article it will be briefly pointed out what the public and the government, state and municipal, may do in this direction.

THE PRECAUTIONS IN CONSUMPTION

Columbus, October 5.—(Special.)—Dr. C. O. Probst, secretary of the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, in his fourth article deals with "Measures to Be Taken By a Consumptive for the Protection of Others and Himself." He says:

We have seen that tuberculosis is always caused by a living organism. That in consumption, or pulmonary tuberculosis, this germ is found only in the sputum. Let this be promptly cared for and the consumptive may without danger mingle freely with his family and the public.

Consumption may exist for a time with but little cough and no expectoration. During this period no special precautions are needed. The danger begins when there is expectoration.

In the first place a consumptive should always sleep alone; and, if possible, have a room for himself. He should not kiss or be kissed by any person, especially on the lips. He should be clean shaven. A heavy beard makes it difficult to expectorate, and it is sure to become soiled by sputum. He should have his own drinking vessel; and knives, forks, spoons, etc., used by him should be boiled thereafter.

He should never expectorate upon the floor in any house, office, workshop car or other public place. While it is much less dangerous to expectorate upon the street or sidewalk, this too is to be avoided.

In his home he may expectorate upon paper or bits of rags, provided these are at once burned.

He should never use a handkerchief for such purpose. This is a common and especially dangerous practice. The sputum dries and on unfolding the handkerchief numerous germs are set free. A cup with a handle may be used to spit into. Paper cups to go inside of an outer cup are very convenient. They may be procured at most drug stores. The paper cups should be burned and the out cup disinfected by placing it in boiling water at least once a day. In all cases care must be taken not to soil the fingers. If this happens the hands should be at once thoroughly cleansed with soap and water.

Where natural gas is used for heating purposes, as it largely is in this state, it may be very inconvenient to burn paper cups, rags, etc. In that case the sputum should be received in a vessel containing a solution of crude carbolic acid—an ounce and a half to a quart of water; or, lysol may be used—one-half ounce to a quart of water. This vessel may be emptied into the sewer, and it should be thoroughly cleansed each day.

The ordinary cuspidor with sloping sides is not suitable for the use of consumptives, as the sputum on the sides soon dries and may contaminate the air of the room. A vessel on the floor for sputum should be placed on a square of linoleum or something of like character, which should be thoroughly wiped with the disinfectant solution every day.

The greatest difficulty is to dispose of the sputum out of doors. There are several styles of pocket spit flasks that may be used. They admit of easy cleaning, and prevent any escape of the sputum in the pocket. Consumptives hesitate to use them as they call attention to their disease. They may be almost completely hidden in a handkerchief, and with a little practice one could use them without detection.

Squares of old linen, cloth or of Japanese paper, can be used to receive the sputa, and these may be placed in a stout paper bag and carried in the pocket. Bag and contents should be promptly burned. A newspaper can be folded and cut so as to have leaves like a small book. This can be slipped into a stout paper envelope and carried in the pocket. The leaves of this booklet, envelope and all to be burned daily.

Care should be taken to prevent sputum getting upon the clothing or bed covers. The outer cover of the bed, which is most likely to become contaminated, should be of linen or something which may be frequently washed and boiled.

The outer clothing a consumptive wears should be hung out of doors in the sun once or twice a week. This will disinfect it.

There is another precaution that should be taken by consumptives. It has been observed that a person in coughing expels myriads of minute particles of saliva. It has been demonstrated that a consumptive may expel many tubercle bacilli in this way. He should always, therefore, when coughing, place a handkerchief before his mouth and turn his head away from any person very near him.

The room occupied by a consumptive should not be carpeted. Bare floors oiled or painted, with rugs should be the rule. There should be no needless draperies. No broom nor dusting brush should be used in this room. Cleansing should be done with moist cloths, and the floor should be gone over frequently with a cloth wet with a disinfectant. For this purpose corrosive sublimate one drachm to the gallon of water is excellent, having no odor. It is a violent poison if taken internally, and must be handled with care.

Can any one with consumption be excused from carrying out these very simple precautions? Remember that the vast majority of cases of this disease are caused by the germs cast out in the sputum of some consumptive.

It is safe to say that if every person in Ohio with consumption were to strictly carry out these simple precautionary measures there would be a saving of at least 4,000 lives every year in this state alone.

The consumptive should also take heed of what was said in the last article about reinfection. If he is careless with his sputa he constantly endangers himself as well as others.

Ignorance is the thing to be combatted, and none of us should hesitate for fear of giving offense, to tell a consumptive how he may protect himself, his family and his friends.

Society must aid if we are to be successful in the prevention of tuberculosis, and in the next article it will be briefly pointed out what the public and the government, state and municipal, may do in this direction.

The effectiveness of the pure food law, adopted by congress last winter, has already been clearly proved. The standards established by the agricultural department have resulted in the rejection at the customs houses of large quantities of wines and foods that otherwise would have gained admittance. In the great majority of cases the sale of the rejected articles for domestic use would not have been allowed in the countries which exported them. Now let as much attention be given to food products made in America and in time the people may know whether they are eating healthful products or poisonous ones.

The Western Union Telegraph company's poles along the C. & P. railroad will not be chopped down, according to a decision of the United States circuit court at Pittsburg. Those who have occasion to use the wires, however, are hoping that they will speedily come down or else be operated by some company that has a disposition to accommodate its patrons and give the city of East Liverpool a telegraph service superior to that given Smith's Ferry, Industry and other hamlets.

The announcement, exclusively made in the News Review, that Senator Foraker expects to address a campaign meeting in this city, will interest every Republican. East Liverpool is not likely to have many campaign meetings this fall, but it will have one that will be a rouser and voters will come from far and near to hear the addresses.

That grand jury seems to be trying hard to put Delaware in the same class with Turkey.

Ten million stray pieces reached the dead letter office during the past fiscal year and $50,000 cash and money orders and checks to the value of $1,493,563 were found in the letters. This is a strange record of carelessness for a people who are conceded to be the most business-like on earth.

Hon. John H. Clarke wants United States senators elected by popular vote. It is an idea that is widely endorsed. But if it prevailed, his chances, now next to nothing, would be several times a minus zero.

New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Illinois are making diligent efforts to enforce the laws against child labor. The state that fails to protect the rising generation fails of one of its most important duties.

The state will be $50,000 richer if Tom Johnson is compelled to pay his taxes. It can not afford to overlook such an important item.

MEET DEATH ON LAKE

SEVEN RESCUED FROM WRECKAGE

Marinette, Wis., Oct. 5.—The passenger steamer Eric L. Hackley, of Fish Creek, foundered in Green bay during a hard squall and 12 persons were drowned and seven rescued.

The Dead.

Joseph Vorous, captain of the Hackley; —— Truchley, cook of the Hackley. Passengers: Freeman Thorp, Edna Barringer and Lawrence Barringer, brother of Edna Barringer, of Fish Creek; Frances Vincent and sister, of Egg Harbor; George LeClair Jr., and N. Fitzsimmons, of Jacksonport; Henry Rabbitor and Carl Keky, of Fish Creek; Nels Nelson, Sturgeon Bay.

The Saved.

The steamer Sheboygan rescued the seven persons on board the Hackley after they had drifted all night in Green bay, clinging to bits of wreckage, and brought them to Fish Creek.

The Hackley was struck by the squall when off Green island, seven miles from this port. The upper work of the vessel was blown away and the boat then turned over and went down in deep water.

As the Hackley went to the bottom those who would and could seized on floating pieces of wreckage, while the women and three or four of the men failing to find any object on which to cling, sank in the sea.

The waves were rolling high and several of those who at first saved themselves from immediate death lost strength and sank.

Rescued Taken to Indian Creek.

The Sheboygan ran into Fish Creek when hope of rescuing other persons seemed improbable. The rescued persons were so exhausted from their struggle against drowning that they were unable for some time to tell anything about the wreck.

The persons saved by the Sheboygan say that with the crashing away of the upper work all persons aboard the Hackley ran on deck. Hasty preparations for a plunge into the water were begun. The boat listed, turned over and went down like a rock.

Search is still making for persons who may have escaped death and for the bodies of those who were drowned.

The Eric L. Hackley was a 54-ton screw steamer, built at Muskegon Mich., in 1882. She was owned in Fish Creek by Captain Vorous and other residents of that village. The steamer made a trip every other day between Sturgeon Bay and Washington island, going up one day and back the next.

The Bennett & Moulton company, one of the best that visits the city, will be at the Grand opera house all this week. This is welcome news to most of our theatre goers, for there is not a company that is as popular as this one. It could not be otherwise, when one considers the excellent performances it has given in the past, and there is no doubt but that the performances of this week will be of the same degree of excellence. Killed by Electric Current.

Montreal, Oct. 5.—Two men were instantly killed in Point St. Charles and another bady shocked by the boom of a derrick they were operating coming in contact with an electric light wire. A. Parent and P. E. Prevost were turning the handle at the time. Prevost had only one hand on the handle and did not receive the full force of the current. Parent was using both hands and was instantly killed. Prevost's cries attracted the notice of J. Curtis, the foreman. He rushed to Parent's assistance and was instantly killed. Prevost will recover.

Performer Shot by Physician.

Van Buren, Ark., Oct. 5.—Charles Tolson, an actor, leading man and manager of a stock company, was shot and probably fatally wounded at the depot by Dr. Perchmont, a well-known practitioner of this city. The troupe was at the depot awaiting a train when Dr. Perchmont appeared and, calling Tolson by name, opened fire on him with a revolver. Tolson is in a critical condition at the hospital in Fort Smith, where he was taken for medical attention. The cause of the shooting is not known.

Last Victim Found.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 5.—The remains of J. M. Wilson, the government storekeeper who was buried beneath the ruins of Corning's distillery with six other men, were recovered. This makes the list of victims complete and it is not thought that there are any more in the ruins.

Fatalities of Cyclone.

Plainfield, Wis., Oct. 5.—A tornado which visited this section tore down many buildings and damaged much property. Mrs. John Fisher was killed and Mark Wood, who was injured, has since died. Much stock was killed and injured and the farmers are heavy losers.

The effectiveness of the pure food law, adopted by congress last winter, has already been clearly proved. The standards established by the agricultural department have resulted in the rejection at the customs houses of large quantities of wines and foods that otherwise would have gained admittance. In the great majority of cases the sale of the rejected articles for domestic use would not have been allowed in the countries which exported them. Now let as much attention be given to food products made in America and in time the people may know whether they are eating healthful products or poisonous ones.

The Western Union Telegraph company's poles along the C. & P. railroad will not be chopped down, according to a decision of the United States circuit court at Pittsburg. Those who have occasion to use the wires, however, are hoping that they will speedily come down or else be operated by some company that has a disposition to accommodate its patrons and give the city of East Liverpool a telegraph service superior to that given Smith's Ferry, Industry and other hamlets.

The announcement, exclusively made in the News Review, that Senator Foraker expects to address a campaign meeting in this city, will interest every Republican. East Liverpool is not likely to have many campaign meetings this fall, but it will have one that will be a rouser and voters will come from far and near to hear the addresses.

A grand jury in New Castle county, Delaware, refused even to consider eight indictments drawn by the state's attorney general against persons accused of participation in the lynching and burning of a negro criminal last June. That grand jury seems to be trying hard to put Delaware in the same class with Turkey.

Ten million stray pieces reached the dead letter office during the past fiscal year and $50,000 cash and money orders and checks to the value of $1,493,563 were found in the letters. This is a strange record of carelessness for a people who are conceded to be the most business-like on earth.

Hon. John H. Clarke wants United States senators elected by popular vote. It is an idea that is widely endorsed. But if it prevailed, his chances, now next to nothing, would be several times a minus zero.

New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Illinois are making diligent efforts to enforce the laws against child labor. The state that fails to protect the rising generation fails of one of its most important duties.

The state will be $50,000 richer if Tom Johnson is compelled to pay his taxes. It can not afford to overlook such an important item.

As if the Boers had not had troubles enough, Kipling comes forward with a lot of poems about them.

New Kind of Life Insurance.

For twenty five cents you can insure yourself and family against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. That is the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is equally valuable for children and adults. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. This remedy has relieved more pain and suffering and saved the lives of more people than any other medicine in the world. It is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now. MEET DEATH ON LAKE

SEVEN RESCUED FROM WRECKAGE

Joseph Vorous, captain of the Hackley; —— Truchley, cook of the Hackley. Passengers: Freeman Thorp, Edna Barringer and Lawrence Barringer, brother of Edna Barringer, of Fish Creek; Frances Vincent and sister, of Egg Harbor; George LeClair Jr., and N. Fitzsimmons, of Jacksonport; Henry Rabbitor and Carl Keky, of Fish Creek; Nels Nelson, Sturgeon Bay.

The Saved.

The steamer Sheboygan rescued the seven persons on board the Hackley after they had drifted all night in Green bay, clinging to bits of wreckage, and brought them to Fish Creek.

The Hackley was struck by the squall when off Green island, seven miles from this port. The upper work of the vessel was blown away and the boat then turned over and went down in deep water.

As the Hackley went to the bottom those who would and could seized on floating pieces of wreckage, while the women and three or four of the men failing to find any object on which to cling, sank in the sea.

The waves were rolling high and several of those who at first saved themselves from immediate death lost strength and sank.

Rescued Taken to Indian Creek.

The Sheboygan ran into Fish Creek when hope of rescuing other persons seemed improbable. The rescued persons were so exhausted from their struggle against drowning that they were unable for some time to tell anything about the wreck.

The persons saved by the Sheboygan say that with the crashing away of the upper work all persons aboard the Hackley ran on deck. Hasty preparations for a plunge into the water were begun. The boat listed, turned over and went down like a rock.

Search is still making for persons who may have escaped death and for the bodies of those who were drowned.

The Eric L. Hackley was a 54-ton screw steamer, built at Muskegon Mich., in 1882. She was owned in Fish Creek by Captain Vorous and other residents of that village. The steamer made a trip every other day between Sturgeon Bay and Washington island, going up one day and back the next.

THE BRUNOS BEATEN

Wellsville's Famous Team Downed By the Newly Organized Athletics.

Before a large crowd at Central park Sunday afternoon, the recently organized Wellsville Athletic association foot ball team defeated the famous Bruno team of this city by a score of 10 to 0. The Bruno team showed the better team work of the two teams, but the strength of the Athletics and the fast work of Peters, the big W. & J. man, and Morris and Kane was too much for them.

Kane made the first touchdown for the victors and Peters the second, both in the first half. Peters failed goal on both occasions. The Brunos managed to hold their own in the second half. The Athletics will play in Toronto next Saturday.

Crusade Against Them Resulted in Three Italians Being Heavily Fined.

Rocke Wasso, Felix Grinis and Frank Dismo, three West End Italians, were placed under arrest early Saturday evening by Chief of Police Fred Houser and Officer McIlvaine. They were charged with carrying concealed weapons. When searched one had a long dirk, another a large jack knife with a blade nearly four inches in length and the third carried a loaded 32-caliber revolver.

The men were given a hearing by Mayor Fogo, pleaded guilty and were each assessed $14, which they paid. These were the first important arrests under a crusade recently started by the mayor to arrest every one who carries concealed weapons.

REAL NOURISHMENT FOR ALL

Mi-o-na Makes Thin People Fat—Will Reed Will Return Money If It Fails.

Everyone needs real nourishment; then comes good health, strength and endurance. Without it, you waste away. Nearly every one eats food enough to furnish the necessary nourishment for the perfect support of life, but the food is not assimilated and there follows indigestion, weakness and emaciation.

A few days' use of Mi-o-na, the wonderful flesh-forming food, will demonstrate its power to furnish real nourishment and restore health. Mi-o-na mingles with the food you eat, aids assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and puts the whole system into proper physical condition.

By its use, the elements needed to increase flesh are assimilated from the daily food and each week will show a noticeable gain in weight.

Will Reed knows personally of many cases of long standing stomach troubles, some of them very bad, that were entirely cured with Mi-o-na. The thin and scrawny have used this preparation and by its aid have gained real nourishment.

Will Reed feels that he can honestly recommend Mi-o-na and as an evidence of his faith in the merit of the article, offers to sell it with the distinct understanding that the money is to be refunded in every case where it fails to do all that is claimed for it. You risk nothing in buying Mi-o-na, and if it gives the desired health, the cost is trifling, only 50 cents a box. If it fails, Will Reed will pay for the remedy himself.

THE MONEY IS NOW IN HAND

YOUNGSTOWN & SOUTHERN RECORDS $1,500,000 MORTGAGE.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special)—A mortgage for $1,500,000 from the Youngstown & Southern Railroad company to the Continental Trust company, of New York city, was filed here today. A similar mortgage was filed at Youngstown on Saturday.

This shows that the money with which the Youngstown & Southern railway is to be built and equipped is now in the hands of the company and that there can be no delay on that score. It should set at rest all doubt on the part of scoffers who have argued that the road, like its predecessors, would be built only on paper. The contractors are making excellent progress with the grading at the north end of the line, and only the other day the officials of the company went over the route to decide upon the location for coal mines which are to be operated by the road.

ARRESTED TWICE IN ONE EVENING

Bert Nott, Aged 18, Was Wanted Both Here And at Lisbon.

Bert Nott, aged 18, a potter employed at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery in Chester, in less than an hour Saturday night faced two charges and on one of them was in the custody of two different officers. He is now enjoying freedom under bond of $200 to appear before common pleas court next Monday.

His 17-year-old wife gave birth to a baby boy two months ago and since then, she alleges, her husband has failed to give anything toward its support. The mother of the girl, Mrs. Eliza Smart, in the court of 'Squire McLane, attached the wages of Nott, alleging that he owed her for her work. Constable Powell located Nott who acknowledge his guilt of both charges. The justice was about to impose sentence when Sheriff Leonard appeared and placed the young man under arrest on a charge also of non-support. When Nott was found to be wanted at Lisbon the local authorities released him.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods merchant, of Bellville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

KEPT HIS SECRET WELL.

Priest With Rank of Monsignor Working Among the Lowly.

St. Louis, Oct. 5.—Dressed in the simple costume of a Catholic priest Rev. Father Caesar Spigardi has for eight years labored among the Italians of St. Louis, keeping as his own secret the fact that he is a member of the official household of the pope, a monsignor, and entitled to wear the garb of a chamberlain of honor.

The fact became known through the issuance of the official roster of the Roman Catholic church, which had this reference to the St. Louis priest:

When seen Father Spigardi was somewhat embarrassed that his secret had become known, but admitted that Pope Leo XIII. had conferred the honor upon him three years before he came to America. The rank of monsignor was conferred upon him in recognition of his achievements in leading three pilgrimages of Italians of the working class, one of 11,000 persons to Castiglione Delle Stiviere, one of 8,000 to the house of Loretto, and another of 4,000 to Rome. Bishop Sarto, of Mantua, now Pope Pius X., was concerned in the first pilgrimage.

Father Spigardi said he had never mentioned the matter in St. Louis, as he desired to labor as a common priest.

Murdered by Negroes.

BROKE UP MEETING.

Anarchists Opens Fire on Socialistic Crowd—One Dying as Result.

Barre, Vt., Oct. 5.—One man dying, another suffering from a serious but not necessarily fatal bullet wound and a third under arrest charged with firing the shots is the outcome of the latest clash between the anarchists and socialists of this city. The feeling between the two parties has been intense for many months and conflicts more or less serious have been of almost daily occurrence.

Saturday night a number of anarchists attempted to break up a meeting of socialists and precipitated a fight, during which, it is alleged, Alexander Garretto fired three shots from a revolver, wounding E. L. Corti and Emelo Vochini. Corti, it is said, will die. Dr. Giacino Menotti Sereatti, editor of the socialist newspaper published in New York, had been invited to address local socialists, some 50 of whom had congregated in Socialists' hall. While the audience was awaiting the arrival of the speaker 15 anarchists, headed by Corti, made their appearance at the hall and declared that they would not permit Sereatti to address the gathering.

During the fight that followed the threat it is alleged that Garretto drew a revolver and fired point blank at Corti, the ball lodging in the latter's stomach. The second shot went wild and the third struck Vochini in the arm. When the anarchists saw their leader fall they sprang upon Garretto and hurled him downstairs to the street. The fight ended only when a large detail of police reached the hall.

Superintendent Fatally Assaulted.

Greenwood, Ind., Oct. 5.—James Rush, assistant superintendent of the electric light company, was found in an unconscious condition and dying from wounds on the head, evidently made by a blunt instrument. Two strangers were seen leaving the boiler house where he was found, but there is no clue.

St. Louis Shaken.

St. Louis, Oct. 5.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt in Carondolet, the southern part of the city. The seismic disturbance lasted about one minute and caused alarm among the citizens. At the same time a slight shock was felt in the western portion of the city.

THE BRUNOS BEATEN

Before a large crowd at Central park Sunday afternoon, the recently organized Wellsville Athletic association foot ball team defeated the famous Bruno team of this city by a score of 10 to 0. The Bruno team showed the better team work of the two teams, but the strength of the Athletics and the fast work of Peters, the big W. & J. man, and Morris and Kane was too much for them.

Kane made the first touchdown for the victors and Peters the second, both in the first half. Peters failed goal on both occasions. The Brunos managed to hold their own in the second half. The Athletics will play in Toronto next Saturday.

I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

KEPT HIS SECRET WELL.

Priest With Rank of Monsignor Working Among the Lowly.

St. Louis, Oct. 5.—Dressed in the simple costume of a Catholic priest Rev. Father Caesar Spigardi has for eight years labored among the Italians of St. Louis, keeping as his own secret the fact that he is a member of the official household of the pope, a monsignor, and entitled to wear the garb of a chamberlain of honor.

The fact became known through the issuance of the official roster of the Roman Catholic church, which had this reference to the St. Louis priest:

When seen Father Spigardi was somewhat embarrassed that his secret had become known, but admitted that Pope Leo XIII. had conferred the honor upon him three years before he came to America. The rank of monsignor was conferred upon him in recognition of his achievements in leading three pilgrimages of Italians of the working class, one of 11,000 persons to Castiglione Delle Stiviere, one of 8,000 to the house of Loretto, and another of 4,000 to Rome. Bishop Sarto, of Mantua, now Pope Pius X., was concerned in the first pilgrimage.

Father Spigardi said he had never mentioned the matter in St. Louis, as he desired to labor as a common priest.

Murdered by Negroes.

BROKE UP MEETING.

Barre, Vt., Oct. 5.—One man dying, another suffering from a serious but not necessarily fatal bullet wound and a third under arrest charged with firing the shots is the outcome of the latest clash between the anarchists and socialists of this city. The feeling between the two parties has been intense for many months and conflicts more or less serious have been of almost daily occurrence.

Saturday night a number of anarchists attempted to break up a meeting of socialists and precipitated a fight, during which, it is alleged, Alexander Garretto fired three shots from a revolver, wounding E. L. Corti and Emelo Vochini. Corti, it is said, will die. Dr. Giacino Menotti Sereatti, editor of the socialist newspaper published in New York, had been invited to address local socialists, some 50 of whom had congregated in Socialists' hall. While the audience was awaiting the arrival of the speaker 15 anarchists, headed by Corti, made their appearance at the hall and declared that they would not permit Sereatti to address the gathering.

During the fight that followed the threat it is alleged that Garretto drew a revolver and fired point blank at Corti, the ball lodging in the latter's stomach. The second shot went wild and the third struck Vochini in the arm. When the anarchists saw their leader fall they sprang upon Garretto and hurled him downstairs to the street. The fight ended only when a large detail of police reached the hall.

Superintendent Fatally Assaulted.

Greenwood, Ind., Oct. 5.—James Rush, assistant superintendent of the electric light company, was found in an unconscious condition and dying from wounds on the head, evidently made by a blunt instrument. Two strangers were seen leaving the boiler house where he was found, but there is no clue.

St. Louis Shaken.

St. Louis, Oct. 5.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt in Carondolet, the southern part of the city. The seismic disturbance lasted about one minute and caused alarm among the citizens. At the same time a slight shock was felt in the western portion of the city.

A YELLOW STREAK SHOWN BY SEBRING

CLAIMED BALL ON A FUMBLE

Sebring's foot ball team played the baby at Columbian park Saturday afternoon in the game with the Oaklands, leaving the field because the referee refused to give a decision in their favor. The score was 6 to 0 in favor of the visitors, but Oakland had taken the ball to their 25 yard line and was shortening the distance to their goal on each successive play. Whether just or unjust, that decision was of too trivial a nature for such action being taken and had the majority of the Sebring players ruled the game would have been finished.

When the dispute arose, Mountford, Oakland's left half, had been helped through Sebring's left tackles for a gain of 5 yards. After he had been tackled, he dropped the ball and a Sebring player nailed it. Mountford claimed that a Sebring player had slugged the ball out of his arms and he was falling to the ground and Referee Chambers says he saw the act. As a result he gave the ball back to Oakland. There was a general kick from the Sebring players but it was confined mostly to Turner, who seemed to have about enough of the game, anyhow. Gallagher and a number of others did not take part in the rag chewing and advised Turner to go ahead with the game, but Turner had made up his mind to quit.

Quite a number of people among the spectators saw the play and state that a Sebring player tackled the ball as Mountford was falling. At any rate the Sebring players had no right to question the honesty of Referee Chambers in making the decision. He had treated them squarely and once, when Sebring objected, offered to retire. He was assured by the Sebring players then that he was perfectly satisfactory to them. On the other hand, Umpire Jewell failed to call one player for off side play and they were repeatedly at fault in this way, so much so that the spectators began to roast Jewell. This gave Sebring no little advantage.

The Oaklands won the toss and decided to defend the west goal with Sebring kicking off. The punt was short and Sebring got the ball. Jones made a left end run for 10 yards and then the Oaklands held for downs. Myler made 5 yards through center. Little was nailed with the ball in an attempt to work a delayed pass. The Oaklands were playing poorly, showing a lack of practice and ignorance of the signals. The ball went to Sebring on downs. Kline went around left end for 10 yards and Sebring had no trouble in the rest of the going to the goal line. Oakland's interference was weak. Sebring kicked goal. Score 6 to 0.

On the kickoff Mountford caught the ball on the 25 yard line and carried it back 5. Oakland failed to gain on the next two downs through mixups in signals and Mountford punted to the 30 yard line. The half ended with the ball on Sebring's territory.

The Oaklands showed a reversal of form in the second half while the Sebring players seemed tired. Mountford kicked off to the 25 yard line. In two downs Sebring carried it back 20 yards but were then held for no gain. Myler adopted different tactics and began to hit Sebring's line for good gains. In every scrimmage either he or Mountford carried through center or tackles for 5 yards and Sebring could not stop them. With the ball on Sebring's 25 yard line, the play spoken of came up and after a few moments of wrangling Sebring left the field.

Umpire—Will Jewell.

Timers—J. Murray, Earnest Simpson.

THREE GREAT GAMES WILL CLOSE SEASON

Heinie Youngman's All-Professionals the Card for Thursday, Friday And Saturday.

The end of the present week will bring to a close the base ball season in this city. Determined to make the ending more interesting than the beginning the management of the local team has arranged for three games with Heinie Youngman's All-Professionals, to be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Nothing more than the announcement that this aggregation will be the opposition is needed to convince local fans of what the series is to be. Every one acquainted with the base ball history of this season knows what Captain Reark and his invincible bunch will be against when they meet the Homestead boys. The Pennsylvanians have put up about the fastest games this year of any team in this district, and their playing alone will be well worth the price of admission.

Captain Reark has arranged to have a strong lineup to face the visiting gang, and though he realizes that he is to buck a great mess of base ball experts feels confident of carrying off laurels by winning at least two of the series. Though he does not know positively who will comprise the lineup he does know a part of it and the fans will rejoice over his good fortune. Big Fred Heckathorn will grace first base, Webb will be found at second, Brown at third, Godwin at short or middle, Rising in left, Wallace in right, Emmerling and Sperry or Berry behind the bat; Winters, Ehman or Barker on the rubber.

NO MORE POLICE AT W. E. PARK

Among the numerous orders issued to the police by the board of public safety, one which will meet the decided disapproval of every base ball and foot ball enthusiast in the city leaked out yesterday. The order is very strict and will do away with police protection at West End park. The board issued the edict one day last week and stated at the time that the failure to heed it would be sufficient grounds for dismissal from the force.

The regular attenders at the park know full well the urgent need of a bluecoat during the progress of a game, either base ball or foot ball. There are times when an officer is indispensable. Crowds will surge out on to the playground in wild excitement over the contest and many times while forming a mob to do evil. In either case the presence of a policeman can only prevent the harm that would generally be the result.

While the majority of ones interested do not censure the board for ordering the force to stay away from the ground all are sore as the result of the order being confined to each and every officer. It is thought that the board acted unwisely and vigorous protests are being heard on all sides.

There is not a park in the country where policemen are not sent to preserve order and why East Liverpool should make a precedent by cutting it out can not be explained.

CRIPPLED TEAM LOST HARD GAME

East End Grays Had the Upper Hand on the P. P. A. C. and Secured a Victory.

The East End Grays defeated the Park Place Athletic club on Saturday. The losers were badly crippled, having but five regular players in the lineup. McBane, who has been playing a great game throughout the season, was the whole show in the contest, making several grand stand catches. The score:

ATHLETICS WON A NICE GAME

New Cumberland Could Not Make It Two Straight, Losing By 11 to 1.

Manager Ashbaugh's team turned the tables on New Cumberland Saturday by giving them a dose of the same kind of hot drops administered a week previous. The game was played at New Cumberland and though the score was very much one-sided, the large crowd present was held at an excited pitch throughout. The sensational playing of John Godwin at short was the feature of the game. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
New Cumberland	1	5	5

The lineups were as follows:

CURES KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES,

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly all kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up, and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol congests the kidneys with blood and retards their activity.

There is no Alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the body. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a sallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

CATARRH A COMMON COMPLAINT.

Catarrh begins with a stubborn cold in the head, inflammation or soreness of the membrane or lining of the nose, discharge of mucus matter, headaches, neuralgia and difficult breathing, and even in this early stage is almost intolerable. But when the filthy secretions begin to drop back into the throat and stomach, and the blood becomes polluted and the system contaminated by the catarrhal poison, then the sufferer begins to realize what a disgusting and sickening disease Catarrh is. It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected? Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the catarrhal poison. S. S. S. purifies and builds up the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of S. S. S. and commenced to use it and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. Miss MARY L. STORM,
Northwest Cor. 7th and Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and a reliable remedy for Catarrh in all stages. Write if in need of medical advice; this will cost you nothing.

REALM OF SPORTS

CLAIMED BALL ON A FUMBLE

Sebring's foot ball team played the baby at Columbian park Saturday afternoon in the game with the Oaklands, leaving the field because the referee refused to give a decision in their favor. The score was 6 to 0 in favor of the visitors, but Oakland had taken the ball to their 25 yard line and was shortening the distance to their goal on each successive play. Whether just or unjust, that decision was of too trivial a nature for such action being taken and had the majority of the Sebring players ruled the game would have been finished.

When the dispute arose, Mountford, Oakland's left half, had been helped through Sebring's left tackles for a gain of 5 yards. After he had been tackled, he dropped the ball and a Sebring player nailed it. Mountford claimed that a Sebring player had slugged the ball out of his arms and he was falling to the ground and Referee Chambers says he saw the act. As a result he gave the ball back to Oakland. There was a general kick from the Sebring players but it was confined mostly to Turner, who seemed to have about enough of the game, anyhow. Gallagher and a number of others did not take part in the rag chewing and advised Turner to go ahead with the game, but Turner had made up his mind to quit.

Quite a number of people among the spectators saw the play and state that a Sebring player tackled the ball as Mountford was falling. At any rate the Sebring players had no right to question the honesty of Referee Chambers in making the decision. He had treated them squarely and once, when Sebring objected, offered to retire. He was assured by the Sebring players then that he was perfectly satisfactory to them. On the other hand, Umpire Jewell failed to call one player for off side play and they were repeatedly at fault in this way, so much so that the spectators began to roast Jewell. This gave Sebring no little advantage.

The Oaklands won the toss and decided to defend the west goal with Sebring kicking off. The punt was short and Sebring got the ball. Jones made a left end run for 10 yards and then the Oaklands held for downs. Myler made 5 yards through center. Little was nailed with the ball in an attempt to work a delayed pass. The Oaklands were playing poorly, showing a lack of practice and ignorance of the signals. The ball went to Sebring on downs. Kline went around left end for 10 yards and Sebring had no trouble in the rest of the going to the goal line. Oakland's interference was weak. Sebring kicked goal. Score 6 to 0.

On the kickoff Mountford caught the ball on the 25 yard line and carried it back 5. Oakland failed to gain on the next two downs through mixups in signals and Mountford punted to the 30 yard line. The half ended with the ball on Sebring's territory.

The Oaklands showed a reversal of form in the second half while the Sebring players seemed tired. Mountford kicked off to the 25 yard line. In two downs Sebring carried it back 20 yards but were then held for no gain. Myler adopted different tactics and began to hit Sebring's line for good gains. In every scrimmage either he or Mountford carried through center or tackles for 5 yards and Sebring could not stop them. With the ball on Sebring's 25 yard line, the play spoken of came up and after a few moments of wrangling Sebring left the field.

Timers—J. Murray, Earnest Simpson.

THREE GREAT GAMES WILL CLOSE SEASON

Heinie Youngman's All-Professionals the Card for Thursday, Friday And Saturday.

The end of the present week will bring to a close the base ball season in this city. Determined to make the ending more interesting than the beginning the management of the local team has arranged for three games with Heinie Youngman's All-Professionals, to be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Nothing more than the announcement that this aggregation will be the opposition is needed to convince local fans of what the series is to be. Every one acquainted with the base ball history of this season knows what Captain Reark and his invincible bunch will be against when they meet the Homestead boys. The Pennsylvanians have put up about the fastest games this year of any team in this district, and their playing alone will be well worth the price of admission.

Captain Reark has arranged to have a strong lineup to face the visiting gang, and though he realizes that he is to buck a great mess of base ball experts feels confident of carrying off laurels by winning at least two of the series. Though he does not know positively who will comprise the lineup he does know a part of it and the fans will rejoice over his good fortune. Big Fred Heckathorn will grace first base, Webb will be found at second, Brown at third, Godwin at short or middle, Rising in left, Wallace in right, Emmerling and Sperry or Berry behind the bat; Winters, Ehman or Barker on the rubber.

NO MORE POLICE AT W. E. PARK

Among the numerous orders issued to the police by the board of public safety, one which will meet the decided disapproval of every base ball and foot ball enthusiast in the city leaked out yesterday. The order is very strict and will do away with police protection at West End park. The board issued the edict one day last week and stated at the time that the failure to heed it would be sufficient grounds for dismissal from the force.

The regular attenders at the park know full well the urgent need of a bluecoat during the progress of a game, either base ball or foot ball. There are times when an officer is indispensable. Crowds will surge out on to the playground in wild excitement over the contest and many times while forming a mob to do evil. In either case the presence of a policeman can only prevent the harm that would generally be the result.

While the majority of ones interested do not censure the board for ordering the force to stay away from the ground all are sore as the result of the order being confined to each and every officer. It is thought that the board acted unwisely and vigorous protests are being heard on all sides.

There is not a park in the country where policemen are not sent to preserve order and why East Liverpool should make a precedent by cutting it out can not be explained.

CRIPPLED TEAM LOST HARD GAME

East End Grays Had the Upper Hand on the P. P. A. C. and Secured a Victory.

The East End Grays defeated the Park Place Athletic club on Saturday. The losers were badly crippled, having but five regular players in the lineup. McBane, who has been playing a great game throughout the season, was the whole show in the contest, making several grand stand catches. The score:

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly all kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up, and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol congests the kidneys with blood and retards their activity.

There is no Alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the body. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a sallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

CATARRH A COMMON COMPLAINT.

Catarrh begins with a stubborn cold in the head, inflammation or soreness of the membrane or lining of the nose, discharge of mucus matter, headaches, neuralgia and difficult breathing, and even in this early stage is almost intolerable. But when the filthy secretions begin to drop back into the throat and stomach, and the blood becomes polluted and the system contaminated by the catarrhal poison, then the sufferer begins to realize what a disgusting and sickening disease Catarrh is. It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected? Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the catarrhal poison. S. S. S. purifies and builds up the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of S. S. S. and commenced to use it and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. Miss MARY L. STORM, Northwest Cor. 7th and Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and a reliable remedy for Catarrh in all stages. Write if in need of medical advice; this will cost you nothing.

Immense Saving to the Taxpayers of Ohio.

NOT MERE DEMOCRATIC DREAMS.

To the Taxpayers of Ohio:

Over $3,000,000 saved to the general taxpayers of the state in a single year and all of it paid by corporations, is the official record of results of the tax-reduction legislation enacted by the last legislature in its first year of operation. The Republican party can claim absolutely the entire credit for this legislation. It was passed through the senate and house by the solid Republican vote in each body, as against the solid Democratic vote in opposition in each house. The Democrats were led in this opposition by Tom L. Johnson personally, as he spent weeks in Columbus marshalling his hosts to defeat any tax legislation that the Republicans might present. He got every Democrat in the senate and house to vote as he dictated, but fortunately the majority in both houses was Republican, resulting in the splendid saving to the people herewith shown.

This reduction is upon the real and personal taxes of every citizen in the state by reason of the reduction in the rate for taxation purposes from 2 mills and 89 hundredths on the dollar of assessed value to 1 mill and 35 hundredths on the dollar. This reduction is the direct result and is only made possible by reason of the laws for excise taxation upon corporations enacted by the Republicans. For some years past the Republican legislatures have been framing excise taxation laws which afforded considerable relief to the taxpayers of the state, and these having stood the test in the courts, the 75th general assembly, under the leadership of Governor Nash and his administration, proceeded with more comprehensive enactments along the same lines. The chief measures of this kind were the Cole law, which provides for an excise tax of 1 per cent of their gross receipts in Ohio of all public service corporations, both local and general; the Willis law, which provides for an annual payment of one-tenth of one per cent upon the issued and outstanding stock of all domestic corporations, and of that proportion of the capital stock of foreign corporations which is used in Ohio; and the Johnston law, taxing outside insurance companies 2½ per cent upon their gross receipts in Ohio.

As the direct result of this legislation there has been a reduction of taxes upon every dollar of real and personal property returned by the people of the state at large. The smallest sum saved for any single county is $5,359.28, in Vinton county, where the entire tax duplicate is only $3,480,054; the largest amount saved in any single county is $388,394.69, in Hamilton county. In Tom Johnson's own county of Cuyahoga, the state has saved to its taxpayers $354,349.87 this year. If the taxpayers of Cleveland have not received their share of the benefits of this great saving given them by the Republican legislature of the state, it is due to the fact that the Johnson tax-eaters have squandered the money in ways of their own.

Since the grand duplicate of the state of Ohio, the gross amount of all its real and personal property as assessed for taxation, is $1,990,885,388, this reduction in the rate of taxation for state purposes from 2.89 mills to 1.35 mills, over 53 per cent., amounts to the enormous aggregate of $3,065,963.50 actually saved in taxes in a single year by the three Republican laws named. This, too, is in addition to all that has been saved this year and all the preceding years by similar laws, first enacted by Republicans in spite of Democratic opposition. It should not be overlooked that all of these savings to the general taxpayers of the state come from the corporations of all kinds. It is legislation of the most practical character, all of it Republican and enacted in the face of solid Democratic resistance. It is the first constructive, systematic legislation along these lines for the benefit of the taxpayers in general that has ever been undertaken in Ohio.

The following figures, showing the actual saving in each county to its own taxpayers upon the total grand duplicate in each county of all its property, both real and personal, is from the official record in the office of the auditor of state:

Grand total saved in entire state by reduction in rate of state tax levy	$3,065,963 50

This list snows actual savings this year by the Republican legislation enacted despite solid Democratic opposition led by Johnson himself. It is a gain for each county, not for this year alone, but for year after year perpetually, unless upset by Democratic experiments. While Mr. Johnson and his immediate lieutenants, Salen and Clarke, Bemis and Witt, and all his other tax experts, are showing their list of guesses of what each county might be losing by reason of fictitious figures which they assume to make upon a basis that is not only false and unlawful, but upon a socialistic scheme that would take away ultimately from the people their farms and homes; instead of these glittering and deceptive promises, THE REPUBLICAN PARTY GIVES TO THE PEOPLE REALITIES IN TAXES SAVED and puts into the state treasury more than $3,000,000 additional annually from the corporations of the state by these laws of 1902. THESE ARE RESULTS ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISHED, NOT DREAMS OR DELUSIONS. None but Republicans voted for them in the legislature, and the Democrats all voted against them. Upon this comparative record between the parties let the people pass their judgment at the polls on the 3rd of November.

Very respectfully,
CHARLES DICK,
Chairman Republican State Executive Committee.

PERTINENT POINTS.

British consols, the government bonds, are at the lowest price since 1866. "The chief reason for this serious shrinkage is the excess of borrowing by local authorities during the past few years." This is that highly praised English municipal ownership which Johnson urges upon Ohio. It has added over a thousand million dollars to English city debts within a few years.

Not a Johnson paper in Ohio will attempt to say anything about that list of Johnson officeholders in Cleveland under the "home rule;" one hundred and six of them drawing salaries of $296,756 and paying in taxes only $1,238.33, Johnson included. Aside from Johnson and Judge Coffinbury, the whole bunch pay less than $300.

The papers have to talk about Cleveland until election because that city is a living example of Johnsonism. One little local incident was the Johnson raid to drive the bootblacks and newsboys off the streets to prevent the little chaps from earning a living.

When the free pass monkey business begins, no one ever catches Johnson asking Clarke to display his bundle of annual passes over the different railroads.

Size of the Oceans.

Most men seem to be as ignorant about the size of the sea as they are of the distance between the heavenly planets. Invention gives a few interesting facts: The Pacific covers 68,000,000 miles, the Atlantic 30,000,000 and the Indian, Arctic and Antarctic oceans 42,000,000. To stow away the contents of the Pacific it would be necessary to fill a tank a mile long, a mile wide and a mile deep every day for 440 years. Put in figures, the Pacific holds in weight 948,000,000,000,000,000,000 tons. The Atlantic averages a depth of not quite three miles. Its water weighs 325,000,000,000,000,000 tons, and a tank to contain it would have each of its sides 430 miles long and deep.

"Think of it! For three days and three nights that quartet sat about a table, shuffling, dealing and cashing in jackpots, and when the game was finally broken up every man had exactly the amount he had begun with."

"Humph! Odd the way they came out even, isn't it?"

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

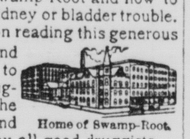

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Home of Swamp-Root.

A Bigger Bid.

A Lincolnshire parish once possessed a clergyman who was not much appreciated. One day he remarked to his churchwarden: "You people don't seem to appreciate me. Do you know that on leaving my last sphere of work the people showed their appreciation so much that they gave me a real silver salver?"

"That is nothing," was the churchwarden's reply. "If tha' would only go away from this parish we'd give thee a gold un!"—London Chronicle.

"NO DIFFERENCE."

To Crush a Candidate Because of "Curative Act." Johnson Asks Another Democratic Believer In It to Run Against Him—Richland and Stark County Cases.

One of the most interesting contributions to the campaign comes from the Mansfield News. It tells the story of the Richland county trouble inside the Democratic party, by which Representative Earhart was cheated out of his customary second term by Johnsons' direct effort. Earhart was one of the eight Democrats who voted for the curative act and were assailed by Johnson for that vote. In order to prevent his renomination, Johnson sent his private secretary Burr Gongwer, to Mansfield to ask former Representative C. N. Gaumer, recent owner of the Mansfield Democratic paper, to run against Earhart. Gaumer refused to do this, and said that he agreed with Earhart that the curative act was a good thing. Gongwer assured Gaumer that this would make no difference, as all Johnson wanted was to make his word good that Earhart would not be re-elected. That is to say, Johnson didn't care anything for the curative act as a matter of principle, but simply to prove his power in the party.

Still not satisfied, Johnson tried other Democrats in Richland county to get them to run for representative. The News names Colonel T. T. Dill, Robert Hutchison, R. B. McCrory and C. Y. McCray, of Mansfield, and Riley Bricker, of Shelby, as among those applied to but refusing to do what Johnson wanted. Hutchison was invited to Cleveland, and at Johnson's house, the boss, it is understood, offered to furnish him with the "sinews of political warfare" in three figures, and besides pay all campaign expenses. Mr. Hutchison said that the Richland county Democrats wanted Earhart re-elected. Then McCray was sent for, but refused to do what was desired. Not until all the others had declined Johnson's kind offers did he take up with Hershey, the man finally nominated. How this revelation will improve Hershey's chances for being elected on the Democratic ticket in Richland county as representative, will appear on the 3rd of November.

Somewhat similar things were going on in Stark county about that time, according to the Alliance Review. That paper quotes "a prominent Democrat of Alliance" as telling a personal friend "that Tom L. Johnson had offered to give said Democrat his (Tom L. Johnson's) personal check for $2,000 if said Democrat would become a candidate for the state legislature and use the money in an effort to procure his election." Following good advice the Democrat declined to have anything to do with the proposition. The Review is in earnest about this and feels its responsibility so definitely as to say that if the statement is not correct, "recourse and recompense to the injured party can be had through the courts."

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO.

GOVERNOR'S VETO.

SECTION 1. That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this state, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1903, to amend Section 16, of article II, of the constitution of the state of Ohio, so that it shall read as follows:

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 16. Every bill shall be fully and distinctly read three different days, unless in case of urgency three-fourths of the house in which it shall be pending, shall dispense with the rule. No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title, and no law shall be revived, or amended unless the new act contains the entire act revived, or the section of sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed.

Every bill passed by both houses of the general assembly shall, before said bill can become law, be presented to the governor. If he approves he shall sign said bill and thereupon said bill shall be law. If he object he shall not sign and shall return said bill, together with his objections thereto in writing, to the house wherein said bill originated, which house shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members elect of that house vote to repass said bill it shall be sent, together with said objection, to the other house, which shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members elect of that house vote to pass said bill it shall be law, otherwise it shall not be law. The votes for the repassage of said bill shall in each house respectively be no less than those given on the original passage. If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor is not signed and is not returned to the house wherein it originated and within ten days after being so presented, exclusive of Sunday and the day said bill was presented, said bill shall be law as in like manner as if signed, unless final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return, in which case shall be law, unless objected to by the governor and filed, together with his objection thereto in writing, by him in the office of the secretary of state within the prescribed ten days; and the secretary of state shall at once make public said fact and shall return said bill, together with said objection, upon the opening of the next following session of the general assembly, to the house wherein said bill originated, where it shall be treated in like manner as if returned within the prescribed ten days.

If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor contains two or more sections, or two or more items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of said sections or to one or more of said items of appropriation of money, and approve the other portion of said bill, in which case said approved portion may be signed and then shall be law; and such section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money objected to shall be returned within the time and in the manner prescribed for, and shall be separately reconsidered as in the case of a whole bill; but if final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return the governor shall file said section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money, together with his objection thereto in writing, with the secretary of state as in the case of a whole bill, and the secretary of state shall then make public said fact, but shall not further act as in the case of a whole bill."

SECTION 2. At such election those electors desiring to vote for such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—yes;" and those opposed to such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words, "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—no."

REAL RESULTS.

NOT MERE DEMOCRATIC DREAMS.

To the Taxpayers of Ohio:

Over $3,000,000 saved to the general taxpayers of the state in a single year and all of it paid by corporations, is the official record of results of the tax-reduction legislation enacted by the last legislature in its first year of operation. The Republican party can claim absolutely the entire credit for this legislation. It was passed through the senate and house by the solid Republican vote in each body, as against the solid Democratic vote in opposition in each house. The Democrats were led in this opposition by Tom L. Johnson personally, as he spent weeks in Columbus marshalling his hosts to defeat any tax legislation that the Republicans might present. He got every Democrat in the senate and house to vote as he dictated, but fortunately the majority in both houses was Republican, resulting in the splendid saving to the people herewith shown.

This reduction is upon the real and personal taxes of every citizen in the state by reason of the reduction in the rate for taxation purposes from 2 mills and 89 hundredths on the dollar of assessed value to 1 mill and 35 hundredths on the dollar. This reduction is the direct result and is only made possible by reason of the laws for excise taxation upon corporations enacted by the Republicans. For some years past the Republican legislatures have been framing excise taxation laws which afforded considerable relief to the taxpayers of the state, and these having stood the test in the courts, the 75th general assembly, under the leadership of Governor Nash and his administration, proceeded with more comprehensive enactments along the same lines. The chief measures of this kind were the Cole law, which provides for an excise tax of 1 per cent of their gross receipts in Ohio of all public service corporations, both local and general; the Willis law, which provides for an annual payment of one-tenth of one per cent upon the issued and outstanding stock of all domestic corporations, and of that proportion of the capital stock of foreign corporations which is used in Ohio; and the Johnston law, taxing outside insurance companies 2½ per cent upon their gross receipts in Ohio.

As the direct result of this legislation there has been a reduction of taxes upon every dollar of real and personal property returned by the people of the state at large. The smallest sum saved for any single county is $5,359.28, in Vinton county, where the entire tax duplicate is only $3,480,054; the largest amount saved in any single county is $388,394.69, in Hamilton county. In Tom Johnson's own county of Cuyahoga, the state has saved to its taxpayers $354,349.87 this year. If the taxpayers of Cleveland have not received their share of the benefits of this great saving given them by the Republican legislature of the state, it is due to the fact that the Johnson tax-eaters have squandered the money in ways of their own.

Since the grand duplicate of the state of Ohio, the gross amount of all its real and personal property as assessed for taxation, is $1,990,885,388, this reduction in the rate of taxation for state purposes from 2.89 mills to 1.35 mills, over 53 per cent., amounts to the enormous aggregate of $3,065,963.50 actually saved in taxes in a single year by the three Republican laws named. This, too, is in addition to all that has been saved this year and all the preceding years by similar laws, first enacted by Republicans in spite of Democratic opposition. It should not be overlooked that all of these savings to the general taxpayers of the state come from the corporations of all kinds. It is legislation of the most practical character, all of it Republican and enacted in the face of solid Democratic resistance. It is the first constructive, systematic legislation along these lines for the benefit of the taxpayers in general that has ever been undertaken in Ohio.

The following figures, showing the actual saving in each county to its own taxpayers upon the total grand duplicate in each county of all its property, both real and personal, is from the official record in the office of the auditor of state:

Grand total saved in entire state by reduction in rate of state tax levy	$3,065,963 50

This list snows actual savings this year by the Republican legislation enacted despite solid Democratic opposition led by Johnson himself. It is a gain for each county, not for this year alone, but for year after year perpetually, unless upset by Democratic experiments. While Mr. Johnson and his immediate lieutenants, Salen and Clarke, Bemis and Witt, and all his other tax experts, are showing their list of guesses of what each county might be losing by reason of fictitious figures which they assume to make upon a basis that is not only false and unlawful, but upon a socialistic scheme that would take away ultimately from the people their farms and homes; instead of these glittering and deceptive promises, THE REPUBLICAN PARTY GIVES TO THE PEOPLE REALITIES IN TAXES SAVED and puts into the state treasury more than $3,000,000 additional annually from the corporations of the state by these laws of 1902. THESE ARE RESULTS ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISHED, NOT DREAMS OR DELUSIONS. None but Republicans voted for them in the legislature, and the Democrats all voted against them. Upon this comparative record between the parties let the people pass their judgment at the polls on the 3rd of November.

Very respectfully,
CHARLES DICK,

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

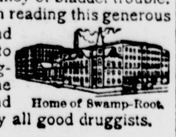

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Home of Swamp-Root.

PERTINENT POINTS.

British consols, the government bonds, are at the lowest price since 1866. "The chief reason for this serious shrinkage is the excess of borrowing by local authorities during the past few years." This is that highly praised English municipal ownership which Johnson urges upon Ohio. It has added over a thousand million dollars to English city debts within a few years.

Not a Johnson paper in Ohio will attempt to say anything about that list of Johnson officeholders in Cleveland under the "home rule;" one hundred and six of them drawing salaries of $296,756 and paying in taxes only $1,238.33, Johnson included. Aside from Johnson and Judge Coffinbury, the whole bunch pay less than $300.

The papers have to talk about Cleveland until election because that city is a living example of Johnsonism. One little local incident was the Johnson raid to drive the bootblacks and newsboys off the streets to prevent the little chaps from earning a living.

Size of the Oceans.

Most men seem to be as ignorant about the size of the sea as they are of the distance between the heavenly planets. Invention gives a few interesting facts: The Pacific covers 68,000,000 miles, the Atlantic 30,000,000 and the Indian, Arctic and Antarctic oceans 42,000,000. To stow away the contents of the Pacific it would be necessary to fill a tank a mile long, a mile wide and a mile deep every day for 440 years. Put in figures, the Pacific holds in weight 948,000,000,000,000,000,000 tons. The Atlantic averages a depth of not quite three miles. Its water weighs 325,000,000,000,000,000 tons, and a tank to contain it would have each of its sides 430 miles long and deep.

English as She Is Spoke.

"Think of it! For three days and three nights that quartet sat about a table, shuffling, dealing and cashing in jackpots, and when the game was finally broken up every man had exactly the amount he had begun with."

"Humph! Odd the way they came out even, isn't it?"

Afraid of the Signs.

Mrs. Brown—How do you like your neighbor, Mrs. Black?

Mrs. Green—Oh, I like her well enough, but I suspect she doesn't think much of me. I saw our girl talking to her over the fence last evening.

WHY MOTHERS WORRY

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child? There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

Scott's Emulsion not only gives a child weight and plumpness, but it feeds the brain, bones and nerves with strength and active power.

"NO DIFFERENCE."

To Crush a Candidate Because of "Curative Act," Johnson Asks Another Democratic Believer In It to Run Against Him—Richland and Stark County Cases.

One of the most interesting contributions to the campaign comes from the Mansfield News. It tells the story of the Richland county trouble inside the Democratic party, by which Representative Earhart was cheated out of his customary second term by Johnsons' direct effort. Earhart was one of the eight Democrats who voted for the curative act and were assailed by Johnson for that vote. In order to prevent his renomination, Johnson sent his private secretary Burr Gongwer, to Mansfield to ask former Representative C. N. Gaumer, recent owner of the Mansfield Democratic paper, to run against Earhart. Gaumer refused to do this, and said that he agreed with Earhart that the curative act was a good thing. Gongwer assured Gaumer that this would make no difference, as all Johnson wanted was to make his word good that Earhart would not be re-elected. That is to say, Johnson didn't care anything for the curative act as a matter of principle, but simply to prove his power in the party.

Still not satisfied, Johnson tried other Democrats in Richland county to get them to run for representative. The News names Colonel T. T. Dill, Robert Hutchison, R. B. McCrory and C. Y. McCray, of Mansfield, and Riley Bricker, of Shelby, as among those applied to but refusing to do what Johnson wanted. Hutchison was invited to Cleveland, and at Johnson's house, the boss, it is understood, offered to furnish him with the "sinews of political warfare" in three figures, and besides pay all campaign expenses. Mr. Hutchison said that the Richland county Democrats wanted Earhart re-elected. Then McCray was sent for, but refused to do what was desired. Not until all the others had declined Johnson's kind offers did he take up with Hershey, the man finally nominated. How this revelation will improve Hershey's chances for being elected on the Democratic ticket in Richland county as representative, will appear on the 3rd of November.

Somewhat similar things were going on in Stark county about that time, according to the Alliance Review. That paper quotes "a prominent Democrat of Alliance" as telling a personal friend "that Tom L. Johnson had offered to give said Democrat his (Tom L. Johnson's) personal check for $2,000 if said Democrat would become a candidate for the state legislature and use the money in an effort to procure his election." Following good advice the Democrat declined to have anything to do with the proposition. The Review is in earnest about this and feels its responsibility so definitely as to say that if the statement is not correct, "recourse and recompense to the injured party can be had through the courts."

A Bigger Bid.

A Lincolnshire parish once possessed a clergyman who was not much appreciated. One day he remarked to his churchwarden: "You people don't seem to appreciate me. Do you know that on leaving my last sphere of work the people showed their appreciation so much that they gave me a real silver salver?"

"That is nothing," was the churchwarden's reply. "If tha' would only go away from this parish we'd give thee a gold un!"—London Chronicle.

SECTION 1. That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this state, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1903, to amend Section 16, of article II, of the constitution of the state of Ohio, so that it shall read as follows:

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 16. Every bill shall be fully and distinctly read three different days, unless in case of urgency three-fourths of the house in which it shall be pending, shall dispense with the rule. No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title, and no law shall be revived, or amended, unless the new act contains the entire act revived, or the section or sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed.

Every bill passed by both houses of the general assembly shall, before said bill can become law, be presented to the governor. If he approves he shall sign said bill and thereupon said bill shall be law. If he object he shall not sign and shall return said bill, together with his objections thereto in writing, to the house wherein said bill originated, which house shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members elect of that house vote to repass said bill it shall be sent, together with said objection, to the other house, which shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members-elect of that house vote to pass said bill it shall be law, otherwise it shall not be law. The votes for the repassage of said bill shall in each house respectively be no less than those given on the original passage. If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor is not signed and is not returned to the house wherein it originated and within ten days after being so presented, exclusive of Sunday and the day said bill was presented, said bill shall be law as in like manner as if signed, unless final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return, in which case shall be law, unless objected to by the governor and filed, with his objections thereto in writing, by him in the office of the secretary of state within the prescribed ten days; and the secretary of state shall at once make public said fact and shall return said bill, together with said objection, upon the opening of the next following session of the general assembly, to the house wherein said bill originated, where it shall be treated in like manner as if returned within the prescribed ten days.

If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor contains two or more sections, or two or more items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of said sections or to one or more of said items of appropriation of money, and approve the other portion of said bill, in which case said approved portion may be signed and then shall be law; and such section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money objected to shall be returned within the time and in the manner prescribed for, and shall be separately reconsidered as in the case of a whole bill; but if final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return the governor shall file said section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money, together with his objection thereto in writing, with the secretary of state as in the case of a whole bill, and the secretary of state shall then make public said fact, but shall not further act as in the case of a whole bill."

SECTION 2. At such election those electors desiring to vote for such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—yes;" and those opposed to such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words, "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—no."

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO.

TAXATION.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio: That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this state, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1902, to amend section 2 of article XII, of the constitution of the state of Ohio, so that it shall read as follows:

This Is the Store for Fine Millinery

Do you ever stop to consider what constitutes a Fine Hat? Not the shape, not the material, nor the trimmings, for all these may be the best obtainable and still the hat may be dowdy. A Fine Hat is not only made of fine materials but it has that indescribable beauty that only the master hand of an artistic trimmer can impart. Our Hats are distinctly FINE and yet they are produced at a cost so much less than is usual that other stores cannot understand it and frankly confess that they don't see how we can mark such low prices on our Millinery.

Drop in this week and let us show you what a pretty hat can be made for $4.98.

THIEVES HUNT FOR GOLD

glar found gold clippings and filings to the value of about $25. The total loss is estimated at about $225.

The entrance to the Pittsburg Dental Parlors was effected in the same way and the burglar had the same opportunity to ransack the place without fear of interruption. Dr. Little, however, was more fortunate. Uncompleted work to the value of about $50, lying upon the top of a cabinet and in plain sight, was overlooked. It was apparent that the burglar took his time about gathering the gold from the various receptacles and it was all taken, even to the very smallest particles. Dr. Little's entire supply was taken, even the filings, from a place where none but an experienced dentist would have thought of looking. The entire loss is estimated at about $90.

Dr. J. H. Sloan estimates her loss to be about $100. This is not accurate, owing to the fact that most of the gold stolen had lately arrived and the bill for it had not been received. An entrance to the rooms was probably gained through the use of a pass key as no marks could be found on the door this morning. Dr. Sloan keeps her supply of gold in a small office safe, but Saturday afternoon, when she left the office she did not lock the door. A small inner drawer in which the gold was placed, was locked, however, and the burglar had used an instrument, probably a chisel, to open it. The burglar made the same careful search that he had at the other places and the booty secured is thought to be worth at least $100. Part of it was in unfinished work.

Mrs. Hawkins, who has apartments in the Golding building, near Dr. Sloan's office, states that she heard footsteps in the hall early Sunday morning. She places the time at about 6:30. So far as can be learned this is the only instance where anything like a clue either to the identity of the burglar or the time he committed the depradations, has been secured.

It is the opinion of local dentists that the burglar has been on the scene for several days and had learned the "lay of the land" of all the dental offices. It is pointed out that the establishment of Dr. Jackman, in a public building, was not visited, owing to the fact that he sleeps near at hand. Other establishments were ignored where danger of their being occupied existed.

It is evident that the office of Dr. Roy Haverfield, in the Stevenson building, was included in the list of intended depradations. Dr. Haverfield, who temporarily has been sleeping at his offices, was awakened at an early hour Sunday morning by a noise at the outer door. He thought it was the janitor and gave no heed. The door was secured by two locks and Dr. Haverfield had no thought of burglars. He had almost dropped off to sleep again when the noise of a footfall came to his ears. A moment later he saw a face peering at him through the curtain close to his bed. Like a flash the face disappeared and its owner beat a very hasty retreat. Dr. Haverfield still thought it to be the janitor and did not give pursuit. Later, when he heard of the thefts, he interrogated the janitor and learned that he had not been in his rooms at all during the morning. The nervy burglar had effected an entrance by undoing the two locks. The man appeared to be of about medium height. He wore a black slouch hat.

COLLINS VS. STRAEBLEY

A Partnership Dispute of Great Interest Being Heard At Salineville.

Salineville, October 5.—(Special)—The case of Collins vs. Straebley was heard here Friday before Referee George T. Farrell, of Lisbon. The case was heard in the village hall, and a good crowd of spectators was there to hear the evidence, and also to enjoy the bright sallies of wit flashed by the opposing counsel. Judge P. M. Smith represented the plaintiff and W. F. Lones and W. A. Clark appeared for the defendant. Miss Lillian Bricker, of Carrollton, was employed as stenographer.

The plaintiff, J. Collins, of Lorain, alleges that he formed a partnership with James Straebley, while he lived here, and that the partnership has never been dissolved, and as a consequence asks Straebley to account for the proceeds derived from that partnership. Witnesses were examined until it was time for the parties to go to the train. Much evidence was adduced and exceptions were readily made to much of the evidence. So far Straebley has the sympathy of Salineville citizens and they think he has the best of the case. The hearing adjourned without fixing a date to continue the case.

The books at the freight office must be gone over to find out how much coal was shipped by the defendant from the mines he has worked here. The case promises to be long drawn out and by the stubborn way in which the attorneys are fighting it will take several days to hear all the testimony.

Factions Exchange Blows.

London, Oct. 5.—The candidature of John Howard Parnell, brother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, at the parliamentary election for South Meath, which is deeply resented by the Redmonites, led to a riot when John Redmond and other Nationalists went to speak in support of their candidate, David Sheehy. The rival factions came to blows at Dunshaughlin. Bludgeons and stones were used and many persons were injured. John Redmond in his speech denounced J. H. Parnell as a traitor to Irish unity.

Schooner H. W. Sage Foundered.

Detroit, Oct. 5.—A dispatch was received here from the captain of the steamer Samoa, at Cheboygan, Mich., stating that the schooner H. W. Sage, which was in tow of the Samoa, foundered in a gale on Lake Michigan Saturday night. No details were given, the message simply stating that the crew of the schooner were safe on board the Samoa. The Sage was the property of John Kelderhouse, of Buffalo, and was loaded with ore.

THIEVES HUNT FOR GOLD IN OFFICES OF DENTISTS

THE BURGLARIES WERE CLEVERLY MANAGED

A series of daring burglaries, resulting in a loss of about $500 to local dentists, was committed some time during Saturday night or before daylight Sunday morning. This is the second time within a year that dental offices here have been robbed of gold and valuable articles and it is apparent that the burglar is well versed in dentistry. It is the opinion of local dentists that the burglar at some time or other followed the profession. The establishments to suffer Saturday night were The Red Cross, Drs. C. J. Harrison and R. Calcott, located in the Thompson building, The Pittsburg Dental Parlors, Dr. J. M. Little, in the same building, and Dr. J. H. Sloan, in the Golding building.

At the Red Cross establishment an entrance to the rooms was effected by reaching the spring lock, a sharp instrument being inserted under the batten of the door. With but very little work, and without noise, the instrument was pressed against the bolt of the lock and the bolt was easily forced back. The simpleness and effectiveness of this plan brands the burglar as a genius in his line.

The burglar had a clear field after gaining the room and he proceeded to rummage through the cabinets and workshop. The roll top desk in the room was forced open and from it gold to the value of about $50 was taken. In the drawers of the cabinet were a number of gold teeth, crowns and bridge work, valued at $100, under process of construction for customers, all of which was stolen. To show how well the burglar understood the business of a dentist, several teeth, contained in the cabinet, were broken open to see whether they were filled with the precious metal. A drawer containing plaster of paris was explored to find work placed there to cool. The burglar also carried away porcelain crowns to the value of about $25 or $30. In the workshop the bur-

COUNTY AND SENATORIAL TICKET TO BE NAMED.

Party Leaders Announce That a Determined Fight Is to Be Waged.

The County Prohibition convention will be held in the G. A. R. hall this evening. Immediately following the convention senatorial candidates to represent the Twentieth-Twenty-Second district will be nominated.

Secretary C. F. Bough, of the county committee, stated this morning that the Prohibitionists of Columbiana county intend to make a hard fight at the coming election. Numerous plans have been laid by the organization and all will be completed at the convention tonight. An entire county ticket will be nominated. Representatives from all ports of the county have promised to be present and considerable more interest than has been noted in the past is expected.

Mr. Bough was unable to announce the names of any of the probable candidates. He would say only that they will comprise the best men in the city and county, and that the belief of the party is that the choice will poll large votes.

The only known candidate for senator is W. G. Todd, a prominent man of Belmont county. His home is at Flushing and he will be supported by every delegate of Belmont county, and it is thought he will receive the support of the entire convention. It will be remembered that Mr. Todd ran for representative on the Prohibition ticket a few years ago. In anticipation of his being received even more favorably than in his last race he will be nominated. Delegates from Bridgeport, Steubenville and other down-the-river towns will be in attendance at the meeting this evening.

Mayor Weaver announced this morning that the entire Prohibition party intends to be in the coming fight to a finish. "We are going to show the people a thing or two," said the chief executive. Other leaders of the party in the city are equally confident.

Mrs. Emma Farnsworth appeared at central station this afternoon and asked the mayor to assign an officer to accompany her to the home of George Tucker in California Hollow, where she claimed her child is being kept. She said it was at death's door and the Tucker family will not allow her to see it.

Officer McDermott was detailed to assist the woman.

FREIGHT TRAIN UNCONTROLLABLE ON THE HORN SWITCH.

What might have been a most disastrous accident to both life and property occurred this morning at about 11:30 on the Horn switch, near the Dresden pottery, when freight train No. 7648 became uncontrollable and started on a terrific run down to the main line. That the catastrophe was averted was due solely to the train jumping the track before any great momentum had been gained.

The engine had been shifting some cars near the extremity of the switch and had started back toward the main track. As it is customary, when the train crews have nothing to hold them back, to go down the track with the speed of the wind, the engineer of this train had opened the throttle and the freight train was speeding at an awful rate. When a few yards east of the Dresden pottery the engineer was shocked upon finding that the brakes had become caught in some manner and that he could not work them. He tried with all his might to apply the air but it refused and just as the engineer and the remainder of the crew were preparing for the wildest run of their lives, the engine and three of the cars went jumping off the track. They stopped because of high ground in the pathway.

The crew was badly shaken up and the cars were broken up considerably. The wreck crew was summoned from Wellsville but at 3 o'clock had not appeared on the scene.

GOOD FEELING SHOWN AT COMMITTEE MEETING

Lisbon, October 5. — (Special.) — The meeting of the Republican county central committee, held here Saturday afternoon, was given over to brief impromptu addresses by leaders from all parts of the county, after the business had been deferred. Officials of the county committee urged that township committeemen send in reports of their local organization, together with requests for meetings wherever they may be desired. Lithographs of Hanna and Herrick, 2,500 of each, will be here in a few days and a pro rata distribution of them made among the township committees.

GREAT SCHEME OF A HERMIT

Makes Every Hunter Who Comes On His Land Pay Toll.

A PENNSYLVANIA ODDITY

Encountered By Local Nimrods Who Were Hunting Near Greensburg. He Lives in the Woods But Knows the Game Laws Well.

George Parry and the party of hunters who left the city a week ago to enjoy an outing in the vicinity of Greensburg, Pa., have returned. He reports that he had one of the best trips of his life and that it would be impossible to enumerate the game that fell before his unerring aim.

Besides having a week of genuine sport, the party came in contact with a character, who once met, can never be forgotten. He is peculiar in many ways. The name of the man was not learned. He is a man of about 50 years and lives in the midst of a dense forest in a rudely constructed cabin. In general appearance he resembles the immortal Robinson Crusoe. It is said that this man has not been seen outside the forest in 20 years.

Like a hermit he confines himself to the woods and for a livelihood during the past few years since the game laws became effective in Pennsylvania he has resorted to a plan the like of which is unprecedented.

As is well known, a farm owner is empowered with the right to make an arrest of any violator of the game laws. This strange man owns the forest which surrounds him. It consists of about four acres of hickory trees. Such trees of course are sought by the squirrel family and when a bevy of them discovered this array of trees they decided to make it their permanent home. It was to them a veritable Eden. It is estimated that there are in the neighborhood of 400 squirrels harbored in this forest.

In Pennsylvania there is not a vicinity more hunted than the one in which this forest lies. There are hunters by the score traversing the district daily in quest of game and they usually find it. When they run into the secluded bunch of trees, the first thing they hear is the merry chirp of a squirrel and about a moment later no less than a score of the pretty animals come to view. Every one who knows the natural inclination of a hunter knows that the temptation is too great to resist—squirrel season or no squirrel season—to see one of them in plain view and let it go without a salute consisting of powder and ball. That is what every hunter does who happens along near this forest. Like a flash he raises his gun, takes quick aim and one of the innocent little animals keels over onto a limb and subsequently topples to the ground.

The hunter rushes to his dead game and just as he is picking it up the so-called hermit appears on the scene. He has been watching the maneuver from the very start and the hunter has done exactly what he wanted him to do and what he knew he would do if possessed of any sporting blood. "You know it is against the law to shoot these squirrels," says he. "Well, now I will put you under arrest and have you prosecuted to the full extent of the law if you do not make amends for killing my squirrel."

There is but one way out of it for the hunter. He must furnish $10 or put up his gun for security. The latter is generally done. It is said that the hermit is rapidly acquiring wealth and that he has his cabin half filled with guns, the result of his strange proceedings.

In Jail For Larceny.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special)—Howard Pickering, of East Liverpool, indicted for petit larceny, was brought to the county jail by Sheriff Leonard yesterday.

A DEMURRER FILED IN THE WYMAN CASE

A special from Lisbon states that a demurrer was filed this afternoon by Attorneys Brookes & Thompson, of this city, and Billingsley, Clark & DeFord, of Lisbon, representing Mayor Weaver and the board of public safety, in the case of City Solicitor Davidson, which was instituted last week to prevent the appointment of John Wyman as chief of police.

The attorneys allege in the demurrer that Solicitor Davidson had no right to bring action and that he did not state the cause of action in his petition. The demurrer will be heard on Friday.

If it is sustained the case will not come up for a hearing before Judge Hole. If the demurrer is ignored the case will come up the first of next week.

A LEAKY SCREEN CAUSES TROUBLE

Salineville, October 5.—(Special.)—The miners at the Slope mine here decided Saturday morning to quit work until the Ohio & Pennsylvania Coal company would fix the screen over which all the coal is dumped into cars. Over two weeks ago the company was notified that unless it readjusted the screen, the men would not work. The company paid no attention to the demand, and when the time had expired the men refused to work.

Al McGarry, of Cleveland, was down to meet with the committee Saturday and adjust the differences and he agreed to have the screen fixed the first of this week. The screen bars were so worn that a large amount of coal would pass into the slack chute, and the miners were losing from six to ten cents on each ton, it is said.

ANXIOUS TO KNOW ABOUT THE PRIZE

The Labor Day Contest For $25 Has Not Yet Been Decided.

THE CAUSE OF THE DELAY

Since the Labor day demonstration held in this city September 7, nearly a month ago, there are at least two union organizations who participated in the parade anxious to know what disposition has been made of the prize for the best turn out and display of their respective trade. A large number of union organizations competed for the prize, which was to be $25 in gold. The most formidable rivals in the contest were the teamsters and the local branch of the International Union of Steam Engineers.

Any one interested in the contest and who can remember that far back will recall that the steam engineers went to a great deal of trouble and expense in making a display. A traction engine had been arranged for, and with a very large percentage of its membership in line the union made an excellent showing. They were well uniformed and their display was something entirely out of the ordinary.

The teamsters' union, an association which had accomplished a great deal for its members within the past year, was also out for the prize, and owing to the method adopted in making the display the effort was both unique and attractive. The membership of this union is larger than that of the engineers, and for this reason the display attracted more attention. However, the latter organization had much the best of the argument in the matter of percentage in line, and believe there should have been little hesitation in making the award.

The officers of the central labor union who had charge of the demonstration, appointed a disinterested and secret committee, and to the present that committee has failed to make a report. It was suggested at one time that the two unions were so evenly matched that the committee was unable to determine which of the two had won, and that under the circumstances the money ought to be divided. The idea did not meet with favor at the hands of either organization, and so far as any of the interested ones are concerned there has been no decision.

HANOVERTON HAS A GOOD-SIZED FIRE

S. A. Henderson's Undertaking Shop And Its Contents Totally Destroyed.

Lisbon, October 5. — (Special.) — A serious fire occurred in Hanoverton early Sunday morning. It resulted in the total destruction of S. A. Henderson's undertaking establishment, together with a stock of coffins and fixtures.

The fire was first seen about 4 o'clock and had already made such headway that the firemen had to be content with saving contiguous property. Among the destroyed property was Mr. Henderson's hearse, a two-horse wagon, a surrey, a spring wagon, all his harness, and 23 coffins. The coffins were worth at least $500. The total loss will reach $3,000; insurance, $2,000.

FRIGHTFUL INJURIES SUFFERED BY A WORKER AT FIRE BRICK PLANT

Elza Vandyne, conceded to be one of the best clay miners in this vicinity, received terrible injuries Saturday afternoon at about 2 o'clock while at work in the mines of the Champion Fire Brick company, Wellsville. As a result the injured man lies at his home in Jethro Hollow, suffering indescribable pain, with the chances about even for his recovery.

Mr. Vandyne was standing between two heavily laden cars en route from far into the hill to the opening of the mine. The tram road over which the cars are hauled had become weakened and while the cars were passing over possibly the worst section of the road the upright posts gave way and before Mr. Vandyne had the opportunity to jump two of the cars went through to the bottom of the mine. He was standing on one of the cars that fell and when they bumped together he was pinioned between them. The weight against his body was great and the fall adding momentum to the load, his body at the hips was crushed practically to a pulp.

The shock was so great and the pain so intense that Mr. Vandyne screamed out in heart-rending tones for help. It was impossible for him to extricate himself, and before assistance arrived he had fallen over in a semi-conscious condition. Fellow workmen realized at once upon their arrival at his side that Vandyne was badly hurt and after getting him from between the heavy loads, carried him to the open air and then summoned the ambulance from central fire station. The wagon had been called to the East End and the best that Chief Morley could do was to send two men to the scene with a stretcher.

Upon the arrival of the officers Vandyne was carefully laid on the stretcher and taken to a street car upon which he was brought to his home. Dr. Norris was called and found the man to be in an exceedingly bad condition. The physician stated today that Vandyne would not necessarily die from the effects of the wounds, but that he would surely be laid up for months.

tery, the general opinion is that it was the work of an incendiary, though there is said to be a possibility that it was due to the spontaneous combustion of embalming fluid. The firemen, with the Seeds fire engine purchased by the village a few years ago, did excellent work in saving adjoining property.

STOCK EXCHANGE IS INDICTED

A Fight Will Be Put Up By F. A. Tremaine to Keep His Business Running.

Among the local people indicted by the grand jury last week was F. A. Tremaine, manager of the Penn Stock exchange, with headquarters in the Potters' National bank building. The indictment against Mr. Tremaine charges him with unlawfully operating a broker's shop. The papers to appear before common pleas court were served on Mr. Tremaine Saturday night by Sheriff Leonard.

Mr. Tremaine has decided to fight the case to the bitter end. He is confident that his business is not unlawful and is positive that such can be proven to the court. There seems to be some difference, indeed a great difference, between the kind of a shop run by Mr. Tremaine and the one that was in the city several years ago. The latter was a bucket shop where money was spent only on margins, and Mr. Tremaine, it is said, buys and sells actual stock. It is understood that his fight will be made from that standpoint.

ANOTHER MEETING ON BOND QUESTION

Council Will Assemble Tonight to Take Up the Vexed Subject.

A special meeting of council will be held this evening to take up for another time the aggravating bond question. The call was issued late this afternoon and every member is expected to be present.

William McCullough, the man who got an option on the bonds last week, accompanied by Attorney W. F. Lones, of Wellsville, arrived in the city this morning and after a consultation with City Solicitor G. E. Davidson, concluded that the resolution passed by council ordering the sale of the bonds is illegal.

Mr. Cullough apprised the solicitor and also the auditor that he could not furnish a buyer unless the resolution is materially changed. As a result it was decided to hold a meeting tonight.

River Committee Meeting—A meeting will be held at the postoffice this evening from 7:30 to 8 of the delegates to the coming river convention at Evansville. Every delegate is urged to be present.

Pittsburg, October 5.—Judge Joseph Buffington, in the United Sates circuit court, on Saturday decided one more case against the Western Union Telegraph company with reference to its lines on the Cleveland & Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania lines west. While granting the demurrer of the railroad Judge Buffington expressed the opinion that the telegraph company had a joint interest in the poles and wire. This will serve to complicate the case in the end.

The case just decided is entirely different from that on the Pennsylvania railroad. There will be no pole chopping, inasmuch as for some time a working agreement has been in effect between the two companies under which the railroad agrees to refrain from interfering with the property of the telegraph company until the case is finally disposed of. President A. J. Cassatt has also tired of his early frolic. Judge Buffington's opinion would prevent pole chopping if such a working arrangement were not in effect, and it will even raise the question of the right of the telegraph company to continue to hold its poles on the right of way if Judge Buffington's view is finally sustained.

On the Pennsylvania the question at issue was that of a lease which had expired. On the Pennsylvania lines west the telegraph company claimed joint ownership under an old agreement. The granting of the demurrer filed by the Pennsylvania company to the equity suit of the Western Union means that on the contention Judge Buffington believes that the Western Union has no case. He refuses to define the extent of the joint ownership of personalty and unless the question is defined in the United States court of appeals, to which it will be taken, a cross suit to determine the ownership of all the property will be tried.

A LISBON PASTOR WILL RESIGN

Rev. A. W. Lytle to Quit the Pulpit on Account of Impaired Health.

Lisbon, October 5. — (Special.) — Rev. A. W. Lytle, who has been pastor of the Lisbon U. P. church for nine years, yesterday announced his retirement. He has been in failing health for a year or two, and the need of absolute rest is evident, as he is now apparently on the verge of nervous prostration.

His complete relinquishment of pastoral duties will become effective in one month. In case he is unable to preach during that time the pulpit will be supplied.

PEACE AND UNITY IN THE CHURCH

WORDS OF DR. TAGGART

"I know very well that I can live in Christian unity and brotherly love with my Episcopalian, my Methodist or my Baptist brother, far better, if he is content to live under his own ecclesiastical roof, holding his peculiar views and seeking to do the Lord's work in his special way, than if he would come into my denominational home and persist in forcing his peculiar doctrines and usuages upon me to the discord and confusion of my church life. I think if he is a true Christian gentlemen he will not attempt to do so, unless he believes my church life is so entirely wrong that it ought to be thoroughly destroyed. In that case he would not seek fellowship in it nor advise any one to remain in it.

"Here, in view of certain preaching in our midst in the past few weeks, I wish to say, kindly, and just as tenderly as I can, but with a strong conviction that faithfulness in seeking the peace and unity of our churches demands it, that any man, I care not what his talent or ability as a preacher may be, or what special revelations from on high he may claim to have received, who seeks to destroy the peace and harmony of churches, by forming associations of their members to propagate doctrines he knows are in direct conflict with those held by these churches, at the same time he advises them to remain in their churches for the advocacy of these special views acts a part, in my opinion, that is neither honest, honorable nor Christian. And those that accept such teaching and follow such advice do that which is in direct antagonism to the principles of true Christian unity.

"So far as any ridicule of the appearance and habits of the ministers of the city and accusations of their inefficiency and unfaithfulness is concerned they can afford to keep silence. But when it comes to advising a course of conduct calculated to stir up strife and contention in the church they must speak out, much as they may regret the necessity, against that which they believe to be in conflict with true Christian unity."

The remainder of the sermon dealt with the comprehensiveness, the beauty, the attractive power and the refreshing nature of this unity, and the blessedness which comes to those who live under its gracious influence, closing with an exhortation to exemplify this fraternal unity.

NO PERFECTION IN THIS LIFE

Rev. Edwin Weary preached from the text, "Grow in Grace." He spoke of the doctrine of sanctification, and read scriptural passages showing that it is not possible for man to attain perfection. He read from the writings of the apostles where it is proven that even they disdained a belief in their own sanctification. The Apostle Paul said, 'I count not myself to be perfect, but continually reach out unto that which is perfect.' The other writers of the inspired word were more modest than some of the preachers of the present day of alleged advanced thought and they acknowledged their transgressions and their sins were ever before them.

In closing the rector said: "To be perfect we must be at peace with all mankind. We must be loving; we must be kind and compassionate to the frailities of others. We must not vaunt our righteousness or holiness before others of our brothers who may have fallen by the wayside, but we must fulfill the great law of God, 'Love your neighbor.' If we could look into the inner lives of some of those who boast of sanctification we might not find these attributes of true perfection and sanctification. We would possibly not find an expression of perfect love."

SHAPING CHARACTER

Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt at the First M. E. church last evening spoke of environment and heredity and their influence in shaping character. He said in part:

"The church has undertaken to change the environment of its own people and of all people. Thus it can accomplish much for humanity. By destroying the evil influences, by strengthening so far as possible the good influences, properly attributed to environments, the church renders an invaluable service not only to this generation, but to all coming generations. This is true because temperamental defects acquired from associations with others are apt to be passed down from father to son. Environment is the combined personality of the community. Wherefore it is impossible for one wholly to disassociate himself from its influences.

"Oftimes it is noticed that man inherits a bent or propensity for theft or for drunkenness. Such a man merits sympathy perhaps, but his inherited weakness can not excuse his sinning. His will power should be overcome; he should resist the impulse to do a wrong. Men are measured by their deeds."

ON MISSIONS

Rev. J. G. Reinartz Delivers an Eloquent And Very Able Address.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz addressed a large congregation in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church last evening. His text was Matthew 28:19, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

The speaker delivered an eloquent and convincing discourse in favor of missions. Christian education and Christian missions, he claimed, are twin sisters. Where one is found the other stands by her side or will soon follow. Their Father is live and through its instrumentality the gospel is being spread throughout the entire world.

Uncharitable Criticism.

Rev. J. W. Gorrell at the First Christian church last evening preached from the text, "Judge not that ye be not judged," dealing with uncharitable criticism as coming from the evil that is in men's hearts and which is devilish in its nature. Men have enough evil in their own lives to silence any censorous criticism of others' faults. A man's faults should never be held up to view unless the motive is a good one, to bring about reformation or to warn some one else.

News and Notes About The Potteries

AGAINST WHOLESALE PRICES.

There appears to be a general movement started by large crockery dealers throughout the east to prevent potteries from selling to the consumer at wholesale prices. They do not contend that very large quantities are disposed of in this way, but they do say that the practice has become so common that their own business interests are seriously curtailed.

S. E. Kaufman, of South Broad street, Trenton, in an interview, which appeared in the New York Crockery and Glass Journal a few days ago in reference to this channel of courtesy said:

"The Crockery and Glass Journal should, as the official organ of the trade, should exert its influence to destroy this unfair practice. When I first began to handle crockery and glassware it was possible only for the office force of a pottery to obtain a dinner or toilet set from their employer at the regular trade prices. Since then, however, the restrictions in this regard have been materially relaxed.

"Almost any employe nowadays seems to be capable of securing his crockery necessities in this way, and not long ago I discovered an instance wherein people who were not associated with the potteries in any capacity had no trouble in buying a jardinere, umbrella stand, dinner set, or something of that sort, simply because they were friendly with either the manufacturers or some of the employes. This isn't at all fair to us retailers. Every piece of ware disposed of in this manner deprives us of a sale, and I believe the manufacturers should protect us."

In commenting upon Mr. Kaufman's interview it says: "Mr. Kaufman's remarks deserve mental digestion. While it is scarcely likely that very much ware annually passes from manufacturer to consumer through this channel of courtesy, the fact remains that the practice exists. The manufacturer probably does not view the transaction from Mr. Kaufman's standpoint. He never disposes of the goods in a spirit of enterprise, but rather as a mark of appreciation and friendship.

"Retail dealers of our acquaintance have displayed the same liberality towards their clerical force, to whom they have sold merchandise at the bare cost price. Of course, no dealer subsequently suffers commercially by the magnanimity of the retail dealer, as in the case of the manufacturing potter. The practice has unquestionably expanded in recent years, however; and if its effect is so severely felt by the retailer as Mr. Kaufman declares the manufacturers should seek to remedy it in some manner."

NEW YORK NOTES.

While a modern dimunition in the demand for crockery was noted toward the close of last week, trade conditions have started out this week with some show of improvement, and confidence is generally expressed in the belief that there will be a good trade for the remainder of the year. Not only are the local warerooms quite busy, says the New York Commercial, but mail orders show a good volume of business and the traveling men all over the country are meeting with great success, especially in the west. At East Liverpool most of the potteries are working to their full capacity and some are now shipping their goods as fast as turned out. At Trenton everything is now running smoothly, a threatened strike among the kilnmen having been avoided, and both manufacturers and operatives are now in accord.

Domestic pottery is in good demand hotel china being in especially good demand and much better than a year ago. As to foreign goods there appears to be a brisk demand for German specialties and in many lines the supplies are already exhausted. French goods are also active and many orders are said to have been placed already for spring delivery.

CAMERON NOTES.

George Quell, of Wheeling, who has charge of the decorating department, says he will soon have decorated ware on the market. Mr. Quell says he expects to employ most of his help from Cameron. Some experienced hands were engaged, but owing to the high prices charged for boarding ladies, the necessary help cannot be secured. The officials say that unless there is a cut in the price of board it will be impossible for them to get enough employes to do the work.

Miss Altman, of Wheeling, has charge of the bisque department.

Clarence Brooks, who was ill at his home in Peoria, Ill., has recovered and returned to his position.

Mr. Ramsey, of East Liverpool, and Ed Gailey, of Pittsburg, have arrived and accepted positions here.

Although there is a general decline in stocks at the present time, that of the Cameron Pottery company has been selling as high as 103.

TO BE DEBATED.

As announced elsewhere in this issue, a special meeting of local union No. 32 has been called for tonight, to take place at Brotherhood headquarters. Legislation has been enacted regulating certain matters with the printers and their crews and it seems to be up to the local to put them into effect. The proposition up for tonight's debate, a piece price for the rubbers and the abolishment of contracts, will prove of great interest to the trade. Neither of the questions are new ones to the local. There will no doubt be a large attendance at the meeting.

REPORTED BANKRUPTCY.

W. H. Rapeport, Hampton, Va., crockery dealer, is in involuntary bankruptcy.

POTTERY CONTRACT.

Charles G. Lacy, of Salem, has received the contract of constructing the brick work on the new pottery to be built at East Palestine, and will begin work at once. The pottery will be 65 feet long, 138 feet wide and part two stories in height.

POTTERY NOTES.

George Shaw, sticker-up at the Hall China company, has been quite ill for the past few days with neuralgia.

Slick Woolley, ewermaker at the Hall China company, has been laid up for the past few days on account of illness.

William Clark and family, of Lisbon, will move to Sebring. Mr. Clark has secured employment at the French China pottery.

John Roberts, manager of the decorating department at the Hall China company, who has been quite seriously ill for the past week or more, is beginning to improve nicely, much to the satisfaction of his many friends.

EAST END

REV. MR. LLOYD MADE HIS FIRST APPEARANCE

Occupied the Pulpit at Erie Street M. E. Church Yesterday—Other Interesting Services.

Services at the East End churches yesterday morning and evening were of particular interest and the congregations were large and attentive. The music by the choirs was also unusually well prepared.

At the Erie street Methodist church Rev. S. P. Lloyd, the newly appointed minister, appeared in the pulpit for his first sermon and the congregation was very favorably impressed. At both services he delivered very eloquent and able sermons.

The usual services at the Second Presbyterian church attracted large congregations. Rev. N. M. Crowe preached morning and evening and both sermons found attentive listeners.

At the Second U. P. church Rev. D. W. McQuiston preached at the morning service from the text: "Peace With God, the Result of Justification." At the evening service the congregation was unusually large.

Young Couple Wedded.

Miss Ida C. Densmore and William Reynolds were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Densmore, on Elm street. The ceremony was performed by 'Squire L. W. Carman in the presence of about 50 friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The house was tastefully decorated with greens and flowers. Mr. Reynolds holds a nice position in one of the local potteries, coming here some time ago from Beaver, Pa. Mrs. Reynolds is one of the East End's most popular young ladies.

Delegates to Convention.

Quite a number of East End people were among the number that left today from this section to attend the convention of Young Peoples' societies of the Steubenville presbytery of the United Presbyterian church. Rev. D. W. McQuiston is the secretary of the Christian unions for the presbytery and the church elected eight delegates. Those who will attend, with Rev. Mr. McQuiston, are Misses Margaret White, Maude Fisher, Mary Cooley, Mary Ramsey, Effie Ramsey, Elizabeth McCormick and Fred Sauereisen.

Farewell Reception.

A farewell reception to Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Orcutt, who are to leave shortly for East Palestine, Rev. Mr. Orcutt's new charge, will be given at the Erie street Methodist church Tuesday evening. A general invitation has been extended and the attendance will be large. As a part of the program there will be short addresses from the ministers with whom Rev. Mr. Orcutt has been closely associated for the past three years.

Miss Beaver Hurt.

Miss Clara Beaver, who lives with her mother near Ralston's crossing, was painfully hurt Saturday afternoon by falling from the steps leading to Erie street. Miss Beaver had hurt her ankle a few minutes before and it is thought she fainted from the pain while descending the steps. She was unconscious until after the arrival of Dr. Calhoun. The patrol removed her to her home.

Two Good Games.

Two interesting foot ball games were played Saturday on the school house grounds and East End teams were victorious in both. The Fourth street Athletics met defeat at the hands of the East End Marines by a score of 5 to 6, in one of the most exciting games ever played. The East End Tigers won from the Bruno Juniors by a score of 6 to 0.

Big Meeting Tonight.

Congregational Meeting.

A meeting of the congregation of the Second Presbyterian church has been called to take place next Wednesday evening at the church for the purpose of electing three additional elders, to which the church is entitled by reason of its growth in members. The meeting is one of great importance and a full attendance is desired.

THE PRECAUTIONS IN CONSUMPTION

Columbus, October 5.—(Special.)—Dr. C. O. Probst, secretary of the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, in his fourth article deals with "Measures to Be Taken By a Consumptive for the Protection of Others and Himself." He says:

We have seen that tuberculosis is always caused by a living organism. That in consumption, or pulmonary tuberculosis, this germ is found only in the sputum. Let this be promptly cared for and the consumptive may without danger mingle freely with his family and the public.

Consumption may exist for a time with but little cough and no expectoration. During this period no special precautions are needed. The danger begins when there is expectoration.

In the first place a consumptive should always sleep alone; and, if possible, have a room for himself. He should not kiss or be kissed by any person, especially on the lips. He should be clean shaven. A heavy beard makes it difficult to expectorate, and is sure to become soiled by sputum. He should have his own drinking vessel; and knives, forks, spoons, etc., used by him should be boiled thereafter.

He should never expectorate upon the floor in any house, office, workshop car or other public place. While it is much less dangerous to expectorate upon the street or sidewalk, this too is to be avoided.

In his home he may expectorate upon paper or bits of rags, provided these are at once burned.

He should never use a handkerchief for such purpose. This is a common and especially dangerous practice. The sputum dries and on unfolding the handkerchief numerous germs are set free. A cup with a handle may be used to spit into. Paper cups to go inside of an outer cup are very convenient. They may be procured at most drug stores. The paper cups should be burned and the out cup disinfected by placing it in boiling water at least once a day. In all cases care must be taken not to soil the fingers. If this happens the hands should be at once thoroughly cleansed with soap and water.

Where natural gas is used for heating purposes, as it largely is in this state, it may be very inconvenient to burn paper cups, rags, etc. In that case the sputum should be received in a vessel containing a solution of crude carbolic acid—an ounce and a half to a quart of water; or, lysol may be used—one-half ounce to a quart of water. This vessel may be emptied into the sewer, and it should be thoroughly cleansed each day.

The ordinary cuspidor with sloping sides is not suitable for the use of consumptives, as the sputum on the sides soon dries and may contaminate the air of the room. A vessel on the floor for sputum should be placed on a square of linoleum or something of like character, which should be thoroughly wiped with the disinfectant solution every day.

The greatest difficulty is to dispose of the sputum out of doors. There are several styles of pocket spit flasks that may be used. They admit of easy cleaning, and prevent any escape of the sputum in the pocket. Consumptives hesitate to use them as they call attention to their disease. They may be almost completely hidden in a handkerchief, and with a little practice one could use them without detection.

Squares of old linen, cloth or of Japanese paper, can be used to receive the sputa, and these may be placed in a stout paper bag and carried in the pocket. Bag and contents should be promptly burned. A newspaper can be folded and cut so as to have leaves like a small book. This can be slipped into a stout paper envelope and carried in the pocket. The leaves of this booklet, envelope and all to be burned daily.

Care should be taken to prevent sputum getting upon the clothing or bed covers. The outer cover of the bed, which is most likely to become contaminated, should be of linen or something which may be frequently washed and boiled.

The outer clothing a consumptive wears should be hung out of doors in the sun once or twice a week. This will disinfect it.

There is another precaution that should be taken by consumptives. It has been observed that a person in coughing expels myriads of minute particles of saliva. It has been demonstrated that a consumptive may expel many tubercle bacilli in this way He should always, therefore, when coughing, place a handkerchief before his mouth and turn his head away from any person very near him.

The room occupied by a consumptive should not be carpeted. Bare floors oiled or painted, with rugs should be the rule. There should be no needless draperies. No broom nor dusting brush should be used in this room. Cleansing should be done with moist cloths, and the floor should be gone over frequently with a cloth wet with a disinfectant. For this purpose corrosive sublimate one drachm to the gallon of water is excellent, having no odor. It is a violent poison if taken internally, and must be handled with care.

Can any one with consumption be excused from carrying out these very simple precautions? Remember that the vast majority of cases of this disease are caused by the germs cast out in the sputum of some consumptive.

It is safe to say that if every person in Ohio with consumption were to strictly carry out these simple precautionary measures there would be a saving of at least 4,000 lives every year in this state alone.

The consumptive should also take heed of what was said in the last article about reinfection. If he is careless with his sputa he constantly endangers himself as well as others.

Ignorance is the thing to be combatted, and none of us should hesitate, for fear of giving offense, to tell a consumptive how he may protect himself, his family and his friends.

Society must aid if we are to be successful in the prevention of tuberculosis, and in the next article it will be briefly pointed out what the public and the government, state and municipal, may do in this direction.

The effectiveness of the pure food law, adopted by congress last winter, has already been clearly proved. The standards established by the agricultural department have resulted in the rejection at the customs houses of large quantities of wines and foods that otherwise would have gained admittance. In the great majority of cases the sale of the rejected articles for domestic use would not have been allowed in the countries which exported them. Now let as much attention be given to food products made in America and in time the people may know whether they are eating healthful products or poisonous ones.

The Western Union Telegraph company's poles along the C. & P. railroad will not be chopped down, according to a decision of the United States circuit court at Pittsburg. Those who have occasion to use the wires, however, are hoping that they will speedily come down or else be operated by some company that has a disposition to accommodate its patrons and give the city of East Liverpool a telegraph service superior to that given Smith's Ferry, Industry and other hamlets.

The announcement, exclusively made in the News Review, that Senator Foraker expects to address a campaign meeting in this city, will interest every Republican. East Liverpool is not likely to have many campaign meetings this fall, but it will have one that will be a rouser and voters will come from far and near to hear the addresses.

A grand jury in New Castle county, Delaware, refused even to consider eight indictments drawn by the state's attorney general against persons accused of participation in the lynching and burning of a negro criminal last June. That grand jury seems to be trying hard to put Delaware in the same class with Turkey.

Ten million stray pieces reached the dead letter office during the past fiscal year and $50,000 cash and money orders and checks to the value of $1,493,563 were found in the letters. This is a strange record of carelessness for a people who are conceded to be the most business-like on earth.

Hon. John H. Clarke wants United States senators elected by popular vote. It is an idea that is widely endorsed. But if it prevailed, his chances, now next to nothing, would be several times a minus zero.

New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Illinois are making diligent efforts to enforce the laws against child labor. The state that fails to protect the rising generation fails of one of its most important duties.

SEVEN RESCUED FROM WRECKAGE

Joseph Vorous, captain of the Hackley; —— Truchley, cook of the Hackley. Passengers: Freeman Thorp, Edna Barringer and Lawrence Barringer, brother of Edna Barringer, of Fish Creek; Frances Vincent and sister, of Egg Harbor; George LeClair Jr., and N. Fitzsimmons, of Jacksonport; Henry Rabbitor and Carl Keky, of Fish Creek; Nels Nelson, Sturgeon Bay.

The Saved.

The steamer Sheboygan rescued the seven persons on board the Hackley after they had drifted all night in Green bay, clinging to bits of wreckage, and brought them to Fish Creek.

The Hackley was struck by the squall when off Green island, seven miles from this port. The upper work of the vessel was blown away and the boat then turned over and went down in deep water.

As the Hackley went to the bottom those who would and could seized on floating pieces of wreckage, while the women and three or four of the men failing to find any object on which to cling, sank in the sea.

The waves were rolling high and several of those who at first saved themselves from immediate death lost strength and sank.

Rescued Taken to Indian Creek.

The Sheboygan ran into Fish Creek when hope of rescuing other persons seemed improbable. The rescued persons were so exhausted from their struggle against drowning that they were unable for some time to tell anything about the wreck.

The persons saved by the Sheboygan say that with the crashing away of the upper work all persons aboard the Hackley ran on deck. Hasty preparations for a plunge into the water were begun. The boat listed, turned over and went down like a rock.

Search is still making for persons who may have escaped death and for the bodies of those who were drowned.

The Eric L. Hackley was a 54-ton screw steamer, built at Muskegon Mich., in 1882. She was owned in Fish Creek by Captain Vorous and other residents of that village. The steamer made a trip every other day between Sturgeon Bay and Washington island, going up one day and back the next.

Killed by Electric Current.

Montreal, Oct. 5.—Two men were instantly killed in Point St. Charles and another bady shocked by the boom of a derrick they were operating coming in contact with an electric light wire. A. Tolson is in a critical condition at the hospital in Fort Smith, where he was taken for medical attention. The cause of the shooting is not known.

WELLSVILLE

Before a large crowd at Central park Sunday afternoon, the recently organized Wellsville Athletic association foot ball team defeated the famous Bruno team of this city by a score of 10 to 0. The Bruno team showed the better team work of the two teams, but the strength of the Athletics and the fast work of Peters, the big W. & J. man, and Morris and Kane was too much for them.

Kane made the first touchdown for the victors and Peters the second, both in the first half. Peters failed goal on both occasions. The Brunos managed to hold their own in the second half. The Athletics will play in Toronto next Saturday.

CONCEALED WEAPONS

Crusade Against Them Resulted in Three Italians Being Heavily Fined.

Rocke Wasso, Felix Grinis and Frank Dismo, three West End Italians, were placed under arrest early Saturday evening by Chief of Police Fred Houser and Officer McIlvaine. They were charged with carrying concealed weapons. When searched one had a long dirk, another a large jack knife with a blade nearly four inches in length and the third carried a loaded 32-caliber revolver.

The men were given a hearing by Mayor Fogo, pleaded guilty and were each assessed $14, which they paid. These were the first important arrests under a crusade recently started by the mayor to arrest every one who carries concealed weapons.

Rally Day Exercises.

Rally day exercises were held at the United Presbyterian church Sunday morning. A special program was rendered, which consisted of selections by the choir and a most instructive missionary exercise, entiled "A Study of Diamonds," by Mrs. Joseph Alter, a missionary who has been working among the Oregon Indians. The exercises were largely attended. In the morning Mrs. Alter occupied the pulpit and gave a very interesting talk on life among the Indians.

REAL NOURISHMENT FOR ALL

Mi-o-na Makes Thin People Fat—Will Reed Will Return Money If It Fails.

Everyone needs real nourishment; then comes good health, strength and endurance. Without it, you waste away. Nearly every one eats food enough to furnish the necessary nourishment for the perfect support of life, but the food is not assimilated and there follows indigestion, weakness and emaciation.

A few days' use of Mi-o-na, the wonderful flesh-forming food, will demonstrate its power to furnish real nourishment and restore health. Mi-o-na mingles with the food you eat, aids assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs and puts the whole system into proper physical condition.

By its use, the elements needed to increase flesh are assimilated from the daily food and each week will show a noticeable gain in weight.

Will Reed knows personally of many cases of long standing stomach troubles, some of them very bad, that were entirely cured with Mi-o-na. The thin and scrawny have used this preparation and by its aid have gained real nourishment.

Will Reed feels that he can honestly recommend Mi-o-na and as an evidence of his faith in the merit of the article, offers to sell it with the distinct understanding that the money is to be refunded in every case where it fails to do all that is claimed for it. You risk nothing in buying Mi-o-na, and if it gives the desired health, the cost is trifling, only 50 cents a box. If it fails, Will Reed will pay for the remedy himself.

While at play at her home Saturday evening, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bailey had the misfortune to cut off the tip of the index finger of her left hand. Lewis was summoned to dress the injured member.

Very Near Death.

An error was made in the announcement that Alexander Noble, of Irondale, an old friend of Mrs. Robert Dunn, was dead. Mrs. Dunn received word a few days ago that Mr. Noble, who is a very old man, was very ill, and thinking he would not survive the attack, Mrs. Dunn went to Irondale to be present at his bedside. He has not passed away, though his death is momentarily expected.

THE MONEY IS NOW IN HAND

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special)—A mortgage for $1,500,000 from the Youngstown & Southern Railroad company to the Continental Trust company, of New York city, was filed here today. A similar mortgage was filed at Youngstown on Saturday.

This shows that the money with which the Youngstown & Southern railway is to be built and equipped is now in the hands of the company and that there can be no delay on that score. It should set at rest all doubt on the part of scoffers who have argued that the road, like its predecessors, would be built only on paper. The contractors are making excellent progress with the grading at the north end of the line, and only the other day the officials of the company went over the route to decide upon the location for coal mines which are to be operated by the road.

ARRESTED TWICE IN ONE EVENING

Bert Nott, Aged 18, Was Wanted Both Here And at Lisbon.

Bert Nott, aged 18, a potter employed at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery in Chester, in less than an hour Saturday night faced two charges and on one of them was in the custody of two different officers. He is now enjoying freedom under bond of $200 to appear before common pleas court next Monday.

His 17-year-old wife gave birth to a baby boy two months ago and since then, she alleges, her husband has failed to give anything toward its support. The mother of the girl, Mrs. Eliza Smart, in the court of 'Squire McLane, attached the wages of Nott, alleging that he owed her for her work. Constable Powell located Nott who acknowledge his guilt of both charges. The justice was about to impose sentence when Sheriff Leonard appeared and placed the young man under arrest on a charge also of non-support. When Nott was found to be wanted at Lisbon the local authorities released him.

Stocking Beaver Creek.

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special)—Three cans of black bass and catfish, ranging from one to four inches in length, were received here yesterday from the state fish commission and liberated in Beaver creek.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Mauly, a dry goods merchant, of Bellville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

KEPT HIS SECRET WELL.

Priest With Rank of Monsignor Working Among the Lowly.

St. Louis, Oct. 5.—Dressed in the simple costume of a Catholic priest Rev. Father Caesar Spigardi has for eight years labored among the Italians of St. Louis, keeping as his own secret the fact that he is a member of the official household of the pope, a monsignor, and entitled to wear the garb of a chamberlain of honor.

The fact became known through the issuance of the official roster of the Roman Catholic church, which had this reference to the St. Louis priest:

When seen Father Spigardi was somewhat embarrassed that his secret had become known, but admitted that Pope Leo XIII. had conferred the honor upon him three years before he came to America. The rank of monsignor was conferred upon him in recognition of his achievements in leading three pilgrimages of Italians of the working class, one of 11,000 persons to Castiglione Delle Stiviere, one of 8,000 to the house of Loretto, and another of 4,000 to Rome. Bishop Sarto, of Mantua, now Pope Pius X., was concerned in the first pilgrimage.

Father Spigardi said he had never mentioned the matter in St. Louis, as he desired to labor as a common priest.

Murdered by Negroes.

BROKE UP MEETING.

Barre, Vt., Oct. 5.—One man dying, another suffering from a serious but not necessarily fatal bullet wound and a third under arrest charged with firing the shots is the outcome of the latest clash between the anarchists and socialists of this city. The feeling between the two parties has been intense for many months and conflicts more or less serious have been of almost daily occurrence.

Saturday night a number of anarchists attempted to break up a meeting of socialists and precipitated a fight, during which, it is alleged, Alexander Garretto fired three shots from a revolver, wounding E. L. Corti and Emelo Vochini. Corti, it is said, will die. Dr. Giacino Menotti Sereatti, editor of the socialist newspaper published in New York, had been invited to address local socialists, some 50 of whom had congregated in Socialists' hall. While the audience was awaiting the arrival of the speaker 15 anarchists, headed by Corti, made their appearance at the hall and declared that they would not permit Sereatti to address the gathering.

During the fight that followed the threat it is alleged that Garretto drew a revolver and fired point blank at Corti, the ball lodging in the latter's stomach. The second shot went wild and the third struck Vochini in the arm. When the anarchists saw their leader fall they sprang upon Garretto and hurled him downstairs to the street. The fight ended only when a large detail of police reached the hall.

Sebring's foot ball team played the baby at Columbian park Saturday afternoon in the game with the Oaklands, leaving the field because the referee refused to give a decision in their favor. The score was 6 to 0 in favor of the visitors, but Oakland had taken the ball to their 25 yard line and was shortening the distance to their goal on each successive play. Whether just or unjust, that decision was of too trivial a nature for such action being taken and had the majority of the Sebring players ruled the game would have been finished.

When the dispute arose, Mountford, Oakland's left half, had been helped through Sebring's left tackles for a gain of 5 yards. After he had been tackled, he dropped the ball and a Sebring player nailed it. Mountford claimed that a Sebring player had slugged the ball out of his arms and he was falling to the ground and Referee Chambers says he saw the act. As a result he gave the ball back to Oakland. There was a general kick from the Sebring players but it was confined mostly to Turner, who seemed to have about enough of the game, anyhow. Gallagher and a number of others did not take part in the rag chewing and advised Turner to go ahead with the game, but Turner had made up his mind to quit.

Quite a number of people among the spectators saw the play and state that a Sebring player tackled the ball as Mountford was falling. At any rate the Sebring players had no right to question the honesty of Referee Chambers in making the decision. He had treated them squarely and once, when Sebring objected, offered to retire. He was assured by the Sebring players then that he was perfectly satisfactory to them. On the other hand, Umpire Jewell failed to call one player for off side play and they were repeatedly at fault in this way, so much so that the spectators began to roast Jewell. This gave Sebring no little advantage.

The Oaklands won the toss and decided to defend the west goal with Sebring kicking off. The punt was short and Sebring got the ball. Jones made a left end run for 10 yards and then the Oaklands held for downs. Myler made 5 yards through center. Little was nailed with the ball in an attempt to work a delayed pass. The Oaklands were playing poorly, showing a lack of practice and ignorance of the signals. The ball went to Sebring on downs. Kline went around left end for 10 yards and Sebring had no trouble in the rest of the going to the goal line. Oakland's interference was weak. Sebring kicked goal. Score 6 to 0.

On the kickoff Mountford caught the ball on the 25 yard line and carried it back 5. Oakland failed to gain on the next two downs through mixups in signals and Mountford punted to the 30 yard line. The half ended with the ball on Sebring's territory.

The Oaklands showed a reversal of form in the second half while the Sebring players seemed tired. Mountford kicked off to the 25 yard line. In two downs Sebring carried it back 20 yards but were then held for no gain. Myler adopted different tactics and began to hit Sebring's line for good gains. In every scrimmage either he or Mountford carried through center or tackles for 5 yards and Sebring could not stop them. With the ball on Sebring's 25 yard line, the play spoken of came up and after a few moments of wrangling Sebring left the field.

Timers—J. Murray, Earnest Simpson.

THREE GREAT GAMES WILL CLOSE SEASON

Heinie Youngman's All-Professionals the Card for Thursday, Friday And Saturday.

The end of the present week will bring to a close the base ball season in this city. Determined to make the ending more interesting than the beginning the management of the local team has arranged for three games with Heinie Youngman's All-Professionals, to be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Nothing more than the announcement that this aggregation will be the opposition is needed to convince local fans of what the series is to be. Every one acquainted with the base ball history of this season knows what Captain Reark and his invincible bunch will be against when they meet the Homestead boys. The Pennsylvanians have put up about the fastest games this year of any team in this district, and their playing alone will be well worth the price of admission.

Captain Reark has arranged to have a strong lineup to face the visiting gang, and though he realizes that he is to buck a great mess of base ball experts feels confident of carrying off laurels by winning at least two of the series. Though he does not know positively who will comprise the lineup he does know a part of it and the fans will rejoice over his good fortune. Big Fred Heckathorn will grace first base, Webb will be found at second, Brown at third, Godwin at short or middle, Rising in left, Wallace in right, Emmerling and Sperry or Berry behind the bat; Winters, Ehman or Barker on the rubber.

NO MORE POLICE AT W. E. PARK

Among the numerous orders issued to the police by the board of public safety, one which will meet the decided disapproval of every base ball and foot ball enthusiast in the city leaked out yesterday. The order is very strict and will do away with police protection at West End park. The board issued the edict one day last week and stated at the time that the failure to heed it would be sufficient grounds for dismissal from the force.

The regular attenders at the park know full well the urgent need of a bluecoat during the progress of a game, either base ball or foot ball. There are times when an officer is indispensable. Crowds will surge out on to the playground in wild excitement over the contest and many times while forming a mob to do evil. In either case the presence of a policeman can only prevent the harm that would generally be the result.

While the majority of ones interested do not censure the board for ordering the force to stay away from the ground all are sore as the result of the order being confined to each and every officer. It is thought that the board acted unwisely and vigorous protests are being heard on all sides.

There is not a park in the country where policemen are not sent to preserve order and why East Liverpool should make a precedent by cutting it out can not be explained.

CRIPPLED TEAM LOST HARD CAME

East End Grays Had the Upper Hand on the P. P. A. C. and Secured a Victory.

The East End Grays defeated the Park Place Athletic club on Saturday. The losers were badly crippled, having but five regular players in the lineup. McBane, who has been playing a great game throughout the season, was the whole show in the contest, making several grand stand catches. The score:

ATHLETICS WON A NICE GAME

New Cumberland Could Not Make It Two Straight, Losing By 11 to 1.

Manager Ashbaugh's team turned the tables on New Cumberland Saturday by giving them a dose of the same kind of hot drops administered a week previous. The game was played at New Cumberland and though the score was very much one-sided, the large crowd present was held at an excited pitch throughout. The sensational playing of John Godwin at short was the feature of the game. The score:

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly all kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up, and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol congests the kidneys with blood and retards their activity.

There is no Alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the body. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a sallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

CATARRH A COMMON COMPLAINT.

Catarrh begins with a stubborn cold in the head, inflammation or soreness of the membrane or lining of the nose, discharge of mucus matter, headaches, neuralgia and difficult breathing, and even in this early stage is almost intolerable. But when the filthy secretions begin to drop back into the throat and stomach, and the blood becomes polluted and the system contaminated by the catarrhal poison, then the sufferer begins to realize what a disgusting and sickening disease Catarrh is. It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected? Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the catarrhal poison. S. S. S. purifies and builds up the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of S. S. S. and commenced to use it and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. Miss MARY L. STORM, Northwest Cor. 7th and Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

Immense Saving to the Taxpayers of Ohio.

NOT MERE DEMOCRATIC DREAMS.

To the Taxpayers of Ohio:

Over $3,000,000 saved to the general taxpayers of the state in a single year and all of it paid by corporations, is the official record of results of the tax-reduction legislation enacted by the last legislature in its first year of operation. The Republican party can claim absolutely the entire credit for this legislation. It was passed through the senate and house by the solid Republican vote in each body, as against the solid Democratic vote in opposition in each house. The Democrats were led in this opposition by Tom L. Johnson personally, as he spent weeks in Columbus marshalling his hosts to defeat any tax legislation that the Republicans might present. He got every Democrat in the senate and house to vote as he dictated, but fortunately the majority in both houses was Republican, resulting in the splendid saving to the people herewith shown.

This reduction is upon the real and personal taxes of every citizen in the state by reason of the reduction in the rate for taxation purposes from 2 mills and 89 hundredths on the dollar of assessed value to 1 mill and 35 hundredths on the dollar. This reduction is the direct result and is only made possible by reason of the laws for excise taxation upon corporations enacted by the Republicans. For some years past the Republican legislatures have been framing excise taxation laws which afforded considerable relief to the taxpayers of the state, and these having stood the test in the courts, the 75th general assembly, under the leadership of Governor Nash and his administration, proceeded with more comprehensive enactments along the same lines. The chief measures of this kind were the Cole law, which provides for an excise tax of 1 per cent of their gross receipts in Ohio of all public service corporations, both local and general; the Willis law, which provides for an annual payment of one-tenth of one per cent upon the issued and outstanding stock of all domestic corporations, and of that proportion of the capital stock of foreign corporations which is used in Ohio; and the Johnston law, taxing outside insurance companies 2½ per cent upon their gross receipts in Ohio.

As the direct result of this legislation there has been a reduction of taxes upon every dollar of real and personal property returned by the people of the state at large. The smallest sum saved for any single county is $5,359.28, in Vinton county, where the entire tax duplicate is only $3,480,054; the largest amount saved in any single county is $388,394.69, in Hamilton county. In Tom Johnson's own county of Cuyahoga, the state has saved to its taxpayers $354,349.87 this year. If the taxpayers of Cleveland have not received their share of the benefits of this great saving given them by the Republican legislature of the state, it is due to the fact that the Johnson tax-eaters have squandered the money in ways of their own.

Since the grand duplicate of the state of Ohio, the gross amount of all its real and personal property as assessed for taxation, is $1,990,885,388, this reduction in the rate of taxation for state purposes from 2.89 mills to 1.35 mills, over 53 per cent., amounts to the enormous aggregate of $3,065,963.50 actually saved in taxes in a single year by the three Republican laws named. This, too, is in addition to all that has been saved this year and all the preceding years by similar laws, first enacted by Republicans in spite of Democratic opposition. It should not be overlooked that all of these savings to the general taxpayers of the state come from the corporations of all kinds. It is legislation of the most practical character, all of it Republican and enacted in the face of solid Democratic resistance. It is the first constructive, systematic legislation along these lines for the benefit of the taxpayers in general that has ever been undertaken in Ohio.

Grand total saved in entire state by reduction in rate of state tax levy	$3,065,963 50

This list shows actual savings this year by the Republican legislation enacted despite solid Democratic opposition led by Johnson himself. It is a gain for each county, not for this year alone, but for year after year perpetually, unless upset by Democratic experiments. While Mr. Johnson and his immediate lieutenants, Salen and Clarke, Bemis and Witt, and all his other tax experts, are showing their list of guesses of what each county might be losing by reason of fictitious figures which they assume to make upon a basis that is not only false and unlawful, but upon a socialistic scheme that would take away ultimately from the people their farms and homes; instead of these glittering and deceptive promises, THE REPUBLICAN PARTY GIVES TO THE PEOPLE REALITIES IN TAXES SAVED and puts into the state treasury more than $3,000,000 additional annually from the corporations of the state by these laws of 1902. THESE ARE RESULTS ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISHED, NOT DREAMS OR DELUSIONS. None but Republicans voted for them in the legislature, and the Democrats all voted against them. Upon this comparative record between the parties let the people pass their judgment at the polls on the 3rd of November.

Very respectfully,
CHARLES DICK,
Chairman Republican State Executive Committee.

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child? There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Home of Swamp-Root.

PERTINENT POINTS.

British consols, the government bonds, are at the lowest price since 1866. "The chief reason for this serious shrinkage is the excess of borrowing by local authorities during the past few years." This is that highly praised English municipal ownership which Johnson urges upon Ohio. It has added over a thousand million dollars to English city debts within a few years.

Not a Johnson paper in Ohio will attempt to say anything about that list of Johnson officeholders in Cleveland under the "home rule;" one hundred and six of them drawing salaries of $296,756 and paying in taxes only $1,238.33, Johnson included. Aside from Johnson and Judge Coffinbury, the whole bunch pay less than $300.

The papers have to talk about Cleveland until election because that city is a living example of Johnsonism. One little local incident was the Johnson raid to drive the bootblacks and newsboys off the streets to prevent the little chaps from earning a living.

Size of the Oceans.

Most men seem to be as ignorant about the size of the sea as they are of the distance between the heavenly planets. Invention gives a few interesting facts: The Pacific covers 68,000,000 miles, the Atlantic 30,000,000 and the Indian, Arctic and Antarctic oceans 42,000,000. To stow away the contents of the Pacific it would be necessary to fill a tank a mile long, a mile wide and a mile deep every day for 440 years. Put in figures, the Pacific holds in weight 948,000,000,000,000,000,000 tons. The Atlantic averages a depth of not quite three miles. Its water weighs 325,000,000,000,000,000 tons, and a tank to contain it would have each of its sides 430 miles long and deep.

English as She Is Spoke.

"Think of it! For three days and three nights that quartet sat about a table, shuffling, dealing and cashing in jackpots, and when the game was finally broken up every man had exactly the amount he had begun with."

Afraid of the Signs.

Mrs. Brown—How do you like your neighbor, Mrs. Black?

Mrs. Green—Oh, I like her well enough, but I suspect she doesn't think much of me. I saw our girl talking to her over the fence last evening.

"NO DIFFERENCE."

To Crush a Candidate Because of "Curative Act," Johnson Asks Another Democratic Believer In It to Run Against Him—Richland and Stark County Cases.

One of the most interesting contributions to the campaign comes from the Mansfield News. It tells the story of the Richland county trouble inside the Democratic party, by which Representative Earhart was cheated out of his customary second term by Johnsons' direct effort. Earhart was one of the eight Democrats who voted for the curative act and were assailed by Johnson for that vote. In order to prevent his renomination, Johnson sent his private secretary Burr Gongwer, to Mansfield to ask former Representative C. N. Gaumer, recent owner of the Mansfield Democratic paper, to run against Earhart. Gaumer refused to do this, and said that he agreed with Earhart that the curative act was a good thing. Gongwer assured Gaumer that this would make no difference, as all Johnson wanted was to make his word good that Earhart would not be re-elected. That is to say, Johnson didn't care anything for the curative act as a matter of principle, but simply to prove his power in the party.

Still not satisfied, Johnson tried other Democrats in Richland county to get them to run for representative. The News names Colonel T. T. Dill, Robert Hutchison, R. B. McCrory and C. Y. McCray, of Mansfield, and Riley Bricker, of Shelby, as among those applied to but refusing to do what Johnson wanted. Hutchison was invited to Cleveland, and at Johnson's house, the boss, it is understood, offered to furnish him with the "sinews of political warfare" in three figures, and besides pay all campaign expenses. Mr. Hutchison said that the Richland county Democrats wanted Earhart reelected. Then McCray was sent for, but refused to do what was desired. Not until all the others had declined Johnson's kind offers did he take up with Hershey, the man finally nominated. How this revelation will improve Hershey's chances for being elected on the Democratic ticket in Richland county as representative, will appear on the 3rd of November.

Somewhat similar things were going on in Stark county about that time, according to the Alliance Review. That paper quotes "a prominent Democrat of Alliance" as telling a personal friend "that Tom L. Johnson had offered to give said Democrat his (Tom L. Johnson's) personal check for $2,000 if said Democrat would become a candidate for the state legislature and use the money in an effort to procure his election." Following good advice the Democrat declined to have anything to do with the proposition. The Review is in earnest about this and feels its responsibility so definitely as to say that if the statement is not correct, "recourse and recompense to the injured party can be had through the courts."

A Bigger Bid.

A Lincolnshire parish once possessed a clergyman who was not much appreciated. One day he remarked to his churchwarden: "You people don't seem to appreciate me. Do you know that on leaving my last sphere of work the people showed their appreciation so much that they gave me a real silver salver?"

GOVERNOR'S VETO.

SECTION 1. That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this state, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1903, to amend Section 16, of article II, of the constitution of the state of Ohio, so that it shall read as follows:

Sec. 16. Every bill shall be fully and distinctly read three different days, unless in case of urgency three-fourths of the house in which it shall be pending, shall dispense with the rule. No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title, and no law shall be revived, or amended unless the new act contains the entire act revived, or the section or sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed.

Every bill passed by both houses of the general assembly shall, before said bill can become law, be presented to the governor. If he approves he shall sign said bill and thereupon said bill shall be law. If he object he shall not sign and shall return said bill, together with his objections thereto in writing, to the house wherein said bill originated, which house shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members elect of that house vote to repass said bill it shall be sent, together with the objection, to the other house, which shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members-elect of that house vote to pass said bill it shall be law, otherwise it shall not be law. The votes for the repassage of said bill shall in each house respectively be no less than those given on the original passage. If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor is not signed and is not returned to the house wherein it originated and within ten days after being so presented, exclusive of Sunday and the day said bill was presented, said bill shall be law as in like manner as if signed, unless final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return, in which case said bill be law, unless objected to by the governor and filed, together with objection thereto in writing, by him in the office of the secretary of state within the prescribed ten days; and the secretary of state shall at once make public said fact and shall return said bill, together with said objection, upon the opening of the next following session of the general assembly, to the house wherein said bill originated, where it shall be treated in like manner as if returned within the prescribed ten days.

If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor contains two or more sections, or two or more items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of said sections or to one or more of said items of appropriation of money, and approve the other portion of said bill, in which case said approved portion may be signed and then shall be law; and such section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money objected to shall be returned within the time and in the manner prescribed for, and shall be separately reconsidered as in the case of a whole bill; but if final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return the governor shall file said section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money, together with his objection thereto in writing, with the secretary of state as in the case of a whole bill, and the secretary of state shall then make public said fact, but shall not further act as in the case of a whole bill."

SECTION 2. At such election those electors desiring to vote for such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—yes;" and those opposed to such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words, "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—no."

This Is the Store for Fine Millinery

Do you ever stop to consider what constitutes a Fine Hat? Not the shape, not the material, nor the trimmings, for all these may be the best obtainable and still the hat may be dowdy. A Fine Hat is not only made of fine materials but it has that indescribable beauty that only the master hand of an artistic trimmer can impart. Our Hats are distinctly FINE and yet they are produced at a cost so much less than is usual that other stores cannot understand it and frankly confess that they don't see how we can mark such low prices on our Millinery.

Drop in this week and let us show you what a pretty hat can be made for $4.98.

glar found gold clippings and filings to the value of about $25. The total loss is estimated at about $225.

The entrance to the Pittsburg Dental Parlors was effected in the same way and the burglar had the same opportunity to ransack the place without fear of interruption. Dr. Little, however, was more fortunate. Uncompleted work to the value of about $50, lying upon the top of a cabinet and in plain sight, was overlooked. It was apparent that the burglar took his time about gathering the gold from the various receptacles and it was all taken, even to the very smallest particles. Dr. Little's entire supply was taken, even the filings, from a place where none but an experienced dentist would have thought of looking. The entire loss is estimated at about $90.

Dr. J. H. Sloan estimates her loss to be about $100. This is not accurate, owing to the fact that most of the gold stolen had lately arrived and the bill for it had not been received. An entrance to the rooms was probably gained through the use of a pass key as no marks could be found on the door this morning. Dr. Sloan keeps her supply of gold in a small office safe, but Saturday afternoon, when she left the office she did not lock the door. A small inner drawer in which the gold was placed, was locked, however, and the burglar had used an instrument, probably a chisel, to open it. The burglar made the same careful search that he had at the other places and the booty secured is thought to be worth at least $100. Part of it was in unfinished work.

Mrs. Hawkins, who has apartments in the Golding building, near Dr. Sloan's office, states that she heard footsteps in the hall early Sunday morning. She places the time at about 6:30. So far as can be learned this is the only instance where anything like a clue either to the identity of the burglar or the time he committed the depradations, has been secured.

It is the opinion of local dentists that the burglar has been on the scene for several days and had learned the "lay of the land" of all the dental offices. It is pointed out that the establishment of Dr. Jackman, in a public building, was not visited, owing to the fact that he sleeps near at hand. Other establishments were ignored where danger of their being occupied existed.

It is evident that the office of Dr. Roy Haverfield, in the Stevenson building, was included in the list of intended depradations. Dr. Haverfield, who temporarily has been sleeping at his offices, was awakened at an early hour Sunday morning by a noise at the outer door. He thought it was the janitor and gave no heed. The door was secured by two locks and Dr. Haverfield had no thought of burglars. He had almost dropped off to sleep again when the noise of a footfall came to his ears. A moment later he saw a face peering at him through the curtain close to his bed. Like a flash the face disappeared and its owner beat a very hasty retreat. Dr. Haverfield still thought it to be the janitor and did not give pursuit. Later, when he heard of the thefts, he interrogated the janitor and learned that he had not been in his rooms at all during the morning. The nervy burglar had effected an entrance by undoing the two locks. The man appeared to be of about medium height. He wore a black slouch hat.

COLLINS VS. STRAEBLEY

Salineville, October 5.—(Special)—The case of Collins vs. Straebley was heard here Friday before Referee George T. Farrell, of Lisbon. The case was heard in the village hall, and a good crowd of spectators was there to hear the evidence, and also to enjoy the bright sallies of wit flashed by the opposing counsel. Judge P. M. Smith represented the plaintiff and W. F. Lones and W. A. Clark appeared for the defendant. Miss Lillian Bricker, of Carrollton, was employed as stenographer.

The plaintiff, J. Collins, of Lorain, alleges that he formed a partnership with James Straebley, while he lived here, and that the partnership has never been dissolved, and as a consequence asks Straebley to account for the proceeds derived from that partnership. Witnesses were examined until it was time for the parties to go to the train. Much evidence was adduced and exceptions were readily made to much of the evidence. So far Straebley has the sympathy of Salineville citizens and they think he has the best of the case. The hearing adjourned without fixing a date to continue the case.

The books at the freight office must be gone over to find out how much coal was shipped by the defendant from the mines he has worked here. The case promises to be long drawn out and by the stubborn way in which the attorneys are fighting it will take several days to hear all the testimony.

Factions Exchange Blows.

London, Oct. 5.—The candidature of John Howard Parnell, brother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, at the parliamentary election for South Meath, which is deeply resented by the Redmonites, led to a riot when John Redmond and other Nationalists went to speak in support of their candidate, David Sheehy. The rival factions came to blows at Dunshaughlin. Bludgeons and stones were used and many persons were injured. John Redmond in his speech denounced J. H. Parnell as a traitor to Irish unity.

Schooner H. W. Sage Foundered.

Detroit, Oct. 5.—A dispatch was received here from the captain of the steamer Samoa, at Cheboygan, Mich., stating that the schooner H. W. Sage, which was in tow of the Samoa, foundered in a gale on Lake Michigan Saturday night. No details were given, the message simply stating that the crew of the schooner were safe on board the Samoa. The Sage was the property of John Kelderhouse, of Buffalo, and was loaded with ore.

THIEVES HUNT FOR GOLD IN OFFICES OF DENTISTS

THE BURGLARIES WERE CLEVERLY MANAGED

A series of daring burglaries, resulting in a loss of about $500 to local dentists, was committed some time during Saturday night or before daylight Sunday morning. This is the second time within a year that dental offices here have been robbed of gold and valuable articles and it is apparent that the burglar is well versed in dentistry. It is the opinion of local dentists that the burglar at some time or other followed the profession. The establishments to suffer Saturday night were The Red Cross, Drs. C. J. Harrison and R. Calcott, located in the Thompson building, The Pittsburg Dental Parlors, Dr. J. M. Little, in the same building, and Dr. J. H. Sloan, in the Golding building.

At the Red Cross establishment an entrance to the rooms was effected by reaching the spring lock, a sharp instrument being inserted under the batten of the door. With but very little work, and without noise, the instrument was pressed against the bolt of the lock and the bolt was easily forced back. The simpleness and effectiveness of this plan brands the burglar as a genius in his line.

The burglar had a clear field after gaining the room and he proceeded to rummage through the cabinets and workshop. The roll top desk in the room was forced open and from it gold to the value of about $50 was taken. In the drawers of the cabinet were a number of gold teeth, crowns and bridge work, valued at $100, under process of construction for customers, all of which was stolen. To show how well the burglar understood the business of a dentist, several teeth, contained in the cabinet, were broken open to see whether they were filled with the precious metal. A drawer containing plaster of paris was explored to find work placed there to cool. The burglar also carried away porcelain crowns to the value of about $25 or $30. In the workshop the bur-

Officials of the county committee urged that township committeemen send in reports of their local organization, together with requests for meetings wherever they may be desired. Lithographs of Hanna and Herrick, 2,500 of each, will be here in a few days and a pro rata distribution of them made among the township committees.

GREAT SCHEME OF A HERMIT

A PENNSYLVANIA ODDITY

Encountered By Local Nimrods Who Were Hunting Near Greensburg. He Lives in the Woods But Knows the Game Laws Well.

George Parry and the party of hunters who left the city a week ago to enjoy an outing in the vicinity of Greensburg, Pa., have returned. He reports that he had one of the best trips of his life and that it would be impossible to enumerate the game that fell before his unerring aim.

Besides having a week of genuine sport, the party came in contact with a character, who once met, can never be forgotten. He is peculiar in many ways. The name of the man was not learned. He is a man of about 50 years and lives in the midst of a dense forest in a rudely constructed cabin. In general appearance he resembles the immortal Robinson Crusoe. It is said that this man has not been seen outside the forest in 20 years.

Like a hermit he confines himself to the woods and for a livelihood during the past few years since the game laws became effective in Pennsylvania he has resorted to a plan the like of which is unprecedented.

As is well known, a farm owner is empowered with the right to make an arrest of any violator of the game laws. This strange man owns the forest which surrounds him. It consists of about four acres of hickory trees. Such trees of course are sought by the squirrel family and when a bevy of them discovered this array of trees they decided to make it their permanent home. It was to them a veritable Eden. It is estimated that there are in the neighborhood of 400 squirrels harbored in this forest.

In Pennsylvania there is not a vicinity more hunted than the one in which this forest lies. There are hunters by the score traversing the district daily in quest of game and they usually find it. When they run into the secluded bunch of trees, the first thing they hear is the merry chirp of a squirrel and about a moment later no less than a score of the pretty animals come to view. Every one who knows the natural inclination of a hunter knows that the temptation is too great to resist—squirrel season or no squirrel season—to see one of them in plain view and let it go without a salute consisting of powder and ball. That is what every hunter does who happens along near this forest. Like a flash he raises his gun, takes quick aim and one of the innocent little animals keels over onto a limb and subsequently topples to the ground.

The hunter rushes to his dead game and just as he is picking it up the so-called hermit appears on the scene. He has been watching the maneuver from the very start and the hunter has done exactly what he wanted him to do and what he knew he would do if possessed of any sporting blood. "You know it is against the law to shoot these squirrels," says he. "Well, now I will put you under arrest and have you prosecuted to the full extent of the law if you do not make amends for killing my squirrel."

There is but one way out of it for the hunter. He must furnish $10 or put up his gun for security. The latter is generally done. It is said that the hermit is rapidly acquiring wealth and that he has his cabin half filled with guns, the result of his strange proceedings.

In Jail For Larceny.

A LEAKY SCREEN CAUSES TROUBLE

Salineville, October 5.—(Special.)—The miners at the Slope mine here decided Saturday morning to quit work until the Ohio & Pennsylvania Coal company would fix the screen over which all the coal is dumped into cars. Over two weeks ago the company was notified that unless it readjusted the screen, the men would not work. The company paid no attention to the demand, and when the time had expired the men refused to work.

Al McGarry, of Cleveland, was down to meet with the committee Saturday and adjust the differences and he agreed to have the screen fixed the first of this week. The screen bars were so worn that a large amount of coal would pass into the slack chute, and the miners were losing from six to ten cents on each ton, it is said.

ANXIOUS TO KNOW ABOUT THE PRIZE

The Labor Day Contest For $25 Has Not Yet Been Decided.

THE CAUSE OF THE DELAY

Since the Labor day demonstration held in this city September 7, nearly a month ago, there are at least two union organizations who participated in the parade anxious to know what disposition has been made of the prize for the best turn out and display of their respective trade. A large number of union organizations competed for the prize, which was to be $25 in gold. The most formidable rivals in the contest were the teamsters and the local branch of the International Union of Steam Engineers.

Any one interested in the contest and who can remember that far back will recall that the steam engineers went to a great deal of trouble and expense in making a display. A traction engine had been arranged for, and with a very large percentage of its membership in line the union made an excellent showing. They were well uniformed and their display was something entirely out of the ordinary.

The teamsters' union, an association which had accomplished a great deal for its members within the past year, was also out for the prize, and owing to the method adopted in making the display the effort was both unique and attractive. The membership of this union is larger than that of the engineers, and for this reason the display attracted more attention. However, the latter organization had much the best of the argument in the matter of percentage in line, and believe there should have been little hesitation in making the award.

The officers of the central labor union who had charge of the demonstration, appointed a disinterested and secret committee, and to the present that committee has failed to make a report. It was suggested at one time that the two unions were so evenly matched that the committee was unable to determine which of the two had won, and that under the circumstances the money ought to be divided. The idea did not meet with favor at the hands of either organization, and so far as any of the interested ones are concerned there has been no decision.

HANOVERTON HAS A GOOD-SIZED FIRE

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—A serious fire occurred in Hanoverton early Sunday morning. It resulted in the total destruction of S. A. Henderson's undertaking establishment, together with a stock of coffins and fixtures.

The fire was first seen about 4 o'clock and had already made such headway that the firemen had to be content with saving contiguous property. Among the destroyed property was Mr. Henderson's hearse, a two-horse wagon, a surrey, a spring wagon, all his harness, and 23 coffins. The coffins were worth at least $500. The total loss will reach $3,000; insurance, $2,000.

While the origin of the fire is a mys-

Elza Vandyne, conceded to be one of the best clay miners in this vicinity, received terrible injuries Saturday afternoon at about 2 o'clock while at work in the mines of the Champion Fire Brick company, Wellsville. As a result the injured man lies at his home in Jethro Hollow, suffering indescribable pain, with the chances about even for his recovery.

Mr. Vandyne was standing between two heavily laden cars en route from far into the hill to the opening of the mine. The tram road over which the cars are hauled had become weakened and while the cars were passing over possibly the worst section of the road the upright posts gave way and before Mr. Vandyne had the opportunity to jump two of the cars went through to the bottom of the mine. He was standing on one of the cars that fell and when they bumped together he was pinioned between them. The weight against his body was great and the fall adding momentum to the load, his body at the hips was crushed practically to a pulp.

The shock was so great and the pain so intense that Mr. Vandyne screamed out in heart-rending tones for help. It was impossible for him to extricate himself, and before assistance arrived he had fallen over in a semi-conscious condition. Fellow workmen realized at once upon their arrival at his side that Vandyne was badly hurt and after getting him from between the heavy loads, carried him to the open air and then summoned the ambulance from central fire station. The wagon had been called to the East End and the best that Chief Morley could do was to send two men to the scene with a stretcher.

Upon the arrival of the officers Vandyne was carefully laid on the stretcher and taken to a street car upon which he was brought to his home. Dr. Norris was called and found the man to be in an exceedingly bad condition. The physician stated today that Vandyne would not necessarily die from the effects of the wounds, but that he would surely be laid up for months.

COUNTY AND SENATORIAL TICKET TO BE NAMED.

Party Leaders Announce That a Determined Fight Is to Be Waged.

The County Prohibition convention will be held in the G. A. R. hall this evening. Immediately following the convention senatorial candidates to represent the Twentieth-Twenty-Second district will be nominated.

Secretary C. F. Bough, of the county committee, stated this morning that the Prohibitionists of Columbiana county intend to make a hard fight at the coming election. Numerous plans have been laid by the organization and all will be completed at the convention tonight. An entire county ticket will be nominated. Representatives from all ports of the county have promised to be present and considerable more interest than has been noted in the past is expected.

Mr. Bough was unable to announce the names of any of the probable candidates. He would say only that they will comprise the best men in the city and county, and that the belief of the party is that the choice will poll large votes.

The only known candidate for senator is W. G. Todd, a prominent man of Belmont county. His home is at Flushing and he will be supported by every delegate of Belmont county, and it is thought he will receive the support of the entire convention. It will be remembered that Mr. Todd ran for representative on the Prohibition ticket a few years ago. In anticipation of his being received even more favorably than in his last race he will be nominated. Delegates from Bridgeport, Steubenville and other down-the-river towns will be in attendance at the meeting this evening.

Mayor Weaver announced this morning that the entire Prohibition party intends to be in the coming fight to a finish. "We are going to show the people a thing or two," said the chief executive. Other leaders of the party in the city are equally confident.

CLAIMS HER CHILD IS BEING DETAINED

Anxious Mother Says the Little One Is Near Death And She Cannot See It.

Mrs. Emma Farnsworth appeared at central station this afternoon and asked the mayor to assign an officer to accompany her to the home of George Tucker in California Hollow, where she claimed her child is being kept. She said it was at death's door and the Tucker family will not allow her to see it.

What might have been a most disastrous accident to both life and property occurred this morning at about 11:30 on the Horn switch, near the Dresden pottery, when freight train No. 7648 became uncontrollable and started on a terrific run down to the main line. That the catastrophe was averted was due solely to the train jumping the track before any great momentum had been gained.

The engine had been shifting some cars near the extremity of the switch and had started back toward the main track. As it is customary, when the train crews have nothing to hold them back, to go down the track with the speed of the wind, the engineer of this train had opened the throttle and the freight train was speeding at an awful rate. When a few yards east of the Dresden pottery the engineer was shocked upon finding that the brakes had become caught in some manner and that he could not work them. He tried with all his might to apply the air but it refused and just as the engineer and the remainder of the crew were preparing for the wildest run of their lives, the engine and three of the cars went jumping off the track. They stopped because of high ground in the pathway.

The crew was badly shaken up and the cars were broken up considerably. The wreck crew was summoned from Wellsville but at 3 o'clock had not appeared on the scene.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO SALEM BOY

Salem, October 5.—Earl Entriken, aged 18, a well known young man of this city, died Saturday morning as the result of injuries received shortly before 12 o'clock Friday night in a runaway on Broadway. The young man was unconscious when picked up and remained in that state until death came.

In the accident which caused the death of young Entriken, two members of the "Arizona" show troupe were also severely injured, and a fourth man, Carey Johnson, fortunately escaped injuries. The upsetting of a heavily laden trunk wagon caused the death and injuries.

Licensed to Marry.

A DEMURRER FILED IN THE WYMAN CASE

A special from Lisbon states that a demurrer was filed this afternoon by Attorneys Brookes & Thompson, of this city, and Billingsley, Clark & DeFord, of Lisbon, representing Mayor Weaver and the board of public safety, in the case of City Solicitor Davidson, which was instituted last week to prevent the appointment of John Wyman as chief of police.

The attorneys allege in the demurrer that Solicitor Davidson had no right to bring action and that he did not state the cause of action in his petition. The demurrer will be heard on Friday.

If it is sustained the case will not come up for a hearing before Judge Hole. If the demurrer is ignored the case will come up the first of next week.

tery, the general opinion is that it was the work of an incendiary, though there is said to be a possibility that it was due to the spontaneous combustion of embalming fluid. The firemen, with the Seeds fire engine purchased by the village a few years ago, did excellent work in saving adjoining property.

STOCK EXCHANGE IS INDICTED

A Fight Will Be Put Up By F. A. Tremaine to Keep His Business Running.

Among the local people indicted by the grand jury last week was F. A. Tremaine, manager of the Penn Stock exchange, with headquarters in the Potters' National bank building. The indictment against Mr. Tremaine charges him with unlawfully operating a broker's shop. The papers to appear before common pleas court were served on Mr. Tremaine Saturday night by Sheriff Leonard.

Mr. Tremaine has decided to fight the case to the bitter end. He is confident that his business is not unlawful and is positive that such can be proven to the court. There seems to be some difference, indeed a great difference, between the kind of a shop run by Mr. Tremaine and the one that was in the city several years ago. The latter was a bucket shop where money was spent only on margins, and Mr. Tremaine, it is said, buys and sells actual stock. It is understood that his fight will be made from that stand point.

Council Will Assemble Tonight to Take Up the Vexed Subject.

A special meeting of council will be held this evening to take up for another time the aggravating bond question. The call was issued late this afternoon and every member is expected to be present.

William McCullough, the man who got an option on the bonds last week, accompanied by Attorney W. F. Lones, of Wellsville, arrived in the city this morning and after a consultation with City Solicitor G. E. Davidson, concluded that the resolution passed by council ordering the sale of the bonds is illegal.

Mr. Cullough apprised the solicitor and also the auditor that he could not furnish a buyer unless the resolution is materially changed. As a result it was decided to hold a meeting tonight.

River Committee Meeting—A meeting will be held at the postoffice this evening from 7:30 to 8 of the delegates to the coming river convention at Evansville. Every delegate is urged to be present.

Pittsburg, October 5.—Judge Joseph Buffington, in the United Sates circuit court, on Saturday decided one more case against the Western Union Telegraph company with reference to its lines on the Cleveland & Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania lines west. While granting the demurrer of the railroad Judge Buffington expressed the opinion that the telegraph company had a joint interest in the poles and wire. This will serve to complicate the case in the end.

The case just decided is entirely different from that on the Pennsylvania railroad. There will be no pole chopping, inasmuch as for some time a working agreement has been in effect between the two companies under which the railroad agrees to refrain from interfering with the property of the telegraph company until the case is finally disposed of. President A. J. Cassatt has also tired of his early frolic. Judge Buffington's opinion would prevent pole chopping if such a working arrangement were not in effect, and it will even raise the question of the right of the telegraph company to continue to hold its poles on the right of way if Judge Buffington's view is finally sustained.

On the Pennsylvania the question at issue was that of a lease which had expired. On the Pennsylvania lines west the telegraph company claimed joint ownership under an old agreement. The granting of the demurrer filed by the Pennsylvania company to the equity suit of the Western Union means that on the contention Judge Buffington believes that the Western Union has no case. He refuses to define the extent of the joint ownership of personalty and unless the question is defined in the United States court of appeals, to which it will be taken, a cross suit to determine the ownership of all the property will be tried.

A LISBON PASTOR WILL RESIGN

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special.)—Rev. A. W. Lytle, who has been pastor of the Lisbon U. P. church for nine years, yesterday announced his retirement. He has been in failing health for a year or two, and the need of absolute rest is evident, as he is now apparently on the verge of nervous prostration.

His complete relinquishment of pastoral duties will become effective in one month. In case he is unable to preach during that time the pulpit will be supplied.

PEACE AND UNITY IN THE CHURCH

WORDS OF DR. TAGGART

"I know very well that I can live in Christian unity and brotherly love with my Episcopalian, my Methodist or my Baptist brother, far better, if he is content to live under his own ecclesiastical roof, holding his peculiar views and seeking to do the Lord's work in his special way, than if he would come into my denominational home and persist in forcing his peculiar doctrines and usuages upon me to the discord and confusion of my church life. I think if he is a true Christian gentlemen he will not attempt to do so, unless he believes my church life is so entirely wrong that it ought to be thoroughly destroyed. In that case he would not seek fellowship in it nor advise any one to remain in it.

"Here, in view of certain preaching in our midst in the past few weeks, I wish to say, kindly, and just as tenderly as I can, but with a strong conviction that faithfulness in seeking the peace and unity of our churches demands it, that any man, I care not what his talent or ability as a preacher may be, or what special revelations from on high he may claim to have received, who seeks to destroy the peace and harmony of churches, by forming associations of their members to propagate doctrines he knows are in direct conflict with those held by these churches, at the same time he advises them to remain in their churches for the advocacy of these special views acts a part, in my opinion, that is neither honest, honorable nor Christian. And those that accept such teaching and follow such advice do that which is in direct antagonism to the principles of true Christian unity.

"So far as any ridicule of the appearance and habits of the ministers of the city and accusations of their inefficiency and unfaithfulness is concerned they can afford to keep silence. But when it comes to advising a course of conduct calculated to stir up strife and contention in the church they must speak out, much as they may regret the necessity, against that which they believe to be in conflict with true Christian unity."

The remainder of the sermon dealt with the comprehensiveness, the beauty, the attractive power and the refreshing nature of this unity, and the blessedness which comes to those who live under its gracious influence, closing with an exhortation to exemplify this fraternal unity.

NO PERFECTION IN THIS LIFE

Rev. Edwin Weary preached from the text, "Grow in Grace." He spoke of the doctrine of sanctification, and read scriptural passages showing that it is not possible for man to attain perfection. He read from the writings of the apostles where it is proven that even they disdained a belief in their own sanctification. The Apostle Paul said, 'I count not myself to be perfect, but continually reach out unto that which is perfect.' The other writers of the inspired word were more modest than some of the preachers of the present day of alleged advanced thought and they acknowledged their transgressions and their sins were ever before them.

In closing the rector said: "To be perfect we must be at peace with all mankind. We must be loving; we must be kind and compassionate to the frailties of others. We must not vaunt our righteousness or holiness before others of our brothers who may have fallen by the wayside, but we must fulfill the great law of God, 'Love your neighbor.' If we could look into the inner lives of some of those who boast of sanctification we might not find these attributes of true perfection and sanctification. We would possibly not find an expression of perfect love."

SHAPING CHARACTER

Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt at the First M. E. church last evening spoke of environment and heredity and their influence in shaping character. He said in part:

"The church has undertaken to change the environment of its own people and of all people. Thus it can accomplish much for humanity. By destroying the evil influences, by strengthening so far as possible the good influences, properly attributed to environments, the church renders an invaluable service not only to this generation, but to all coming generations. This is true because temperamental defects acquired from associations with others are apt to be passed down from father to son. Environment is the combined personality of the community. Wherefore it is impossible for one wholly to disassociate himself from its influences.

"Oftimes it is noticed that man inherits a bent or propensity for theft or for drunkenness. Such a man merits sympathy perhaps, but his inherited weakness can not excuse his sinning. His will power should be overcome, he should resist the impulse to do a wrong. Men are measured by their deeds."

ON MISSIONS

Rev. J. G. Reinartz Delivers an Eloquent And Very Able Address.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz addressed a large congregation in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church last evening. His text was Matthew 28:19, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. Ge ge into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

The speaker delivered an eloquent and convincing discourse in favor of missions. Christian education and Christian missions, he claimed, are twin sisters. Where one is found the other stands by her side or will soon follow. Their Father is live and through its insntrumentality the gospel is being spread throughout the entire world.

Uncharitable Criticism.

Rev. J. W. Gorrell at the First Christian church last evening preached from the text, "Judge not that ye be not judged," dealing with uncharitable criticism as coming from the evil that is in men's hearts and which is devilish in its nature. Men have enough evil in their own lives to silence any censorous criticism of others' faults. A man's faults should never be held up to view unless the motive is a good one, to bring about reformation or to warn some one else.

News and Notes About The Potteries

AGAINST WHOLESALE PRICES.

There appears to be a general movement started by large crockery dealers throughout the east to prevent potteries from selling to the consumer at wholesale prices. They do not contend that very large quantities are disposed of in this way, but they do say that the practice has become so common that their own business interests are seriously curtailed.

S. E. Kaufman, of South Broad street, Trenton, in an interview, which appeared in the New York Crockery and Glass Journal a few days ago in reference to this channel of courtesy said:

"The Crockery and Glass Journal should, as the official organ of the trade, should exert its influence to destroy this unfair practice. When I first began to handle crockery and glassware it was possible only for the office force of a pottery to obtain a dinner or toilet set from their employer at the regular trade prices. Since then, however, the restrictions in this regard have been materially relaxed.

"Almost any employe nowadays seems to be capable of securing his crockery necessities in this way, and not long ago I discovered an instance wherein people who were not associated with the potteries in any capacity had no trouble in buying a jardinere, umbrella stand, dinner set, or something of that sort, simply because they were friendly with either the manufacturers or some of the employes. This isn't at all fair to us retailers. Every piece of ware disposed of in this manner deprives us of a sale, and I believe the manufacturers should protect us."

In commenting upon Mr. Kaufman's interview it says: "Mr. Kaufman's remarks deserve mental digestion. While it is scarcely likely that very much ware annually passes from manufacturer to consumer through this channel of courtesy, the fact remains that the practice exists. The manufacturer probably does not view the transaction from Mr. Kaufman's standpoint. He never disposes of the goods in a spirit of enterprise, but rather as a mark of appreciation and friendship.

"Retail dealers of our acquaintance have displayed the same liberality towards their clerical force, to whom they have sold merchandise at the bare cost price. Of course, no dealer subsequently suffers commercially by the magnanimity of the retail dealer, as in the case of the manufacturing potter. The practice has unquestionably expanded in recent years, however; and if its effect is so severely felt by the retailer as Mr. Kaufman declares the manufacturers should seek to remedy it in some manner."

NEW YORK NOTES.

While a modern dimunition in the demand for crockery was noted toward the close of last week, trade conditions have started out this week with some show of improvement, and confidence is generally expressed in the belief that there will be a good trade for the remainder of the year. Not only are the local warerooms quite busy, says the New York Commercial, but mail orders show a good volume of business and the traveling men all over the country are meeting with great success, especially in the west. At East Liverpool most of the potteries are working to their full capacity and some are now shipping their goods as fast as turned out. At Trenton everything is now running smoothly, a threatened strike among the kilnmen having been avoided, and both manufacturers and operatives are now in accord.

Domestic pottery is in good demand, hotel china being in especially good demand and much better than a year ago. As to foreign goods there appears to be a brisk demand for German specialties and in many lines the supplies are already exhausted. French goods are also active and many orders are said to have been placed already for spring delivery.

CAMERON NOTES.

George Quell, of Wheeling, who has charge of the decorating department, says he will soon have decorated ware on the market. Mr. Quell says he expects to employ most of his help from Cameron. Some experienced hands were engaged, but owing to the high prices charged for boarding ladies, the necessary help cannot be secured. The officials say that unless there is a cut in the price of board it will be impossible for them to get enough employes to do the work.

Miss Altman, of Wheeling, has charge of the bisque department.

Clarence Brooks, who was ill at his home in Peoria, Ill., has recovered and returned to his position.

Although there is a general decline in stocks at the present time, that of the Cameron Pottery company has been selling as high as 103.

TO BE DEBATED.

As announced elsewhere in this issue, a special meeting of local union No. 32 has been called for tonight, to take place at Brotherhood headquarters. Legislation has been enacted regulating certain matters with the printers and their crews and it seems to be up to the local to put them into effect. The proposition up for tonight's debate, a piece price for the rubbers and the abolishment of contracts, will prove of great interest to the trade. Neither of the questions are new ones to the local. There will no doubt be a large attendance at the meeting.

REPORTED BANKRUPTCY.

W. H. Rapeport, Hampton, Va., crockery dealer, is in involuntary bankruptcy.

POTTERY CONTRACT.

Charles G. Lacy, of Salem, has received the contract of constructing the brick work on the new pottery to be built at East Palestine, and will begin work at once. The pottery will be 48 feet long, 138 feet wide and part two stories in height.

POTTERY NOTES.

William Clark and family, of Lisbon, will move to Sebring. Mr. Clark has secured employment at the French China pottery.

John Roberts, manager of the decorating department at the Hall China company, who has been quite seriously ill for the past week or more, is beginning to improve nicely, much to the satisfaction of his many friends.

EAST END

REV. MR. LLOYD MADE HIS FIRST APPEARANCE

Occupied the Pulpit at Erie Street M. E. Church Yesterday—Other Interesting Services.

Services at the East End churches yesterday morning and evening were of particular interest and the congregations were large and attentive. The music by the choirs was also unusually well prepared.

At the Erie street Methodist church Rev. S. P. Lloyd, the newly appointed minister, appeared in the pulpit for his first sermon and the congregation was very favorably impressed. At both services he delivered very eloquent and able sermons.

The usual services at the Second Presbyterian church attracted large congregations. Rev. N. M. Crowe preached morning and evening and both sermons found attentive listeners.

Young Couple Wedded.

Miss Ida C. Densmore and William Reynolds were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Densmore, on Elm street. The ceremony was performed by 'Squire L. W. Carman in the presence of about 50 friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The house was tastefully decorated with greens and flowers. Mr. Reynolds holds a nice position in one of the local potteries, coming here some time ago from Beaver, Pa. Mrs. Reynolds is one of the East End's most popular young ladies.

Delegates to Convention.

Quite a number of East End people were among the number that left today from this section to attend the convention of Young Peoples' societies of the Steubenville presbytery of the United Presbyterian church. Rev. D. W. McQuiston is the secretary of the Christian unions for the presbytery and the church elected eight delegates. Those who will attend, with Rev. Mr. McQuiston, are Misses Margaret White, Maude Fisher, Mary Cooley, Mary Ramsey, Effie Ramsey, Elizabeth McCormick and Fred Sauereisen.

Farewell Reception.

A farewell reception to Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Orcutt, who are to leave shortly for East Palestine, Rev. Mr. Orcutt's new charge, will be given at the Erie street Methodist church Tuesday evening. A general invitation has been extended and the attendance will be large. As a part of the program there will be short addresses from the ministers with whom Rev. Mr. Orcutt has been closely associated for the past three years.

Miss Beaver Hurt.

Miss Clara Beaver, who lives with her mother near Ralston's crossing, was painfully hurt Saturday afternoon by falling from the steps leading to Erie street. Miss Beaver had hurt her ankle a few minutes before and it is thought she fainted from the pain while descending the steps. She was unconscious until after the arrival of Dr. Calhoun. The patrol removed her to her home.

Two Good Games.

Two interesting foot ball games were played Saturday on the school house grounds and East End teams were victorious in both. The Fourth street Athletics met defeat at the hands of the East End Marines by a score of 5 to 6, in one of the most exciting games ever played. The East End Tigers won from the Bruno Juniors by a score of 6 to 0.

Big Meeting Tonight.

Pan American court, Tribe of Ben Hur, will have one of the most interesting and important meetings of the year tonight, when 16 candidates for membership are to be initiated. THE PRECAUTIONS IN CONSUMPTION

How the Patient May Protect Himself and Those With Whom He Associates.

Columbus, October 5.—(Special.)—Dr. C. O. Probst, secretary of the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, in his fourth article deals with "Measures to Be Taken By a Consumptive for the Protection of Others and Himself." He says:

We have seen that tuberculosis is always caused by a living organism. That in consumption, or pulmonary tuberculosis, this germ is found only in the sputum. Let this be promptly cared for and the consumptive may without danger mingle freely with his family and the public.

Consumption may exist for a time with but little cough and no expectoration. During this period no special precautions are needed. The danger begins when there is expectoration.

In the first place a consumptive should always sleep alone; and, if possible, have a room for himself. He should not kiss or be kissed by any person, especially on the lips. He should be clean shaven. A heavy beard makes it difficult to expectorate, and is sure to become soiled by sputum. He should have his own drinking vessel; and knives, forks, spoons, etc., used by him should be boiled thereafter.

He should never expectorate upon the floor in any house, office, workshop car or other public place. While it is much less dangerous to expectorate upon the street or sidewalk, this too is to be avoided.

In his home he may expectorate upon paper or bits of rags, provided these are at once burned.

He should never use a handkerchief for such purpose. This is a common and especially dangerous practice. The sputum dries and on unfolding the handkerchief numerous germs are set free. A cup with a handle may be used to spit into. Paper cups to go inside of an outer cup are very convenient. They may be procured at most drug stores. The paper cups should be burned and the out cup disinfected by placing it in boiling water at least once a day. In all cases care must be taken not to soil the fingers. If this happens the hands should be at once thoroughly cleansed with soap and water.

Where natural gas is used for heating purposes, as it largely is in this state, it may be very inconvenient to burn paper cups, rags, etc. In that case the sputum should be received in a vessel containing a solution of crude carbolic acid—an ounce and a half to a quart of water; or, lysol may be used—one-half ounce to a quart of water. This vessel may be emptied into the sewer, and it should be thoroughly cleansed each day.

The ordinary cuspidor with sloping sides is not suitable for the use of consumptives, as the sputum on the sides soon dries and may contaminate the air of the room. A vessel on the floor for sputum should be placed on a square of linoleum or something of like character, which should be thoroughly wiped with the disinfectant solution every day.

The greatest difficulty is to dispose of the sputum out of doors. There are several styles of pocket spit flasks that may be used. They admit of easy cleaning, and prevent any escape of the sputum in the pocket. Consumptives hesitate to use them as they call attention to their disease. They may be almost completely hidden in a handkerchief, and with a little practice one could use them without detection.

Squares of old linen, cloth or of Japanese paper, can be used to receive the sputa, and these may be placed in a stout paper bag and carried in the pocket. Bag and contents should be promptly burned. A newspaper can be folded and cut so as to have leaves like a small book. This can be slipped into a stout paper envelope and carried in the pocket. The leaves of this booklet, envelope and all to be burned daily.

Care should be taken to prevent sputum getting upon the clothing or bed covers. The outer cover of the bed, which is most likely to become contaminated, should be of linen or something which may be frequently washed and boiled.

The outer clothing a consumptive wears should be hung out of doors in the sun once or twice a week. This will disinfect it.

There is another precaution that should be taken by consumptives. It has been observed that a person in coughing expels myriads of minute particles of saliva. It has been demonstrated that a consumptive may expel many tubercle bacilli in this way He should always, therefore, when coughing, place a handkerchief before his mouth and turn his head away from any person very near him.

The room occupied by a consumptive should not be carpeted. Bare floors oiled or painted, with rugs should be the rule. There should be no needless draperies. No broom nor dusting brush should be used in this room Cleansing should be done with moist cloths, and the floor should be gone over frequently with a cloth wet with a disinfectant. For this purpose corrosive sublimate one drachm to the gallon of water is excellent, having no odor. It is a violent poison if taken internally, and must be handled with care.

Can any one with consumption be excused from carrying out these very simple precautions? Remember that the vast majority of cases of this disease are caused by the germs cast out in the sputum of some consumptive.

It is safe to say that if every person in Ohio with consumption were to strictly carry out these simple precautionary measures there would be a saving of at least 4,000 lives every year in this state alone.

The consumptive should also take heed of what was said in the last article about reinfection. If he is careless with his sputa he constantly endangers himself as well as others.

Ignorance is the thing to be combatted, and none of us should hesitate, for fear of giving offense, to tell a consumptive how he may protect himself, his family and his friends.

Society must aid if we are to be successful in the prevention of tuberculosis, and in the next article it will be briefly pointed out what the public and the government, state and municipal, may do in this direction.

The effectiveness of the pure food law, adopted by congress last winter, has already been clearly proved. The standards established by the agricultural department have resulted in the rejection at the customs houses of large quantities of wines and foods that otherwise would have gained admittance. In the great majority of cases the sale of the rejected articles for domestic use would not have been allowed in the countries which exported them. Now let as much attention be given to food products made in America and in time the people may know whether they are eating healthful products or poisonous ones.

The Western Union Telegraph company's poles along the C. & P. railroad will not be chopped down, according to a decision of the United States circuit court at Pittsburg. Those who have occasion to use the wires, however, are hoping that they will speedily come down or else be operated by some company that has a disposition to accommodate its patrons and give the city of East Liverpool a telegraph service superior to that given Smith's Ferry, Industry and other hamlets.

The announcement, exclusively made in the News Review, that Senator Foraker expects to address a campaign meeting in this city, will interest every Republican. East Liverpool is not likely to have many campaign meetings this fall, but it will have one that will be a rouser and voters will come from far and near to hear the addresses.

A grand jury in New Castle county, Delaware, refused even to consider eight indictments drawn by the state's attorney general against persons accused of participation in the lynching and burning of a negro criminal last June. That grand jury seems to be trying hard to put Delaware in the same class with Turkey.

Ten million stray pieces reached the dead letter office during the past fiscal year and $50,000 cash and money orders and checks to the value of $1,493,563 were found in the letters. This is a strange record of carelessness for a people who are conceded to be the most business-like on earth.

Hon. John H. Clarke wants United States senators elected by popular vote. It is an idea that is widely endorsed. But if it prevailed, his chances, now next to nothing, would be several times a minus zero.

New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Illinois are making diligent efforts to enforce the laws against child labor. The state that fails to protect the rising generation fails of one of its most important duties.

The state will be $50,000 richer if Tom Johnson is compelled to pay his taxes. It can not afford to overlook such an important item.

MEET DEATH ON LAKE

SEVEN RESCUED FROM WRECKAGE

Joseph Vorous, captain of the Hackley; —— Truchley, cook of the Hackley. Passengers: Freeman Thorp, Edna Barringer and Lawrence Barringer, brother of Edna Barringer, of Fish Creek; Frances Vincent and sister, of Egg Harbor; George LeClair Jr., and N. Fitzsimmons, of Jacksonport; Henry Rabbitor and Carl Keky, of Fish Creek; Nels Nelson, Sturgeon Bay.

The Saved.

The steamer Sheboygan rescued the seven persons on board the Hackley after they had drifted all night in Green bay, clinging to bits of wreckage, and brought them to Fish Creek.

The Hackley was struck by the squall when off Green island, seven miles from this port. The upper work of the vessel was blown away and the boat then turned over and went down in deep water.

As the Hackley went to the bottom those who would and could seized on floating pieces of wreckage, while the women and three or four of the men failing to find any object on which to cling, sank in the sea.

The waves were rolling high and several of those who at first saved themselves from immediate death lost strength and sank.

Rescued Taken to Indian Creek.

The Sheboygan ran into Fish Creek when hope of rescuing other persons seemed improbable. The rescued persons were so exhausted from their struggle against drowning that they were unable for some time to tell anything about the wreck.

The persons saved by the Sheboygan say that with the crashing away of the upper work all persons aboard the Hackley ran on deck. Hasty preparations for a plunge into the water were begun. The boat listed, turned over and went down like a rock.

Search is still making for persons who may have escaped death and for the bodies of those who were drowned.

The Eric L. Hackley was a 54-ton screw steamer, built at Muskegon Mich., in 1882. She was owned in Fish Creek by Captain Vorous and other residents of that village. The steamer made a trip every other day between Sturgeon Bay and Washington island, going up one day and back the next.

Killed by Electric Current.

Montreal, Oct. 5.—Two men were instantly killed in Point St. Charles and another bady shocked by the boom of a derrick they were operating coming in contact with an electric light wire. A. Parent and P. E. Prevost were turning the handle at the time. Prevost had only one hand on the handle and did not receive the full force of the current. Parent was using both hands and was instantly killed. Prevost's cries attracted the notice of J. Curtis, the foreman. He rushed to Parent's assistance and was instantly killed. Prevost will recover.

Performer Shot by Physician.

Last Victim Found.

THE MONEY IS NOW IN HAND

Lisbon, October 5.—(Special)—A mortgage for $1,500,000 from the Youngstown & Southern Railroad company to the Continental Trust company, of New York city, was filed here today. A similar mortgage was filed at Youngstown on Saturday.

This shows that the money with which the Youngstown & Southern railway is to be built and equipped is now in the hands of the company and that there can be no delay on that score. It should set at rest all doubt on the part of scoffers who have argued that the road, like its predecessors, would be built only on paper. The contractors are making excellent progress with the grading at the north end of the line, and only the other day the officials of the company went over the route to decide upon the location for coal mines which are to be operated by the road.

ARRESTED TWICE IN ONE EVENING

Bert Nott, Aged 18, Was Wanted Both Here And at Lisbon.

Bert Nott, aged 18, a potter employed at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery in Chester, in less than an hour Saturday night faced two charges and on one of them was in the custody of two different officers. He is now enjoying freedom under bond of $200 to appear before common pleas court next Monday.

His 17-year-old wife gave birth to a baby boy two months ago and since then, she alleges, her husband has failed to give anything toward its support. The mother of the girl, Mrs. Eliza Smart, in the court of 'Squire McLane, attached the wages of Nott, alleging that he owed her for her work. Constable Powell located Nott who acknowledge his guilt of both charges. The justice was about to impose sentence when Sheriff Leonard appeared and placed the young man under arrest on a charge also of non-support. When Nott was found to be wanted at Lisbon the local authorities released him.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Mauly, a dry goods merchant, of Bellville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Buiger.

KEPT HIS SECRET WELL.

Priest With Rank of Monsignor Working Among the Lowly.

St. Louis, Oct. 5.—Dressed in the simple costume of a Catholic priest Rev. Father Caesar Spigardi has for eight years labored among the Italians of St. Louis, keeping as his own secret the fact that he is a member of the official household of the pope, a monsignor, and entitled to wear the garb of a chamberlain of honor.

The fact became known through the issuance of the official roster of the Roman Catholic church, which had this reference to the St. Louis priest:

When seen Father Spigardi was somewhat embarrassed that his secret had become known, but admitted that Pope Leo XIII. had conferred the honor upon him three years before he came to America. The rank of monsignor was conferred upon him in recognition of his achievements in leading three pilgrimages of Italians of the working class, one of 11,000 persons to Castiglione Delle Stiviere, one of 8,000 to the house of Loretto, and another of 4,000 to Rome. Bishop Sarto, of Mantua, now Pope Pius X., was concerned in the first pilgrimage.

Father Spigardi said he had never mentioned the matter in St. Louis, as he desired to labor as a common priest.

Murdered by Negroes.

BROKE UP MEETING.

Barre, Vt., Oct. 5.—One man dying, another suffering from a serious but not necessarily fatal bullet wound and a third under arrest charged with firing the shots is the outcome of the latest clash between the anarchists and socialists of this city. The feeling between the two parties has been intense for many months and conflicts more or less serious have been of almost daily occurrence.

Saturday night a number of anarchists attempted to break up a meeting of socialists and precipitated a fight, during which, it is alleged, Alexander Garretto fired three shots from a revolver, wounding E. L. Corti and Emelo Vochini. Corti, it is said, will die. Dr. Giacino Menotti Sereatti, editor of the socialist newspaper published in New York, had been invited to address local socialists, some 50 of whom had congregated in Socialists' hall. While the audience was awaiting the arrival of the speaker 15 anarchists, headed by Corti, made their appearance at the hall and declared that they would not permit Sereatti to address the gathering.

During the fight that followed the threat it is alleged that Garretto drew a revolver and fired point blank at Corti, the ball lodging in the latter's stomach. The second shot went wild and the third struck Vochini in the arm. When the anarchists saw their leader fall they sprang upon Garretto and hurled him downstairs to the street. The fight ended only when a large detail of police reached the hall.

Superintendent Fatally Assaulted.

Sebring's foot ball team played the baby at Columbian park Saturday afternoon in the game with the Oaklands, leaving the field because the referee refused to give a decision in their favor. The score was 6 to 0 in favor of the visitors, but Oakland had taken the ball to their 25 yard line and was shortening the distance to their goal on each successive play. Whether just or unjust, that decision was of too trivial a nature for such action being taken and had the majority of the Sebring players ruled the game would have been finished.

When the dispute arose, Mountford, Oakland's left half, had been helped through Sebring's left tackles for a gain of 5 yards. After he had been tackled, he dropped the ball and a Sebring player nailed it. Mountford claimed that a Sebring player had slugged the ball out of his arms and he was falling to the ground and Referee Chambers says he saw the act. As a result he gave the ball back to Oakland. There was a general kick from the Sebring players but it was confined mostly to Turner, who seemed to have about enough of the game, anyhow. Gallagher and a number of others did not take part in the rag chewing and advised Turner to go ahead with the game, but Turner had made up his mind to quit.

Quite a number of people among the spectators saw the play and state that a Sebring player tackled the ball as Mountford was falling. At any rate the Sebring players had no right to question the honesty of Referee Chambers in making the decision. He had treated them squarely and once, when Sebring objected, offered to retire. He was assured by the Sebring players then that he was perfectly satisfactory to them. On the other hand, Umpire Jewell failed to call one player for off side play and they were repeatedly at fault in this way, so much so that the spectators began to roast Jewell. This gave Sebring no little advantage.

The Oaklands won the toss and decided to defend the west goal with Sebring kicking off. The punt was short and Sebring got the ball. Jones made a left end run for 10 yards and then the Oaklands held for downs. Myler made 5 yards through center. Little was nailed with the ball in an attempt to work a delayed pass. The Oaklands were playing poorly, showing a lack of practice and ignorance of the signals. The ball went to Sebring on downs. Kline went around left end for 10 yards and Sebring had no trouble in the rest of the going to the goal line. Oakland's interference was weak. Sebring kicked goal. Score 6 to 0.

On the kickoff Mountford caught the ball on the 25 yard line and carried it back 5. Oakland failed to gain on the next two downs through mixups in signals and Mountford punted to the 30 yard line. The half ended with the ball on Sebring's territory.

The Oaklands showed a reversal of form in the second half while the Sebring players seemed tired. Mountford kicked off to the 25 yard line. In two downs Sebring carried it back 20 yards but were then held for no gain. Myler adopted different tactics and began to hit Sebring's line for good gains. In every scrimmage either he or Mountford carried through center or tackles for 5 yards and Sebring could not stop them. With the ball on Sebring's 25 yard line, the play spoken of came up and after a few moments of wrangling Sebring left the field.

Timers—J. Murray, Earnest Simpson.

THREE GREAT GAMES WILL CLOSE SEASON

The end of the present week will bring to a close the base ball season in this city. Determined to make the ending more interesting than the beginning the management of the local team has arranged for three games with Heinie Youngman's All-Professionals, to be played Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Nothing more than the announcement that this aggregation will be the opposition is needed to convince local fans of what the series is to be. Every one acquainted with the base ball history of this season knows what Captain Reark and his invincible bunch will be against when they meet the Homestead boys. The Pennsylvanians have put up about the fastest games this year of any team in this district, and their playing alone will be well worth the price of admission.

Captain Reark has arranged to have a strong lineup to face the visiting gang, and though he realizes that he is to buck a great mess of base ball experts feels confident of carrying off laurels by winning at least two of the series. Though he does not know positively who will comprise the lineup he does know a part of it and the fans will rejoice over his good fortune. Big Fred Heckathorn will grace first base, Webb will be found at second, Brown at third, Godwin at short or middle, Rising in left, Wallace in right, Emmerling and Sperry or Berry behind the bat; Winters, Ehman or Barker on the rubber.

NO MORE POLICE AT W. E. PARK

Among the numerous orders issued to the police by the board of public safety, one which will meet the decided disapproval of every base ball and foot ball enthusiast in the city leaked out yesterday. The order is very strict and will do away with police protection at West End park. The board issued the edict one day last week and stated at the time that the failure to heed it would be sufficient grounds for dismissal from the force.

The regular attenders at the park know full well the urgent need of a bluecoat during the progress of a game, either base ball or foot ball. There are times when an officer is indispensable. Crowds will surge out on to the playground in wild excitement over the contest and many times while forming a mob to do evil. In either case the presence of a policeman can only prevent the harm that would generally be the result.

While the majority of ones interested do not censure the board for ordering the force to stay away from the ground all are sore as the result of the order being confined to each and every officer. It is thought that the board acted unwisely and vigorous protests are being heard on all sides.

There is not a park in the country where policemen are not sent to preserve order and why East Liverpool should make a precedent by cutting it out can not be explained.

CRIPPLED TEAM LOST HARD GAME

East End Grays Had the Upper Hand on the P. P. A. C. and Secured a Victory.

The East End Grays defeated the Park Place Athletic club on Saturday. The losers were badly crippled, having but five regular players in the lineup. McBane, who has been playing a great game throughout the season, was the whole show in the contest, making several grand stand catches. The score:

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly all kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up, and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol congests the kidneys with blood and retards their activity.

There is no Alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the body. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a sallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

CATARRH A COMMON COMPLAINT.

Catarrh begins with a stubborn cold in the head, inflammation or soreness of the membrane or lining of the nose, discharge of mucus matter, headaches, neuralgia and difficult breathing, and even in this early stage is almost intolerable. But when the filthy secretions begin to drop back into the throat and stomach, and the blood becomes polluted and the system contaminated by the catarrhal poison, then the sufferer begins to realize what a disgusting and sickening disease Catarrh is. It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected? Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the catarrhal poison. S. S. S. purifies and builds up the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result.

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of S. S. S. and commenced to use it and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. Miss MARY L. STORM, Northwest Cor. 7th and Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

REAL RESULTS.

NOT MERE DEMOCRATIC DREAMS.

To the Taxpayers of Ohio:

Over $3,000,000 saved to the general taxpayers of the state in a single year and all of it paid by corporations, is the official record of results of the tax-reduction legislation enacted by the last legislature in its first year of operation. The Republican party can claim absolutely the entire credit for this legislation. It was passed through the senate and house by the solid Republican vote in each body, as against the solid Democratic vote in opposition in each house. The Democrats were led in this opposition by Tom L. Johnson personally, as he spent weeks in Columbus marshalling his hosts to defeat any tax legislation that the Republicans might present. He got every Democrat in the senate and house to vote as he dictated, but fortunately the majority in both houses was Republican, resulting in the splendid saving to the people herewith shown.

This reduction is upon the real and personal taxes of every citizen in the state by reason of the reduction in the rate for taxation purposes from 2 mills and 89 hundredths on the dollar of assessed value to 1 mill and 35 hundredths on the dollar. This reduction is the direct result and is only made possible by reason of the laws for excise taxation upon corporations enacted by the Republicans. For some years past the Republican legislatures have been framing excise taxation laws which afforded considerable relief to the taxpayers of the state, and these having stood the test in the courts, the 75th general assembly, under the leadership of Governor Nash and his administration, proceeded with more comprehensive enactments along the same lines. The chief measures of this kind were the Cole law, which provides for an excise tax of 1 per cent of their gross receipts in Ohio of all public service corporations, both local and general; the Willis law, which provides for an annual payment of one-tenth of one per cent upon the issued and outstanding stock of all domestic corporations, and of that proportion of the capital stock of foreign corporations which is used in Ohio; and the Johnston law, taxing outside insurance companies 2½ per cent upon their gross receipts in Ohio.

As the direct result of this legislation there has been a reduction of taxes upon every dollar of real and personal property returned by the people of the state at large. The smallest sum saved for any single county is $5,359.28, in Vinton county, where the entire tax duplicate is only $3,480,054; the largest amount saved in any single county is $388,394.69, in Hamilton county. In Tom Johnson's own county of Cuyahoga, the state has saved to its taxpayers $354,349.87 this year. If the taxpayers of Cleveland have not received their share of the benefits of this great saving given them by the Republican legislature of the state, it is due to the fact that the Johnson tax-eaters have squandered the money in ways of their own.

Since the grand duplicate of the state of Ohio, the gross amount of all its real and personal property as assessed for taxation, is $1,990,885,388, this reduction in the rate of taxation for state purposes from 2.89 mills to 1.35 mills, over 53 per cent., amounts to the enormous aggregate of $3,065,963.50 actually saved in taxes in a single year by the three Republican laws named. This, too, is in addition to all that has been saved this year and all the preceding years by similar laws, first enacted by Republicans in spite of Democratic opposition. It should not be overlooked that all of these savings to the general taxpayers of the state come from the corporations of all kinds. It is legislation of the most practical character, all of it Republican and enacted in the face of solid Democratic resistance. It is the first constructive, systematic legislation along these lines for the benefit of the taxpayers in general that has ever been undertaken in Ohio.

The following figures, showing the actual saving in each county to its own taxpayers upon the total grand duplicate in each county of all its property, both real and personal, is from the official record in the office of the auditor of state:

Grand total saved in entire state by reduction in rate of state tax levy	$3,065,963 50

This list shows actual savings this year by the Republican legislation enacted despite solid Democratic opposition led by Johnson himself. It is a gain for each county, not for this year alone, but for year after year perpetually, unless upset by Democratic experiments. While Mr. Johnson and his immediate lieutenants, Salen and Clarke, Bemis and Witt, and all his other tax experts, are showing their list of guesses of what each county might be losing by reason of fictitious figures which they assume to make upon a basis that is not only false and unlawful, but upon a socialistic scheme that would take away ultimately from the people their farms and homes; instead of these glittering and deceptive promises, THE REPUBLICAN PARTY GIVES TO THE PEOPLE REALITIES IN TAXES SAVED and puts into the state treasury more than $3,000,000 additional annually from the corporations of the state by these laws of 1902. THESE ARE RESULTS ACTUALLY ACCOMPLISHED, NOT DREAMS OR DELUSIONS. None but Republicans voted for them in the legislature, and the Democrats all voted against them. Upon this comparative record between the parties let the people pass their judgment at the polls on the 3rd of November.

Very respectfully,
CHARLES DICK,
Columbus, O., Oct. 3, 1903.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

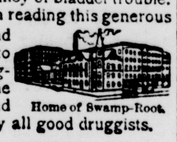

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Home of Swamp-Root.

British consols, the government bonds, are at the lowest price since 1866. "The chief reason for this serious shrinkage is the excess of borrowing by local authorities during the past few years." This is that highly praised English municipal ownership which Johnson urges upon Ohio. It has added over a thousand million dollars to English city debts within a few years.

Not a Johnson paper in Ohio will attempt to say anything about that list of Johnson officeholders in Cleveland under the "home rule;" one hundred and six of them drawing salaries of $296,756 and paying in taxes only $1,238.33, Johnson included. Aside from Johnson and Judge Coffinbury, the whole bunch pay less than $300.

The papers have to talk about Cleveland until election because that city is a living example of Johnsonism. One little local incident was the Johnson raid to drive the bootblacks and newsboys off the streets to prevent the little chaps from earning a living.

Size of the Oceans.

Most men seem to be as ignorant about the size of the sea as they are of the distance between the heavenly planets. Invention gives a few interesting facts: The Pacific covers 68,000,000 miles, the Atlantic 30,000,000 and the Indian, Arctic and Antarctic oceans 42,000,000. To stow away the contents of the Pacific it would be necessary to fill a tank a mile long, a mile wide and a mile deep every day for 440 years. Put in figures, the Pacific holds in weight 948,000,000,000,000,000,000 tons. The Atlantic averages a depth of not quite three miles. Its water weighs 325,000,000,000,000,000 tons, and a tank to contain it would have each of its sides 430 miles long and deep.

English as She Is Spoke.

"Think of it! For three days and three nights that quartet sat about a table, shuffling, dealing and cashing in jackpots, and when the game was finally broken up every man had exactly the amount he had begun with."

Afraid of the Signs.

Mrs. Brown—How do you like your neighbor, Mrs. Black?

Mrs. Green—Oh, I like her well enough, but I suspect she doesn't think much of me. I saw our girl talking to her over the fence last evening.

"NO DIFFERENCE."

To Crush a Candidate Because of "Curative Act," Johnson Asks Another Democratic Believer In It to Run Against Him—Richland and Stark County Cases.

One of the most interesting contributions to the campaign comes from the Mansfield News. It tells the story of the Richland county trouble inside the Democratic party, by which Representative Earhart was cheated out of his customary second term by Johnsons' direct effort. Earhart was one of the eight Democrats who voted for the curative act and were assailed by Johnson for that vote. In order to prevent his renomination, Johnson sent his private secretary Burr Gongwer, to Mansfield to ask former Representative C. N. Gaumer, recent owner of the Mansfield Democratic paper, to run against Earhart. Gaumer refused to do this, and said that he agreed with Earhart that the curative act was a good thing. Gongwer assured Gaumer that this would make no difference, as all Johnson wanted was to make his word good that Earhart would not be re-elected. That is to say, Johnson didn't care anything for the curative act as a matter of principle, but simply to prove his power in the party.

Still not satisfied, Johnson tried other Democrats in Richland county to get them to run for representative. The News names Colonel T. T. Dill, Robert Hutchison, R. B. McCrory and C. Y. McCray, of Mansfield, and Riley Bricker, of Shelby, as among those applied to but refusing to do what Johnson wanted. Hutchison was invited to Cleveland, and at Johnson's house, the boss, it is understood, offered to furnish him with the "sinews of political warfare" in three figures, and besides pay all campaign expenses. Mr. Hutchison said that the Richland county Democrats wanted Earhart re-elected. Then McCray was sent for, but refused to do what was desired. Not until all the others had declined Johnson's kind offers did he take up with Hershey, the man finally nominated. How this revelation will improve Hershey's chances for being elected on the Democratic ticket in Richland county as representative, will appear on the 3rd of November.

Somewhat similar things were going on in Stark county about that time, according to the Alliance Review. That paper quotes "a prominent Democrat of Alliance" as telling a personal friend "that Tom L. Johnson had offered to give said Democrat his (Tom L. Johnson's) personal check for $2,000 if said Democrat would become a candidate for the state legislature and use the money in an effort to procure his election." Following good advice the Democrat declined to have anything to do with the proposition. The Review is in earnest about this and feels its responsibility so definitely as to say that if the statement is not correct, "recourse and recompense to the injured party can be had through the courts."

A Bigger Bid.

A Lincolnshire parish once possessed a clergyman who was not much appreciated. One day he remarked to his churchwarden: "You people don't seem to appreciate me. Do you know that on leaving my last sphere of work the people showed their appreciation so much that they gave me a real silver salver?"

"That is nothing," was the churchwarden's reply. "If tha' would only go away from this parish we'd give thee a gold un!"—London Chronicle.

WHY MOTHERS WORRY

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child? There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

GOVERNOR'S VETO.

SECTION 1. That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this state, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1903, to amend Section 16, of article II, of the constitution of the state of Ohio, so that it shall read as follows:

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 16. Every bill shall be fully and distinctly read three different days, unless in case of urgency three-fourths of the house in which it shall be pending, shall dispense with the rule. No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title, and no law shall be revived, or amended unless the new act contains the entire act revived, or the section or sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed.

Every bill passed by both houses of the general assembly shall, before said bill can become law, be presented to the governor. If he approves he shall sign said bill and thereupon said bill shall be law. If he object he shall not sign and shall return said bill, together with his objections thereto in writing, to the house wherein said bill originated, which house shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members elect of that house vote to repass said bill it shall be sent, together with said objection, to the other house, which shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two thirds of the members-elect of that house vote to pass said bill it shall be law, otherwise it shall not be law. The votes for the repassage of said bill shall in each house respectively be no less than those given on the original passage. If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor is not signed and is not returned to the house wherein it originated and within ten days after being so presented, exclusive of Sunday and the day said bill was presented, said bill shall be law as in like manner as if signed, unless final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return, in which case shall be law, unless objected to by the governor and filed, together with his objection thereto in writing, by him in the office of the secretary of state within the prescribed ten days; and the secretary of state shall at once make public said fact and shall return said bill, together with said objection, upon the opening of the next following session of the general assembly, to the house wherein said bill originated, where it shall be treated in like manner as if returned within the prescribed ten days.

If any bill passed by both houses of the general assembly and presented to the governor contains two or more sections, or two or more items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of said sections or to one or more of said items of appropriation of money, and approve the other portion of said bill, in which case said approved portion may be signed and then shall be law; and such section or sections item or items of appropriation of money objected to shall be returned within the time and in the manner prescribed for, and shall be separately reconsidered as in the case of, a whole bill; but if final adjournment of the general assembly prevents such return the governor shall file said section or sections, item or items of appropriation of money, together with his objection thereto in writing, with the secretary of state as in the case of a whole bill, and the secretary of state shall then make public said fact, but shall not further act as in the case of a whole bill."

SECTION 2. At such election those electors desiring to vote for such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—yes;" and those opposed to such amendment shall have placed upon their ballots the words, "Constitutional amendment—governor's veto—no."

This Is the Store for Fine Millinery

Do you ever stop to consider what constitutes a Fine Hat? Not the shape, not the material, nor the trimmings, for all these may be the best obtainable and still the hat may be dowdy. A Fine Hat is not only made of fine materials but it has that indescribable beauty that only the master hand of an artistic trimmer can impart. Our Hats are distinctly FINE and yet they are produced at a cost so much less than is usual that other stores cannot understand it and frankly confess that they don't see how we can mark such low prices on our Millinery.

Drop in this week and let us show you what a pretty hat can be made for $4.98.

glar found gold clippings and filings to the value of about $25. The total loss is estimated at about $225.

The entrance to the Pittsburg Dental Parlors was effected in the same way and the burglar had the same opportunity to ransack the place without fear of interruption. Dr. Little, however, was more fortunate. Uncompleted work to the value of about $50, lying upon the top of a cabinet and in plain sight, was overlooked. It was apparent that the burglar took his time about gathering the gold from the various receptacles and it was all taken, even to the very smallest particles. Dr. Little's entire supply was taken, even the filings, from a place where none but an experienced dentist would have thought of looking. The entire loss is estimated at about $90.

Dr. J. H. Sloan estimates her loss to be about $100. This is not accurate, owing to the fact that most of the gold stolen had lately arrived and the bill for it had not been received. An entrance to the rooms was probably gained through the use of a pass key as no marks could be found on the door this morning. Dr. Sloan keeps her supply of gold in a small office safe, but Saturday afternoon, when she left the office she did not lock the door. A small inner drawer in which the gold was placed, was locked, however, and the burglar had used an instrument, probably a chisel, to open it. The burglar made the same careful search that he had at the other places and the booty secured is thought to be worth at least $100. Part of it was in unfinished work.

Mrs. Hawkins, who has apartments in the Golding building, near Dr. Sloan's office, states that she heard footsteps in the hall early Sunday morning. She places the time at about 6:30. So far as can be learned this is the only instance where anything like a clue either to the identity of the burglar or the time he committed the depradations, has been secured.

It is the opinion of local dentists that the burglar has been on the scene for several days and had learned the "lay of the land" of all the dental offices. It is pointed out that the establishment of Dr. Jackman, in a public building, was not visited, owing to the fact that he sleeps near at hand. Other establishments were ignored where danger of their being occupied existed.

It is evident that the office of Dr. Roy Haverfield, in the Stevenson building, was included in the list of intended depradations. Dr. Haverfield, who temporarily has been sleeping at his offices, was awakened at an early hour Sunday morning by a noise at the outer door. He thought it was the janitor and gave no heed. The door was secured by two locks and Dr. Haverfield had no thought of burglars. He had almost dropped off to sleep again when the noise of a footfall came to his ears. A moment later he saw a face peering at him through the curtain close to his bed. Like a flash the face disappeared and its owner beat a very hasty retreat. Dr. Haverfield still thought it to be the janitor and did not give pursuit. Later, when he heard of the thefts, he interrogated the janitor and learned that he had not been in his rooms at all during the morning. The nervy burglar had effected an entrance by undoing the two locks. The man appeared to be of about medium height. He wore a black slouch hat.

Salineville, October 5.—(Special)—The case of Collins vs. Straebley was heard here Friday before Referee George T. Farrell, of Lisbon. The case was heard in the village hall, and a good crowd of spectators was there to hear the evidence, and also to enjoy the bright sallies of wit flashed by the opposing counsel. Judge P. M. Smith represented the plaintiff and W. F. Lones and W. A. Clark appeared for the defendant. Miss Lillian Bricker, of Carrollton, was employed as stenographer.

The plaintiff, J. Collins, of Lorain, alleges that he formed a partnership with James Straebley, while he lived here, and that the partnership has never been dissolved, and as a consequence asks Straebley to account for the proceeds derived from that partnership. Witnesses were examined until it was time for the parties to go to the train. Much evidence was adduced and exceptions were readily made to much of the evidence. So far Straebley has the sympathy of Salineville citizens and they think he has the best of the case. The hearing adjourned without fixing a date to continue the case.

The books at the freight office must be gone over to find out how much coal was shipped by the defendant from the mines he has worked here. The case promises to be long drawn out and by the stubborn way in which the attorneys are fighting it will take several days to hear all the testimony.

Factions Exchange Blows.

London, Oct. 5.—The candidature of John Howard Parnell, brother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, at the parliamentary election for South Meath, which is deeply resented by the Redmonites, led to a riot when John Redmond and other Nationalists went to speak in support of their candidate, David Sheehy. The rival factions came to blows at Dunshaughlin. Bludgeons and stones were used and many persons were injured. John Redmond in his speech denounced J. H. Parnell as a traitor to Irish unity.

Schooner H. W. Sage Foundered.

Detroit, Oct. 5.—A dispatch was received here from the captain of the steamer Samoa, at Cheboygan, Mich., stating that the schooner H. W. Sage, which was in tow of the Samoa, foundered in a gale on Lake Michigan Saturday night. No details were given, the message simply stating that the crew of the schooner were safe on board the Samoa. The Sage was the property of John Kelderhouse, of Buffalo, and was loaded with ore.

He was editor of the Southern Standard, which was established in Charleston, S. C., in 1853. He advocated secession and was sent by the secession convention to Florida to induce that state to cast its lot with South Carolina. He was a first cousin of President James K. Polk.
